I don't think you need to worry about finances this end before the end of the year or thereabouts. Credit to now. All of course so I see no reason why we should have to write further cheques. My idea is to leave here on the 18th or 19th. For El Oued, Wagle etc. on foot leaving practically everything here and not paying the outstanding affairs, our arrangement being that we pay a reduced rate for a 3 months' stay; it periods when we are away in the Desert, of course not counting. We can pay for our Desert trip out of cash on hand and should prolong it so as not to get back here till we get word from you that it would not embarrass you for us to return.

In view of Murray's letter you might find it more useful to have him with you or at Refais. I want to leave it to your judgment to make the best available use of him. I know nothing at all about him - not even what his regular work is, whether he speaks French etc., nor his age. He would be quite useless unless able to do his share of a hard day's work in the Desert, take all responsibility off Léa etc. I have of course been hoping that it might be possible for you to join us for a while, perhaps come on the Desert trip with us. I am really anxious to work systematically with you on the new magical arrangement, in which you use your mind as an intellectual interpretation of my Will. I am certain from the evidence of our consultation games of Chess that the combination would produce incredibly fine results and what we most need is practice in working together.

I imagine that we can borrow a tent of sorts, blankets, cooking utensils etc. from Israh who is accustomed to organizing Desert Trips - as also canned foods - the arrangements being to pay on our return. Ditto for cost of camel and man's wages. We should thus have approximately 500 francs for current expenses which should be ample, though doubtless we might need more immediately on arrival at Tunis.

Rest assured anyhow that in one way or another I will manage to avoid drawing on you further till the end of the year. The only wish I admit to is that I had another box of cigars before starting though this wouldn't matter so much if my Dunhill supply arrived in time.

I could doubtless arrange for letters & parcels to follow us to El Oued that is, up to the 21st. inst. or thereabouts.

The advantage of El Oued is that the 4-days journey will serve to try out Althea's capacity for the more serious stage to Wagla. Should she show the slightest tendency to exhaustion or other inability I should of course bring her back here at once if necessary by mule or auto-chinilles. In that case, of course the financial situation would again require consideration.

so. (Incidentally, I need that sweater badly - the nights are very cold already, not for ~~long~~ above zero at another rayanuffin, one camel and a man to food as we could buy.

Nefta to El Oued is the crow flies - 70 miles
They call it 4 days easy going.

El Oued to Wajla 150 "

Wajla to Tougourt 100 "

At Tougourt there is a Railway and I am told auto-chimelles to Nefta so that we could get back in a hurry either here or direct to Tunis if required. We should wire you from Tougourt for instructions. The total distance is 320 miles. I doubt if we could do it in less than 6 weeks, allowing for rests. We might be expected to arrive at Tougourt on about the last day of the year.

I should regard this trip as primarily for perfecting magical conditions and the complete building up of our health physical energies.
You must however remember that altho' such trips do achieve wonders mainly, I believe, by purifying the body of all toxins - they produce a temporary exhaustion (that's the wrong word - reaction against physical hardship is better) which must be treated by a period of lazy luxury.

I hope that by this plan you will be able to cross us off your financial list till the end of the year. This ought to give you ample time to collect funds. It might be desirable for Allostrach and my self to spend January in a more regular place than this. If so, it would mean paying a small supplement here.

4
The beginning of our come-back. It's all very well to take that lofty magical standpoint but surely it is part of our magical programme to begin to rule "the many and the known" by fooling them, if you like to call it so. I suggest that should ask Zaniti or other Italian Scholars to co-operate in this. It is a very strong point that no reason was given for the expulsion and that in Sorell's statement itself the affair was due to irresponsible police interference their fear of the Unknown, whom they could accuse definitely. I hope you called on the new Consul as I instructed you to do. I think he is sure to remember Tavernier, and any connection with him might well induce him to espouse my cause warmly and put through the petition for the rescinding of the order officially, as ~~well~~ on behalf of a British subject wronged unjustly!

Note that the things which would hurt me in England in a libel action cut no ice at all in Italy.

I enclose a few notes for an article and suggest your writing it up from these. I think it is time we got back at Bickers, Maitland and such scoundrels. Challenge them to make affidavits about the accusations so that we can prosecute for perjury if they dare do so. The Consul would be able to advise you how best to corner the swine.

I enclose a card of thanks for the Editor which please forward.

This is quite absurd, in view of the Great War when every Tom, Dick & Harry had to clutch every thing and head straight for Hell without even the idea of reward such as we now offer.) Better get it over. The one reasonable objection to obedience would be "Why should I trust 666 in so vital a matter in the dark?" Answer - AL - II - 30, 31. The True King will trust himself to win through, however crazy the ordeal, and is daring to demand such proof of quality should. It is itself suffice to secure him. My right to command. (My whole experience persuades me that this policy is right. My spoon-feeding Aspirant has invariably failed.)

