CROP CIRCLES MYSTERY SOLVED– CAPT AJIT VADAKAYIL

MYSTERY OF CROP CIRCLES SOLVED- CAPT AJIT VADAKAYIL

The first "crop circle" on this planet was made by super genius Nikola Tesla at Tunguska.

In 1908 when Tesla tested the foreboding weapon— his scalar wave howitzer, a type of particle accelerator .

At the time, Robert Peary was making his second attempt to reach the North Pole, and Tesla had told him that he would see something spectacular. On the evening of June 30, accompanied by his associate George Scherff atop Wardenclyffe tower, Tesla aimed his scalar death ray across the Atlantic towards the arctic, to a spot which he calculated was west of the Peary expedition.

His Howitzer overshot its target— and it caused a massive explosion equivalent to 45 Mega tons of TNT at Tunguska Siberia—the likes of which has never been experienced by this planet till now. The explosion was heard 700 miles away and it formed a huge crater which is still examined by all scientists .

Alarmed at the danger this posed to this planet the true Martyr to science (and the only one on this planet) Nikola Tesla quietly dismantled his howitzer.

Check out the trees swirled and flattened in the dense forest in the 2nd back and white picture from top –exactly like the modern day crop circle in a corn field. Sceptics called it a meteor strike–while NO remnants of a meteor has ever been found at the site till date.

CIA and the US military tried to steal his technology for a future star wars programme– the modern day HAARP, which in addition to scorching any spot on earth , can shoot any incoming missiles and also doctor the ionosphere to engineer weather , cause earth quakes or volcano eruptions or do mind control.

When Tesla refused to play ball, he was buried to history–and denied a Nobel prize for lighting up the world with AC electricity. Marconi was awarded a Nobel prize for radio transmission , which the US supreme court rules after Tesla's death that it was indeed stolen from Tesla.

When Tesla died all his scalar papers went missing from his hotel room in New York.

The modern day CROP CIRCLE of 2010 looks something like the below picture (the face of Sarah Palin who ran for US Vice president post)– even after swallowing this “ultimate lampoon”, USA and UK still pretend they don't know that the anti NATO group is behind all this.

–it is an ion drive lifter with scalar wave emitter– computer controlled with graphic image tracer. It is on a corn field in several square kilometers of area.

Psssst- Only Americans can be so dumb enough to believe , that stupid Sarah Palin is famous all over the cosmos.

