

Tiger Woods, Mind Control & MK Ultra

(Dec. 14, 2009) As we read the sordid details of Tiger Woods personal life, the question raises its ugly head: How could a man with so much going for him outwardly be such a mess inwardly?

Marital fidelity and family life mean nothing to the Illuminati Satanists that are actively manipulating our world. In fact, they are diametrically opposed to family and community. Instead, they adhere to Socrates sexual fantasies expressed in his discussions about "Communism".

You see, marital fidelity and family mean nothing to the Global Elite. They sexually abuse their own children. They sexually abuse the children of other Illuminati families. In fact, raising a MK Ultra sex slave is purely a matter of business to these psychopaths. Just ask those who investigated the Jon Benet murder mystery.

"Despite the neo-Nazi nuance, Yeager and Knoke were positively certain that JonBenet's mother forged the kidnap letter. "Our conclusion," Yeager offered, "is that you are investigating a child's murder with ritualistic overtones. Strangulation and sexual assault are most commonly seen in sadomasochism between heterosexual and homosexual adults...."

Was it because of the ritual, sexual abuse being perpetrated upon her - was it because of the child-porn ring being run out of Denver in which child 'Models' were being used for sexual favors and of which Jonbenet was one of those 'Models' or is it that Patsy simply could not stand the competition - on the stage and at home and therefore she (JonBenet) must be sacrificed for her (Patsy's) 'sins'?"

If they are nothing else, the Illuminati are materialists. People are objects that need to be controlled. Evil is incapable of love and becomes numb to physical pleasures over time. The brain is a funny thing, when you block out love and compassion, you end up blocking out every other human emotion. In the end, all you are is machine, incapable of feelings and lusting after more power, more energy without consideration for the consequences.

Tiger Woods, it is reported, was raised through the MK Ultra program. J. Lee said the following:

"Eldrick Tont "Tiger" Woods is HATED by other golfers, who know he's a manufactured product of Pentagon MKULTRA mind control. I was told this by a pro golfer while we were at an aircraft factory in Oregon hand-building our own personal jet aircraft.

Baby Tiger's colonel Green Beret Special Forces Vietnam baby-killer daddy hired a military drill instructor to scream at him while putting and swinging.

"Tiger's" parents ancestry is from [Communist] China and [Communist] Thailand, home of Manchurian Candidates, so "Tiger" is only 1/4 black. "Tiger" is a Buddhist who "studied" with monks at monestaries in [Communist] Asia. Since his mommy is a Thai citizen, "Tiger" is a citizen of Communist Thailand. "Tiger" is named for a South Vietnamese army officer who assassinated 50,000 South Vietnamese government employees who opposed the Communists of the New World Order (Phoenix Program).

"Tiger" first played golf at age 3 on the Bob Hope TV Show. Bob Hope is a notorious MKULTRA programmer and pedophile CIA sexslave handler. Homosexual rape is required by MKULTRA as torture to create multiple personalities, often on military bases, as proven in the Franklin Cover-up. (ibid)

It's not just steroids or nutrition. No matter what body you possess, you are still governed by a mind. The Illuminati, through "Delta Programming" can dramatically enhance the mental game of an athlete through trauma based programming.

According to Svali, this type of "brain-wave programming" creates an emotionless alter personality(s) that have photographic memories

Delta Programming was perfected by the Nazis as military programming. It is also part of the military training for many of those in our Special Forces:

The army is moving toward becoming an occult fighting force that practices witchcraft with its warfare. Some of the units moving that direction are Psy-Op operations, which has included Satanists within its officers. The Delta Force network of various Generals and other high ranking officers is merely one facet of the drive by the Illuminati to transform the American army into something akin to occultic warriors that will be as fierce as the Nazi Death head units. Bear in mind that George Bush, commander-in-chief of Bush's Armed Forces has come from an Illuminati family/ & the Ill. Skull & Bones chapter that was part of the secret support for Hitler. They have been using as an insignia that they themselves (the Skull & Boners) call "the Death Head"....

Military units such as the "First Earth Battalion although they are supported by American tax dollars are not here to protect America. They are global minded. They are here to protect an occult world government. They are out there actively promoting the New World Order. Several years ago, Egendorf states that $4.5 million (which came from you and I, and other Americans) had already been spent on Delta Force's 80 different projects. The Green Berets is another organization that has been heavily targeted by the Satanists, to indoctrinate and recruit. The Green Berets are increasingly moving toward being warrior-monk group. Many of them are now programmed multiples. <http://educate-yourself.org/mc/illumformula11chap.shtml>

"Super Athletes", like Tiger Woods, are created in the same fashion, using the same programming that has been perfected by the military. The difference is that they focus on specific skills necessary for them to reach the top of the preselected Sport that they participate in.

