Kidman Connections: The CIA, Secret Societies & Ritual Abuse

29/12/2015

In 1527, Ignatius of Loyola was let off with a warning by a Christian court for having sympathy with the Alumbrados of Spain, also known as the Spanish Illuminati. In 1534, Loyola became the founder of The Jesuit Order. In 1773 the Pope ordered the Suppression of the Jesuits and Adam Weishaupt became a professor of Canon Law at a Jesuit University. Weishaupt founded his Order of the Illuminati in 1776.

Antony Kidman and his brother went to St. Aloysius College in Sydney, a Jesuit school. After graduating, Antony's brother went on to pursue the 'spiritual' side of his education and decided to become a Jesuit. While in training to become a member of the secret society, he developed schizophrenia and had to abandon his plans.

Catholicism remained strong in the Kidman family. They attended the Star of The Sea Jesuit Church in North Sydney and Father Paul Coleman was their family priest. This was also the place chosen for the funeral of Antony in 2014, which only came a month after he was formally notified of Fiona Barnett's allegations. Coleman also officiated the marriage of Nicole Kidman and Keith Urban in 2006. It is interesting that Nicole maintains her Jesuit links while being connected with The Church of Scientology, a CIA/MKULTRA linked cult.

L. Ron Hubbard founded Scientology, and he had links to the Office of Naval Intelligence, Satanic Rituals, St. Elizabeth's Hospital and mind control research. According to Miles Copeland in 'The Game Player', while he was working for the CIA, his colleague, Bob Mandelstam, used Scientology as a front for his covert 'Occultism in High Places' scheme. Hubbard had performed the 'Babalon Working' ritual with Satanist, Jack Parsons, which aimed to bring about the Anti-Christ. He also experimented with drugs for the CIA at St. Elizabeth's, Washington D.C. This location is a common connection between the CIA & Mind Control research – and also for Freemasonry.

The Scottish Rite Schizophrenia Research Project (SRSRP) was based there, and this was partly due to the fact that Dr. Winfred Overholser Sr. who ran the hospital from 1937-1962 was directly involved with the project and a 32nd degree Scottish Rite Freemason. He was at the centre of MKULTRA operations and early mind control research there. As the name suggests, the research project was created and administered by the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry which like the above mentioned Spanish Illuminati, has a Gnostic influence.

Dr. Antony Kidman was in the Laboratory of Preclinical Pharmacology, which Dr. Joel Elkes had helped to create. Elkes was an LSD and mind control researcher who attended Scottish Rite sponsored events. The lab at the time of Kidman's work was run by Dr. Erminio Costa, who made critical discoveries regarding the effect of LSD on the human brain. Like Elkes, Costa attended the same Scottish Rite sponsored events on Schizophrenia and so did Dr. Benjamin Weiss, Kidman's trainer at St. Elizabeth's during the 1969-72 period. Weiss later received hundreds of thousands from the SRSRP for research and even chaired a SRSRP event. Kidman published a research paper regarding a rat experiment with both Costa and Weiss involved. His CIA connections have been detailed in the previous article, Kidman, Trauma Research & His Abuse of Fiona Barnett.

As a connection between The Scottish Rite of Freemasonry and The Jesuit Order, Prof. John Robison in his 1797 book 'Proofs of a Conspiracy' shows that there is collusion between the two secret societies, who are both working together to complete the goals of Adam Weishaupts' Illuminati. As a connection between Scientology and the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, 33rd Degree Scottish Rite Freemason and former head of the Ordo Templi Orientis, Aleister Crowley, 'the wickedest man in the world', heavily influenced Scientology and L. Ron Hubbard.

Nicole Kidman starred in the 1999 Kubrick Film 'Eyes Wide Shut', which is a story based on an elite sex-cult that engages in Satanic rituals. The rituals performed in the movie match the descriptions that have been documented by survivors & witnesses.

Another strange Kidman connection to Satanism is the woman who brought Nicole to international Fame. It was Liz Mullinar who is credited with Nicole's international success and she is the founder of Heal for Life, Australia's leading Satanic Ritual Abuse clinic, where there have been reports that Satanic Cult members have been employed. Mullinar was a victim of a pedophile ring and alleges her Church of England father was responsible.

Mullinar was responsible for the casting in the 1987 film 'The Right Hand Man'. The filming for this movie took place in 1985, in Bathurst, on the same week as the Satanic Ritual Fiona Barnett alleges took place at the Bathurst City Hall.

She was also a previous Chairwoman of Belvoir Street Theatre, which Nicole owns shares in. Antony was also connected to Belvoir, in the form of a play that was held here in 2008, titled 'The Pillowman'. This was a play about the violent and sadistic murder and mutilation of children by a psychotic killer. He donated to the production and an employee of the Health Psychology Unit, which Kidman headed, assisted with production.

Mr McMurray – may I call you Steve? – your articles are beginning to form a solid network of interesting facts which, when taken as a whole, beg significant questions about the role of Australia in MKUltra projects and, specifically, the claims made by Fiona Barnett about her treatment at the hands of Dr Antony Kidman and Dr John Gittinger.

It seems that although Fiona Barnett's claims are extraordinary, their veracity is supported by this network of facts. This should cause anyone watching to listen
