Exposing The “Keys” to Disney’s Operations and Agenda

August 21, 2019 / 35 Comments

“If the world only had the eyes to see the fibers which lay under the surface of Walt Disney’s image, they’d tar and feather him, and drag him through the streets. If only they knew what Disney’s primary goal is.”

By The Sharp Edge

Keys to The Magic Kingdom

The Masonic Key

Walt Disney was born in Chicago, in 1901 and moved with his family to Kansas City in 1910. Walt's obsession with escapism, imagination, magic, and animals were forged on their Kansas City farm under the repressive, abusive, cruel and loveless tyranny of his father who would allegedly march them to the woodshed and dispense his brutal punishments daily.

"Young Disney joined DeMolay in 1920, as the 107th member of the original Mother Chapter of DeMolay in Kansas City, Missouri. He was 19 years old." DeMolay International, founded in 1919, is an international fraternal organization for boys 12 to 21. It was named for Jacques de Molay, the last Grand Master of the Knights Templar. DeMolay is considered to be part of the general "family" of Masonic organizations.

Frank "Dad" Land, the founder of the Order of DeMolay, was honored with the Knight Commander of the Court of Honor of the Scottish Rite and coroneted a 33rd degree in 1925. Each DeMolay chapter must be sponsored by a local masonic body. The sponsoring body is responsible for providing the chapter with adult advisors. Walt received the DeMolay Legion of Honor in 1931, the highest attainable degree, corresponding to that of a 33rd degree Mason.

It was in the mid-1930s that Walt Disney Studios began sending DeMolay International a Mickey Mouse comic strip entitled "Mickey Mouse Chapter" for DeMolay's national newsletter.

Commemorative coins are available for purchase to this day, featuring Mickey, Walt, as well as the DeMolay and Freemason emblems.

In 1935, Walt Disney was summoned to Paris, France to receive a medal for the creation of Mickey Mouse from the League of Nations. During his European tour, Disney dined with the British royal family, had a private audience with the Pope, and had a long interview with Italian dictator, Benito Mussolini. It was during this European trip, that Disney had a lunch with writer and prophet, H.G. Wells (a major inspiration for Disney's Tomorrowland), who, through his predictions of the future, conditioned the public to prepare for, and accept the stages of the New World Order.

In addition to sponsoring a Masonic Club for Disneyland employees, Walt Disney also created the infamous Club 33, located at 33 Royal Street in Disneyland, which is located on the 33rd parallel north. The secretive club's décor is reminiscent of a Masonic lodge, with its black and white checkered floor (representing duality) and blue and gold draperies (the colors of the Masonic emblem). The "Disney club that's so exclusive you've never even heard of it: Club 33, 'named after Walt Disney's Masonic ties', has an invite-only membership, a 14-year wait list, and a $100k initiation fee."

A quick internet search of various sites on the 33rd parallel of significance to the Freemasons will pull up a wealth of information, with perhaps the most notable location being Mount Hermon, the site from which the book of Enoch states 200 Watchers, or fallen angels, descended to Earth.

The Magic Keys of King Solomon

King Solomon is a central figure among illuminated Freemasons. They believe that King Solomon held the 'keys' to the mysteries of dark magic, and with a "magic ring bearing the six pointed star, or seal of Solomon, gained the power to summon demons and spirits using his will to control them and command them to complete tasks."

The number 33 was not just selected at random by the originators of the Scottish Rite. The Seal of Solomon, made up of two intersecting triangles, is considered a graphic representation of 3+3. It also plays a prominent role in Kabbalah. The number 33 is significant to Freemasons, as it represents “illumination” or enlightenment.

As a DeMolay Legion of Honor recipient, there is little doubt that Disney understood the significance of the number 33 in Freemasonry, and the creation of Club 33 was intentionally designed in honor of the Freemasons.

The FBI Key

Very few people are aware of Disney’s close ties with the Bureau, as revealed through FOIA documents. Of the 750 pages released on Walt Disney, the majority are censored. However, the documents which are legible are very intriguing.

n 1947, J. Edgar Hoover and Walt Disney struck up a long standing friendship. That same year, House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC) announced their first Hollywood blacklist. This friendship was initially sparked by Disney's desire to inform the FBI of how the "communist infiltration" resulted in his animators going on strike in 1941.

A year after Tomorrowland's opening, the FBI file recorded a meeting between their Los Angeles Special Agent in Charge (SAC) and Walt Disney. Disney requested the meeting in efforts to include the FBI in his vision of Tomorrowland. The document illustrates the effective FBI tactics of aggressive public relations campaigning in addition to illegal surveillance.

