Another #PedoGate Researcher Suddenly Dies: RIP Tracy Twyman

Tracy Twyman was a researcher into the occult who lived in Portland, Oregon. I went on the RX Only Picture show with her in March this year, and called into the show again on May 22 when they did a special after Isaac Kappy's death on May 13, 2019. Tracy had been in touch with Kappy and was investigating some of the same things, including Voodoo Donuts and their neighbor Dante's – which both make extensive use of Satanic imagery and themes.

Tracy shared some of her research with me after that, but asked me not to publish it at the time because she was quitting Twitter and YouTube after receiving death threats.

The circumstances of her death are presently unknown, but it has been confirmed by S B Alger from the RX Only Picture show:

I'm not prepared to make any kind of statement but I can tell you that people contacted me and confirmed it was true.

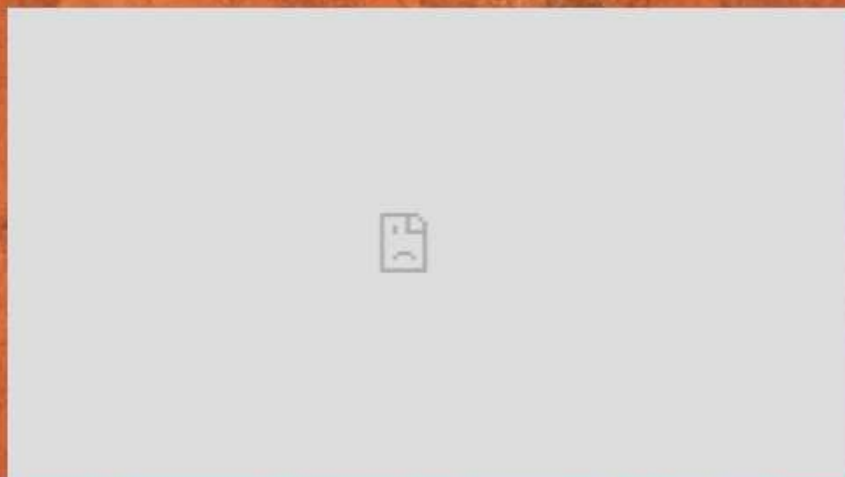

My heart is broken. I've just been crying. I don't know what else to say.

...and also Clyde Lewis from Ground Zero.

That makes this video that she created for me and one other person a kind of "Dead Mans Switch".

Here is my full Twitter conversation with Tracy:

Hey Steve, I just tried to send you a message through twitter, but I don't see it listed under sent messages. Did you get it? Thanks.

It was a link to this video, which I made to show just you and one other person.

It's about a person who owns a private campground in Williams, AZ right where Kappy was just before he died. This person sent me many messages threatening me and my son, after I exposed a bunch of child traffickers on YouTube. He also took credit for having hacked my computer and online accounts, and accurately described in these public confessions how he did it. I am still afraid of him and his friends, which is why I don't want to talk in public. Everything that I experienced during these attacks last year matches up with what happened to Kappy before his death, and I had already told Kappy about these people in Williams. I think he might have gone out there to investigate, or they brought him to that area because they knew they get away with murdering him out there.

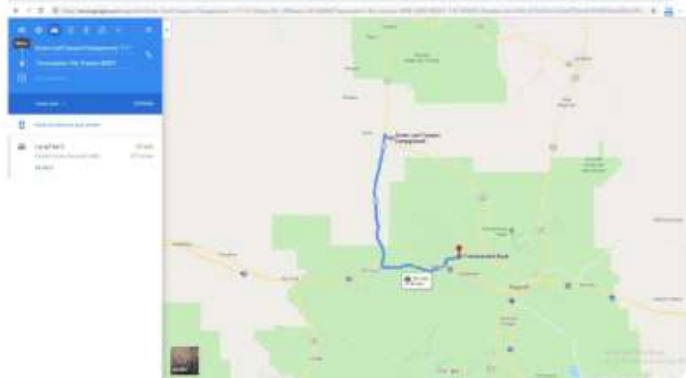

May 25, 2019, 12:02 AM

Last Tuesday the campground was listed as "Permanently Closed," all of the sudden, which seems an extraordinary coincidence to me. I've gathered evidence that something very bad was going on out there. From the Twitter feed I looked at, it appeared that a large percentage of the people who went out there to camp were Turks. Why would dozens of businessmen from Turkey be going out to the middle of the desert in Arizona to camp? At a camp ground that, according to the reviews, was rather shitty (and according to one reviewer, they were chased away by the owner wielding a gun and threatening to murder them)?

May 25, 2019, 12:06 AM

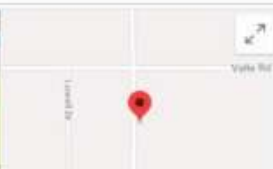

There is a mind control aspect to this. The campground owner boasted of his abilities in this department. It would explain a lot about Kappy's actions in the end.