The trauma inflicted during programming causes "alter" personalities to emerge. These alters are then programmed to make cold hard preset decisions, like a computer script, that are not influenced by the environment. Where as the average human feels intimidated by large crowds; influenced by emotions; and has a difficult time keeping their focus, the Illuminati Mind Controlled Athlete and his/her alter personalities don't share these weaknesses.

Thus, Tiger Woods can execute the same "programmed" sequence each and every time he addresses the ball with amazingly consistent results. More machine than man, he shows no emotion other than the one he is supposed to express according to his preprogrammed scripting. It goes something like this:

Shot:= 420 Yards to the Flag on the green.

Scripted programming: Use a 3 wood at x angle with y velocity. Set tee at ____ inches. Smile and Wave to crowd. Take shot. Hand club to caddy.

Every variable is addressed and every possible outcome is also programmed within the individual, as well as their response to that outcome. For Example:

Ball position = 40 yards to the left of the "pin" in sand.

Scripted Programming: Use sand wedge at x angle with y velocity. Hit ball ____ inches below the sand. Take hat off to crowd.

I believe that, in Tiger Wood's case, he could have been programmed using "virtual reality" golf courses on the PGA tour.

The profit motive should be pretty clear here. The Illuminati "handler" passes the huge "paydays" up to the Illuminati "investor". The athlete himself or herself, is given enough resources to maintain the appearance of tremendous wealth. In the end, these trappings of wealth are taken away and given to another.

In my opinion, Tiger Woods has reached the magical age where his programming is probably breaking down and cannot be repaired.

Thus the Illuminati create a way for his exit that is both instructive and banal.

The cheating husband makes people think that Americans are a nation of sex-crazed lunatics that get filthy rich and start cheating on their wives.

Not much of a role model.

We will then be propagandized by the Illuminati media to believe that such behavior is easily "forgivable". That Tiger's other amazing attributes (primarily his ability to play golf) have brought much happiness and joy into the hearts of mankind.

The Illuminati late night comedians will further desensitize us with vulgar skits that tell us how much of a "stud" Tiger really is.

Then it's on to the next Illuminati controlled Sporting event folks!

I'll bet money we get to see a cross-gendered something or other that has a thing for golf shoes and small animals.

I am sure it will be something that makes Tiger Woods appear even more normal.

To the golf spectator: if you or any other clever person can think of a way to influence a sporting event, then you can bet your last dollar that it was thought of years ago by more clever people than us who are very familiar with tech that is hard for us to even conceive of.

There are many ways to influence an event and cash in via the sports betting World (conservatively estimated to be worth at least 1 trillion USD annually) that range from very low tech (ie. hitting a figure skater in the knee with a pipe) to very high tech (ie. hitting a quarterback with a wireless neurophone type device from the sidelines causing said QB to go blank for 2 seconds and get sacked). Of course paying off, or blackmailing, or threatening star players and refs is done all the time and certainly predates the Chicago Black Sox fiasco. This is what pro sports is all about... Well, 2 reasons actually for all pro sports to exist: 1) to make enormous off-the-books money by gaming the sports betting industry by first having real time computer access to how much money is riding on any particular event, then having people who are on standby manipulate said event in favor of the criminals betting position. Remember: real betters just don't bet on win/lose, they will bet on hundreds of scenarios during a game, all of which can be manipulated. The classic target would be the field goal kicker in football (or the Patriots Center to jump offside a bunch of times...), the pitcher or batter in baseball, the goalie in hockey, the player on the free throw line in basketball (do we really think Shaq was naturally that bad and couldn't improve with practice?), and any golfer anywhere on the course during any shot. With the tech I know of, golf is actually the easiest to manipulate. And 2) pro sports also exist to distract men from the fact that their families, communities, and countries are all going to shit, so that we will do f_ck all to stop it. How else do you explain men sitting on their asses all day to watch golf or NASCAR while everything around them is being destroyed?

So, is Tiger even a human being anymore?? Should we care? The same mechanisms will remain in place to set the next guy up anyway, whether it's golf or whatever, and the hapless "fan" will never know the difference.

Oh, by the way, count Alex Rodriguez from the Yankees as one of this group for sure. His programming was breaking down, had to go for intensive "sports psychology" retraining, lost his wife and family, then Madonna (of all people) and her cabalistic bullshit comes into the scene with her witchcraft to seduce poor Alex and initiate him into something satantic, then BINGO, good season, great playoff and a Championship for Mr. MK Ultra.