Their partnership was so close, that by the time of Tomorrowland's opening in 1955, the FBI was referring to Walt Disney as a close contact of the Special Agent in Charge. Additionally, Disneyland was offered to the FBI for "official matters and recreational purposes."

Further transcripts show that Disney and Hoover were in constant communication regarding the use of Disney's TV shows as a propaganda tool for the FBI, and three episodes of the Mickey Mouse Club were specifically designed for the FBI.

We may never know the full extent of Disney's relationship with the FBI as an informant, however the declassified FBI documents do shed some light on this topic.

The CIA Key

In an attempt to allow German scientists to help in postwar efforts, Truman agreed in September 1946 to authorize “Project Paperclip,” a program to bring Nazi German scientists to America. The plan was originally intended to debrief them and send them back to Germany. However, when the US realized the extent of their knowledge and expertise, plans changed.

Allen Dulles offered the Nazi Intelligence unit to the CIA, which many projects later stemmed from, including MK-Ultra and Operation Midnight Climax.

As a member of Project Paperclip, Nazi scientist Werner von Braun, became well known for his contributions to the Apollo moon landing. Von Braun nearly received an award – the Presidential Medal of Freedom—until one of Ford’s senior advisors objected to his Nazi past.

Disneyland opened during the same year that von Braun worked as a technical director on three Disney TV shows about space: “Man in Space,” “Man and the Moon,” and “Mars and Beyond.” In the 1950s and early 1960s von Braun became one of Walt Disney’s experts on the “World of Tomorrow.”

Operation Mockingbird, a large-scale CIA program organized by Allen Dulles and designed to manipulate news media for propaganda purposes, also began in the early 1950s. The CIA spent millions per year hiring journalists in Corporate Media from Disney/ABC and others, to promote their point of view. The original operation reportedly included nearly 3,000 CIA operatives and 400 journalists.

According to the Congressional report published in 1976, “The CIA currently maintains a network of several hundred individuals around the world who provide intelligence for the CIA and at times attempt to influence opinion through the use of covert propaganda. These individuals provide the CIA with direct access to a large number of newspapers and periodicals, scores of press services and news agencies, radio and television stations, commercial book publishers, and other foreign media outlets.”

In 2007 a large sum of documents known as the “Family Jewels” were declassified and released by the National Security Archive, which revealed that the CIA had routinely wiretapped Washington-based news reporters. The individuals who were tapped were most likely considered to be a threat and would not comply with their propaganda and gate-keeping efforts.

Disney has had a cozy relationship with the CIA going back decades. In fact, the CIA likes to brag about Disney’s special effects wizard, Robert Carey Broughton, creating “award-winning films” for both Disney and the OSS.

Files obtained through FOIA reveal that the DoD and CIA have backed and influenced the production of 100’s of movies and TV shows, many of which are owned by The Walt Disney Company.

Perhaps the most sinister of all known CIA projects, is MK-ULTRA/ ARTICHOKE/ MONARCH, authorized under Allen Dulles in 1953, as a direct result of Nazi scientists influence on US Intelligence through Project Paperclip. The projects involved the use of “many methodologies to manipulate individual mental states and alter brain function, including the surreptitious administration of drugs and other chemicals, sensory deprivation, isolation, verbal and sexual abuse”, in order to induce a state of trauma-based mind control in their victims.

Countless self-proclaimed victims of these horrific trauma-based mind control experiments attest to the use of Disney films for their programming, especially child victims. Films like Wizard of Oz and Alice in Wonderland were reportedly a staple in mind control programming, as the imagery optimized the traumatized victim's ability to dissociate and accept programming instructions.

"Because such candidates were and are selected young, before the ego has fully formed, children's stories were favorite modelling texts, such as The Wizard of Oz and Alice in Wonderland. Hence the connection with the entire Disney empire's involvement in such programming."

Originally designed as a program to be used for interrogation purposes, the MK-ULTRA program followed many of the guidelines listed in the declassified Kubark Interrogation Manual, which lists a method of interrogation known as the "Alice in Wonderland" method. The method involves a confusion technique to detach the interviewee from reality.

Through a FOIA request in 1977 a cache of approximately 20,000 documents relating to project MKULTRA were uncovered, prompting hearings. The CIA insisted that MKULTRA experiments were abandoned. However, a 14-year CIA veteran Victor Marchetti stated in various interviews that the CIA routinely conducts disinformation campaigns and CIA mind control programs carried on.

In a bizarre twist of happenstance, the director of the CIA who authorized Project Paperclip, MK Ultra, and Operation Mockingbird, Allen Dulles, is allegedly a distant cousin of Walt Disney, whose company has been associated with each of these programs.

The relationship between Walt Disney and the CIA was so close, that they actually played a key role in helping Disney with the purchase of the land to build Disney World. Disney hired Paul Helliwell, who ran CIA operations in Southeast Asia, and “Wild Bill” Donovan, head of the spy organization that eventually became the CIA. With their help, Disney was able to purchase the land at a very low cost and retain control of the property.

To get the land cheaply and discreetly, “Wild Bill” Donovan and his law firm created a number of shell corporations. Next, a disinformation campaign was orchestrated to keep locals from knowing that Disney was buying the property. If residents had known, they would have asked for more money. Eventually, people became suspicious and Walt Disney had no choice but to admit that he was building a park in Orlando. Property values immediately shot up. To maintain control of the large piece of property, Paul Helliwell created fake cities where the property was located, to install a compliant government in favor of Disney’s plans.

Disney’s close associations with the CIA have continued on to the present day, using big-brother spying techniques, which have been shared with the intelligence community. “Disney World is responsible for the nation’s largest single commercial application of biometrics” and after 9/11 the government sought “Disney’s advice in intelligence, security and biometrics.” Disney boasts the use of biometrics at their parks as well as their cruise line. A number of Disneyland employees have gone on to fill “some of the most sensitive positions in the U.S. intelligence and security communities,” including: Disney executive

The Pedophilia Key

A culture of pedophilia has been carried down from the very top of The Disney Company and infiltrated every aspect of the organization.

In an expose entitled, Hollywood Babylon II, Kenneth Anger alludes to a possible propensity towards pedophilia between Walt Disney and Bobby Driscoll. “Some animators stated that the boss [Walt Disney] seemed to have fallen in love with the boy. There may be some truth in this...” “The boy, who Walt fell in love with, was a small young attractive boy actor named Bobby Driscoll who signed up in 1946 with Disney. He acted in Song of the South, Treasure Island and Bobby's voice was used in Peter Pan." Like so many childhood stars, Bobby displayed signs of trauma from childhood abuse, becoming a drug addict by the age of 17, and dying from overdose a few years later.

One of Disney's directors, Victor Salva, was convicted of molesting a boy and filming one of the sexual molestations. Former Walt Disney Company executive Michael Laney has been sentenced to 81 months in prison for four counts of first-degree sexual abuse involving a 7-year-old girl. Director of music publishing at Disney Jon Heely, who was arrested on three counts of lewd and lascivious acts on a child, is accused of abusing two underage girls. Furthermore, multiple pedophile rings involving Disney have been uncovered through the years, involving dozens of Disney employees ranging in positions from ticket sales to night shift managers.

Recently unsealed Epstein documents reveal that victim Virginia Roberts-Giuffre named, among others, Democratic Senator of Maine, George Mitchell as one of her pedophile rapists. Mitchell served as chairman of The Walt Disney Company from March 2004 until January 2007. The Virgin Islands home of Epstein, who recently died under highly questionable circumstances while imprisoned, was subsequently raided by FBI and NYPD, who seized computer equipment from the residence.

With all eyes on the rapidly developing Epstein case, new information connecting Disney to Epstein's "Pedo Island" have come to light. Disney Cruise Lines sponsors a snorkeling expedition to the island now known for its connection to child sex trafficking, sparking citizen investigative journalists, who have speculated that there are underground dungeons within the island, to dig deeper into a potential connection with child trafficking to the island.

What's even more concerning is that between 2000 and 2014, nearly 200 passengers went missing from cruise ships and the maritime laws for passengers, particularly children, are shockingly lenient – offering no protection under the current law for any compensation for children who die due to the cruise ship's negligence. Given Disney's extensive history with nefarious activities involving the intelligence community as well as pedophilia, and considering that sexual assaults are the most widely reported crimes that occur on cruise ships, it's no wonder that a Disney sponsored snorkel trip to Little St. James raises concerns.

The keys to Disney's Magic Kingdom open a virtual Pandora's Box of illegal and immoral activities ranging from secret FBI and CIA operations to pedophilia and child sex trafficking rings. As for the ones who have committed these crimes, the time is now to lock them up, and throw those keys away forever.

Sexual abuse of children (and everyone else) has always been common in Hollywood – Judy Garland and Shirley Temple have mentioned it in interviews and articles.

Exploiting helpless children is an evil practice that should never be tolerated in any situation.

True, Disney had his faults, but who doesn't? He was a product of his upbringing. His alleged "pedophilia" has never been proven or documented. Every studio in Hollywood – indeed, every corporation – has all kinds of people on their payrolls, so you can't single out Disney as a scapegoat.