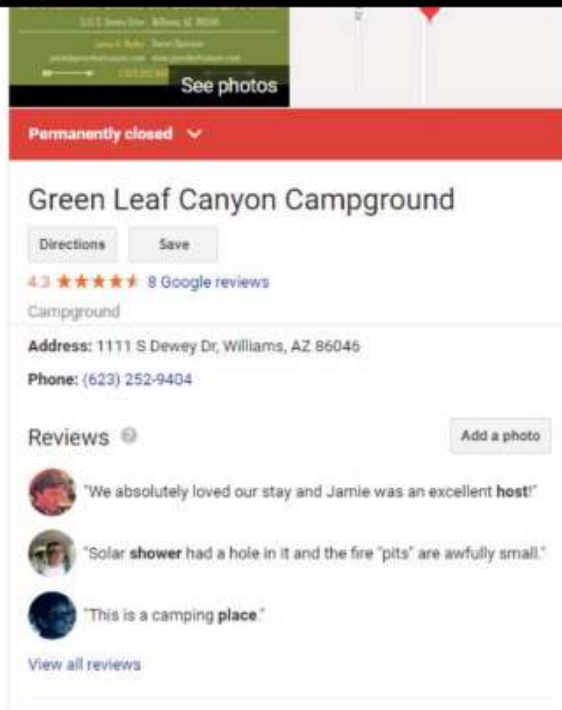

Anyway, I'll leave you to absorb this.

The campground is shown on the map. Their office was listed as being in Williams.

I've got an unlisted video that I managed to find where the host is explaining how to find the unmarked dirt road that leads out to where the campground is. Someone should go out there with cadaver dogs.

Wow. There is a lot of freaky stuff in the area like the O RO Ranch. Want me to publish this as an anonymous tip? Seems very pertinent.

May 25, 2019, 5:50 AM ✓

It is pertinent, but I am afraid to have it published. The second wave of threats to my family (the ones posted on Facebook) came after I mentioned the first wave... on an audio recording posted on my own website, which I'm sure has considerably less traffic than yours. I have no protection here. They know where I live, as they've proven in their messages to me. Someone was even sent to my house a few months ago to deliver a message to me personally. If information about them all of the sudden went public again, they are likely to know that I am behind it. I honestly don't know what to do with the information. So I just decided to show it to a couple of people who are also gathering evidence on this subject.

May 25, 2019, 6:01 AM

But thank you very much for reviewing it. I'm going to look into this ranch you mentioned.

May 25, 2019, 6:03 AM

Hey Steve, I am going to delete that tweet you retweeted about Dantes, so please just save the picture or retweet from the original account that I was retweeting from. I am getting harassed again and I don't think we'll ever know the truth about this stuff so I am going to back away from the subject, especially about Voodoo Doughnuts, as they are so close to me.

Ok great research, a shame you are backing away from it, thanks for the heads up

Jun 4, 2019, 12:47 AM ✓

Thank you. I've come up with a lot of analysis on the subject, but in a practical sense it doesn't really seem helpful to anyone to talk about it, especially me. It just brings me more problems, and the public just takes it as entertainment. It doesn't seem to be helping any victims or bringing down any bad guys.

Maybe something to consider, make an Anon account. I think it is all helping a lot, but I'm sympathetic to the risks.

With Jeffrey Epstein's arrest, NXIVM convictions and other recent child sex trafficking busts, it seems like it is a dangerous time to be looking into the Luciferian Pedo Cult.

Isaac Kappy: researched #PedoGate, now dead

Tracy Twyman: researched #PedoGate, now dead

Jen Moore: researched #PedoGate, doxxed, now dead

Fiona Barnett: #PedoGate whistleblower, doxxed, disappeared from social media

Robert the Deplorable: researched #PedoGate, doxxed, disappeared from social media after a possible suicide or murder attempt.

I received this from a source who wishes to remain anonymous. They were in touch with "Robert's uncle". Robert claimed to have Isaac Kappy's Dead Mans Switch and was in the process of opening it when he had to flee his home after being doxxed by Unirock, who said he had people in his town taking pictures of him.

Robert then ended up in hospital with what we initially thought was a suicide attempt. Robert's uncle (posting from Robert's Twitter account) gave some details that suggest maybe it wasn't a suicide after all:

to see. He woke up this evening, he has had almost normal brain activity since last night. The pictures will not be pretty, his eyes are taped shut because they popped out some during his attempt, and there is massive bruising around his neck, if the extension cord he used had not broke, he would not be here. This is just too much for all of us. Logging out, and I won't be logging in again, as per the post I just made. Robert can and will be able to get on here when all of his troubles are over. He is going to be ok. He says he did not try to kill himself. He went back to sleep before we could get him to answer any questions, he is still heavily medicated, and is not very awake, he can only type, not talk yet. I will figure out how to send pictures of both him and some of his paperwork, if you promise to keep it confidential. I need to make sure nothing can identify where he is right now.

need to make sure nothing can identify where he is right now, until we have more answers.

Some have dismissed Robert's suicide attempt as some sort of LARP. In light of Tracy's death, not even 2 months since Kappy's, and Jen Moore's death less than a year ago, further investigation is warranted.

I will update this post if more information comes in. See also:
