Enclose 2 letters from

Higham arrived this morning and have been shown to me^{by}

Messrs. Messrs. and Miss Slobb's testify to the fact that the supposed invitation to the convention was not contained in the letter

Please note this carefully in your reply to Higham because he omitted to send me an invitation to attend^{the} constitution

It is too silly

I trump to say in his letter here enclosed that a search has been made and no trace of The R has been made and

It is too silly for words.

As to the legal point: he claims that he need not give 20 days previous notices

But this is a point to be solved by if it comes to it.

As the 2 mentions that 20 days previous notice for calling a convention and therefore it would also apply to the question of this special faction and particularly, does he give himself away in this letter where he says you seem to overlook the fact that the regular ^{Convention} should be held on for he meant to call a regular for the Con the summons should be been issued by him on the 24 June and under Section III he claims that he need not give any notice which I dispute and which we disputed and we shall have to support in disputing it. Now has made such a series of blunders in this affair that we need not rub them out here in letter but we shall see that we shall bring them up at a convention called by us for which we have need to secure

I once more ask you not to