What about Michael Jackson? Did he work for Disney? No.

I still believe the foundation of Disney corp was as innocent as Mickey. When he started reaching out to FBI was when he wanted to protect the business from foreign propagandas which came known to him through Disney animators' strike. When he collaborated with mk-ultra project (which its learning ruined my life forever) through his movies, he still was serving his country in his opinion. You have to understand that during those days he or any other person had no means of exposing the evil truth to general public through very limited and censored media means, not at least as wide as nowadays that we have access to investigational journalists like you! And you still see people wanting to stay in disbelief.... For sure he still had option to choose to stand up and not collaborate but it probably would have cost him his business plus being SUICIDED and we would have NEVER KNOWN the true cause of his death... Not that I'm justifying his actions but just shedding light on the facts you presented from another perspective. Also the fact that DOD is sponsoring so many movies could not be indicative that all those movies are following a certain propaganda in my opinion. It could be as simple as needing the government support using its buildings and staff for making some of Hollywood movies. We are still seeing movies made such as EYES WIDE SHUT and AMERICAN MADE that do carry meaningful messages. I still enjoy reading your articles and you have taught me a lot so far.

With more and more awareness of the pedophillia, satanic sacrifices of babies and the sick elite pedophiles all over the world it is important to wake as many people as possible.

And the CIA/FBI MKULTRA is still going on today

But. there is so much misinformation in this story I don't know where to begin. Although Mr. Disney has an interesting early history, having Allen Dulles a cousin 20th removed is like Elizabeth Warren claiming she is 1/1024 indian. You claim that he enlisted "Wild Bill" Donovan to help get started in Florida. Research shows that Disneyland opened in 1955. Disney wanted to build an even bigger theme park so in 1959 he began looking for land and chose Florida. Wild Bill Donovan died in 1959!

1) any amusement companies name could replace Disney in this story and apply. There are pedophiles in every corporation in the world would be my thought. And the CIA/FBI have access to all of them.

2) Every Cruise Line in the industry that goes to St. Thomas offers that snorkeling excursion. The Cruise Lines contract with vendors on St. Thomas and the Islanders provide the service. You never set foot on Buck Island or Epstein's St. James Island. SO, putting this in your story " With all eyes on the rapidly developing Epstein case, new information connecting Disney to Epstein's "Pedo Island" have come to light. Disney Cruise Lines sponsors a snorkeling expedition to the island now known for its connection to child sex trafficking, sparking citizen investigative journalists, who have SPECULATED that there are underground dungeons within the island, to dig deeper into a potential connection with child trafficking to the island."

So, very titillating piece for someone that just reads and believes the writer. BUT, plagiarism filled!

I'd like to address this comment as well as any others who seem less than convinced on one or several points made in my article. So this comment is not entirely directed to you, Dan. I will, however, go over your statements and address them for clarification.

1. The Allen Dulles and Disney cousins connection was not meant to be a bombshell revelation. It was actually just an interesting little tid bit that I found while researching that I thought I'd throw in there just for fun. I wasn't really trying to make a point about a strong family connection there.
2. The story about Wild Bill Donovan and a team of his attorneys assisting Disney in the purchase of Disney World is backed by several articles as well as a book written by T D Allman, author, historian, and journalist, entitled History of Florida. He's written other exposes of the CIA as well. More information can be found on this subject by reading that source.
3. The claim that "any amusement companies name could replace Disney in this story and apply" may have some truth to it, but it's a bit ambiguous and hard to counter that argument with facts. So, I will simply say that I agree that, of course, there are other companies who may have connections to pedophilia. My answer to that would be that they should be exposed as well. It doesn't diminish the numerous connections to pedophilia within Disney. I think I laid out pretty clearly that Disney's pedophilia problem is significant and systemic. I could have written much more on that topic alone. However, for the sake of time and article length, I couldn't. I encourage everyone to research for themselves on the pedophilia connections to Disney.
4. I understand that multiple cruise lines offer snorkeling excursions from St. Thomas. I was unaware that others were also going to Little St. James otherwise known as "pedo island". That also doesn't diminish the fact that Disney Cruise lines, in particular does so. It simply raises questions regarding, at the very least, safety practices of cruise ships in general.

5. I provide multiple links in my work and my work is my own. I encourage others who don't believe a claim made in this article, to do your own research and make your own conclusions. We may not always come to the same conclusions.

However, at least we are armed with the knowledge, and for that we are better for it.

Best Regards,

Edge.