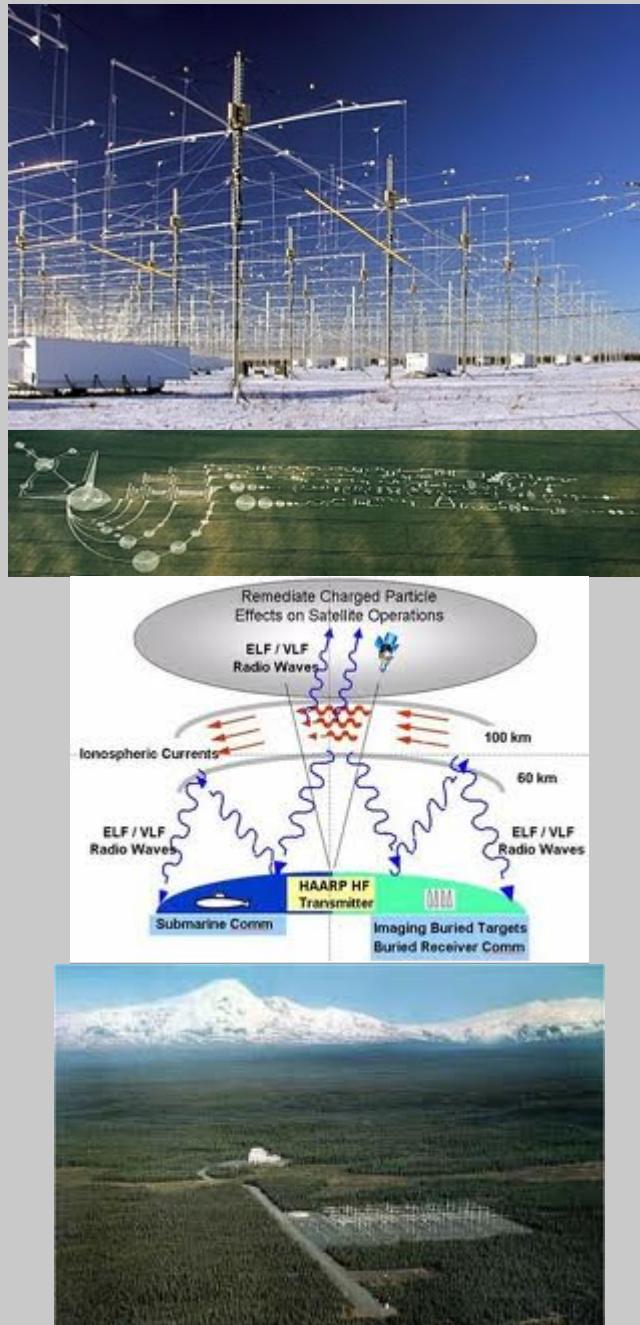

Pssst- and the Brits can continue their self delusion and claim the expertise of John Bulls- Dave and Doug in creating these enormous figures of art , with boards, wire through baseball cap(sic!) and rope..

Meanwhile Hollywood director M Shyamalan made a " crop circle " movie SIGNS –in which Mel Gibson acted. This drew the attention of the world – TILL TODAY NOBODY HAS BEEN ABLE TO GIVE A PROPER EXPLANATION TO THIS PHENOMENA.

Cant blame them as HAARP is a US military "Star Wars" secret, (from renegade Tesla Technology) . The picture below shows HAARP antennas at Alaska and its own schematic diagram as a crop circle several miles long. . just scalar waves meeting matter , under which a water body must exist, for RESONANT coupling–!!!

Meanwhile between the first crop circle in 1970 and 2010 – hundreds of strange theories were cooked up by the puzzled word. Some cunning guys in UK and USA even claimed that they made these circles manually at night HUSH HUSH without lights in the dark , without leaving foot marks.. The stupid planet believed them .

Now i want all of you to check out some crop circle pictures pasted below–is anybody naive enough to think such flora art can me made so perfectly in one single night, without lights? The geometrical crop circle of the SRIYANTRA at Oregon was on a wet lake bed 13 miles long without a single footprint. (there were no crops to camouflage foot marks on the soft mud).

You must be aware that all are several square miles in area.

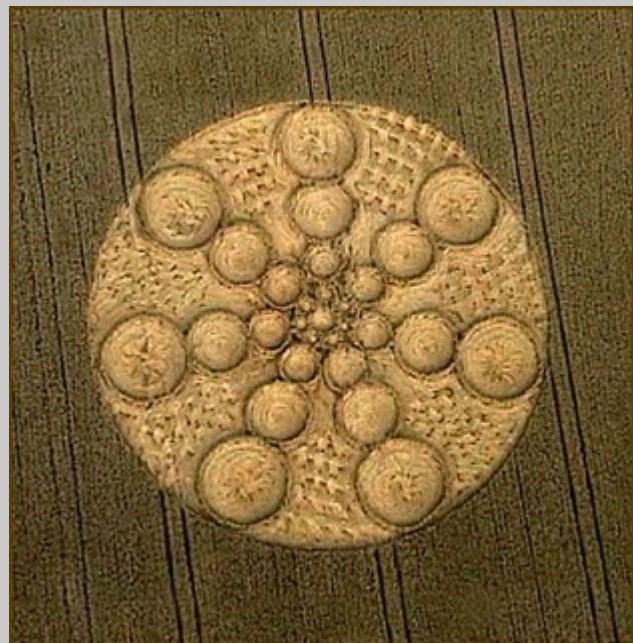

Even a Tesla coil popped up in UK in 2004 – amazing everybody – causing the movie SIGNS to be made.

What puzzled the world was – when the seeds are planted they grow 40% faster than their normal counterpart from the same field.

Some even had multiple layers swirled in different directions, where the stalks are actually woven like a piece of loose cloth on the floor of the formation. See the mat formation weave.

Electronic equipment failed in crop circles and magnets went haywire. No one was able to explain why this occurred.

Researchers measured a distinct emission of energy at 5khz emanating from fresh crop circles., while all stalks all still bent at 90 deg. The stalks are never broken in authentic crop circles and the plants' stalks later resume their 'erectness', never having suffered any trauma.

In the Seven tees before the advent of graphic and computers – it was a XEROX machine type operation.

PRINCIPLE FOR LAYMAN UNDERSTANDING ONLY :

Assume the crop field is a giant piece of paper in a xerox machine, and the grain stalks are the carbon grains. Xerox machines operate by laying down a static charge, with projected light and shadows causing a gradient between charged and uncharged regions of the paper. Carbon powder is attracted to the highly charged shadowed portions of the paper, causing the light pattern from the original to be transferred to the copy paper.

If a sufficient electrostatic charge were passed over the field with a long, narrow electrode, circles and squares could be produced in the grain. Perhaps a diffuse, low-gradient charge could be put into the whole field and then a high-gradient charge swept across the field, which would cause the grain stems to be charged for a few-milliseconds (before the charge could dissipate entirely to the air or down the stem). The static charge on the grain stems would pull the plants toward the oppositely-charged earth underneath, gently bending them.

Imagine how your hair stands on end when sitting on a Tesla coil, and then*reversing* the process, to cause the hair to flatten out on the scalp, but in patterns.) This would, of course, require a large amount of very high voltage, which might, is eminently possible with high-end Star-Wars-type hardware.

Nikola Tesla, had met Indian Mystic Vivekananda – one of the greatest spiritualists of Hinduism. The Indian Swami offered him a treasure trove of Vedic wisdom about energy and matter – about the ZERO POINT FIELD – or Akasha.

He explained that the empty space between whirling atoms is where the free and endless power lies.

It is because of use of such Sanskrit words , the Vatican got pissed off and caused Tesla to be buried in History.

Lynn Mc Taggart has written a book THE FIELD on this – yet she had zilch idea that all this was lifted from 6000 year old vedic wisdom.

The basic concept of a scalar weapon opposes two powerful scalar waves against each other, creating a hypothetical standing wave resulting in a scalar bubble between them.

By controlling the strength and location of this scalar bubble in space, it can superheat the target area , thus vaporizing the atmosphere itself.

An enemy could theoretically enclose New York City within a giant scalar bubble, flashing it into oblivion.

It was a scalar accident that caused the Chernobyl disaster. Time is actually compressed energy, by the same factor by which matter is considered compressed energy: the speed-of-light-squared!

So $E = t c^2$ (where t is “delta-t,” or change in time).

CROP CIRCLES ARE JUST AN INDICATION THAT WORLD WAR 3 WILL BE FOUGHT BY ADVANCED VERSIONS OF THE TESLA HOWITZER WHICH PULVERISED TUNGUSKA 100 YEARS AGO –

– FLATTENING 95 MILLION GROWN UP TREES AND DECIMATING 2500 SQ KILOMETERS OF FOREST –

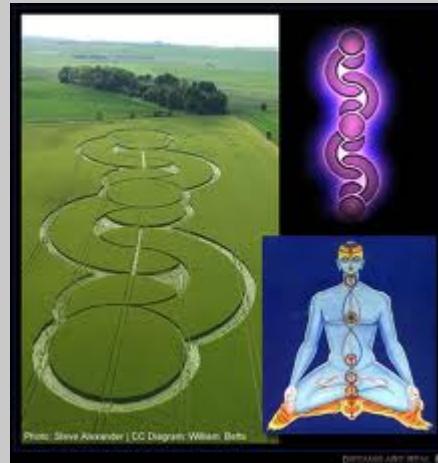

WITH 3000 TIMES MORE POWER THAN THE HIROSHIMA BOMB –

AND MORE POWER THAN THE TSAR BOMBA THE GREATEST NUCLEAR WEAPON EVER DETONATED..

YES –

TUNGUSKA HAD THE FIRST CROP CIRCLE.

9000 YEAR OLD INDIAN HINDU SYMBOL –KUNDALINI CROP CIRCLE:-

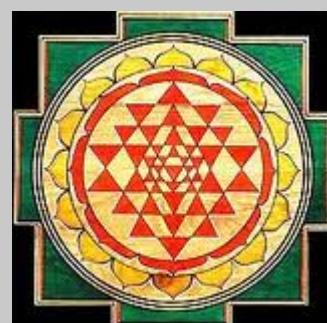

11000 YEAR OLD INDIAN HINDU SYMBOL AUM CROP CIRCLE:

If you see this OM or AUM symbol in a mirror it becomes the Islamic holy number 786 (in Devnagiri script)- which is seen on every Koran –and nobody knows what it means. Islam is only 1600 years old.

11000 YEAR OLD INDIAN VEDIC HINDU SYMBOL – SRI YANTRA (CROP CIRCLE):

The lines are 13.3 miles long, and 9 inches wide on a wet mud lake bed – photo taken by USAF aircraft from Idaho base. The diagram is too complex and geometrical – IMPOSSIBLE to be drawn by men as a hoax. Two bumpkins with muddy shoes were doing propaganda the next day saying that they did it. But when told to make it on a A4 size piece of paper , taking the whole month instead of just one night , they came a cropper.

Out of 9 interlacing triangles, 5 point downwards and four point upwards. All triple intersections meet at the same point. The vertices of the largest triangles fall on the circumference of the enclosing circle. Except for the two biggest triangles, all apexes touch the base of another triangle. The central triangle facing downwards must be equilateral and holds the Bindu of the holistic pyramid . The Bindu is also the centre of the circle . The 3 lines intersect at 54 points (number of sanskrit alphabets) with shiva and shakti qualities making the magic number 108..

Hundreds of tonnes of wet mud had to be disposed off somewhere– if it is man made without creating tyre marks or footprints!

THE SRI YANTRA GEOMETRY CONTAINS THE ELUSIVE ” THEORY OF EVERY THING “.

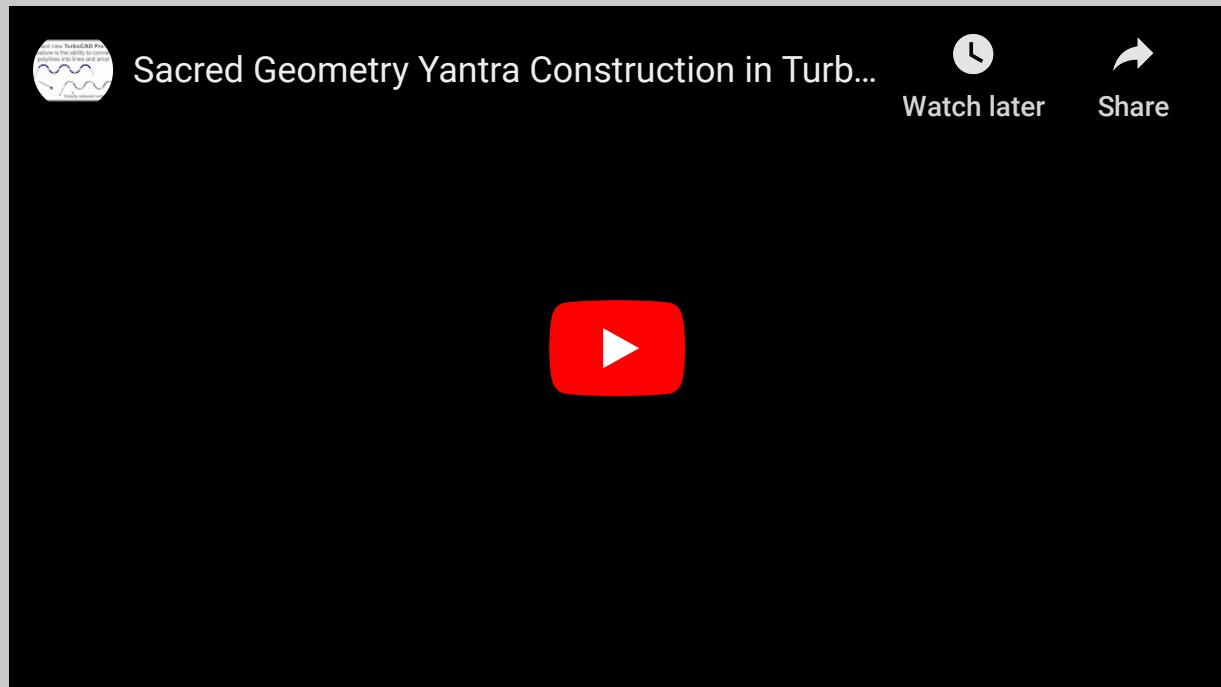

IT CONTAINS THE MACROSCOPIC . MOLECULAR, ATOMIC, AND SUBATOMIC LEVELS. MENDELEYEV'S PERIODIC TABLE IS INCLUDED– ALL BASED ON THE MAGIC NUMBER 108.

Sri Yantra is the chariot of ascension for transporting consciousness to higher dimensions. The Sri Yantra's 3 dimensional geometrical pattern contains the elusive Theory Of Everything (TOE) which interlinks gravity and antigravity to the other fundamental forces of nature.

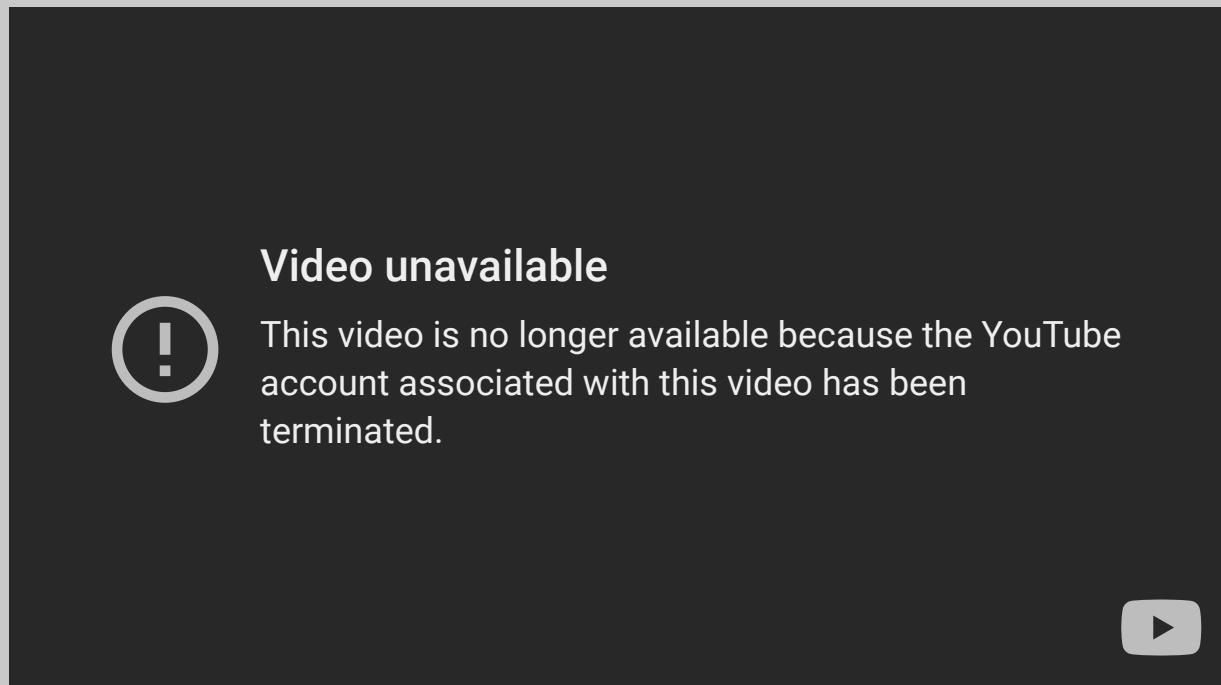

This cosmic consciousness pranic diagram contains the ultimate periodical table of elements and E8 root structure which is inclusive of the double helix DNA , quarks, anti-quarks, leptons, neutrinos, excitons, plasmons , solitons ,mesons, hadrons, gluons, W-bosons, nuclear forces , scalar waves , akashic torsion field records , dark energy, time, space etc.

The musical analogies of maths , physics , chemistry, quantum particles and contained in this diagram in the form of notation, harmony , melody and notes. The mind of god represented by the Sri Yantra is cosmic music resonating through hyperspace.Italian Fibonacci of 1200 AD is given the credit of the Golden ratio, while the Indian Sri Yantra (which contains the TOE) based on Golden ratio of 1.618 was drawn in 8000 BC –see video below.

If anybody thinks such a MASSIVE crop circle can be made by manpower overnight (below) –think again!