I enclose a few blank summons for you to fill in and use in case of other new aspirants. The wording of Marley's Summons is to be followed as a general rule - alterations only as seem necessary. Covering letters at your discretion. But I advise a thorough explanation of the position. Avoid anything like persuasion, make clear the nature of the Ordeal but also show that the Ordeal is essential in the actual conditions of the crisis of civilization. Further, make clear that failure to comply with the summons means final rejection. If excuse is to be accepted, the Gods must be trusted to make obedience possible. E.g. If a woman can only get to Europe by taking the job of Stewardess on a liner or a tramp for the matter of that, the argument is that the Gods know she needs that particular additional labour of Hercules.

Notes on bbb's letter

by Alastair.

I think a lot of this is too crazy in words, some of it is too good to be true. - As the Specialist on Sanity, I leave it to you to extract some, possible, reasonable, profitable points and act accordingly.

Personally, I think you might get to London as soon as possible, having as many helpers as are available. It would perhaps be well that ^{you have} Frank Bennett safely established in Cepali - "if he is coming - or some one else to take his place, if he is not."

Re money - all the plans stated in the letters are dependent upon "if we can ^{get} ^{to} see it in our light." I want to get out of a hotel - and live in a tent. All this near comfort, near civilization is too painful to discuss. Also, I want to get away from letters and communication with the outside world. Until this can be done. I remain in a state of semi-activity, which is neither activity nor recreation - and which is anything but conducive to ^{gaining} real health and strength. That's OK on the whole but I get occasional silent internal convulsions about everything and I don't like it.

bbb means well but he must stop for a while, asking for this that, and what not - things that seem the 'most' necessary in the world when thought about & which only mean more baggage and ^{are} ^{unimportant} when they arrive. Please help me in this - I know your difficulties - it is hard to know when any suggestion or wish is an order or merely a whim. Beast agrees with me and promises to be good. He says the first consideration is my health.

However I feel that we ought to get right out into the desert and only then shall we know how to proceed.

I have suggested to bbb that unless Murray has already left Jordan, you might prefer to have him write there with you. In spite of the fact that I suggest that all aspirants should have the pleasure of the Ordeal of personal contact
w. bbb, I do not think that that Ordeal need come ~~before~~ ^{while} some important work that might be done first. So use your judgment.

I do not know how far we can go or for how long on what cash we have in hand - We cannot reckon on a fixed sum as there are always extras. We have 580 francs in cash at present. We are about paid up to Nov. 11 at the hotel - the pay by Mohamed ~~is not~~ ^{will} not be paid till Dec. 1. Please take the reins in hand and guide us at present.
I shall go over the lists I have sent you & cross off all unnecessary ones. More later.

Please write to Achab ~~as~~ per notes & made in letter. He seems to be a bit huffy.

I do hope you are OK - and that Afelie is also. To-day is ^(Nov. 12) Hani's birthday. The 18th is to be celebrated - bbb's initiation anniversary - and the 26th is Astarte Sulu's 3rd. " - A great month. 93 2/3 abstracted.

There is no justification for going upon one's own without a guide.

Ask Editor of L. S. to find out whose intrigues brought about the expulsion. Tell him Sarell's idea about the police & recount Tunis incident. Mention that the Sepulchreans we knew were apparently friendly. Ask Zannit to translate Poet's Sepulchre as sample of poetry. Also possibly an extract of instruction, Essay or vision to show up loftiness of thought & conduct.

Letter from Achad arrived yesterday - also one from Leah's Sister Fanny. Sending answer to this latter next mail.

this work. She offers ridiculous excuses, which (coming from a lady whose custom it is to conceive bastards under staircases), overwhelm me with language.

f. You talked of saving civilization by this plan of Holy Things; but the Secret Chiefs have given me no hint that this can be done. As you know, they picked me for my literary abilities so that the methods of attainment might survive the catastrophe which they foresaw as inevitable & which is presumably part of their programme. In Chap. III of AL I cannot find a word about averting world-wide disaster to Syphilisation. We have to save what is worth saving, no doubt, but I imagine that your waistcoat pocket should suffice.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the atom. It is shown that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, and that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics.

Luna is much more spiritual and material.
The Nona and the sexless-prostitute or always single-minded and pure in the true sense of the word. With Venus there is always much poetic illusions. Luna in this & several other places there is an evident implication that righteousness is more necessary than ever before. It is one of the paradoxes of initiation that the higher one goes the greater freedom one obtains but the more important is it to coordinate the motions of that freedom. Obviously the more opportunities of action one has, the more chance is there of unwittingly creating internal conflict. E.g. Kelvin's Presby-terianism - if he had analyzed himself fully he would have found his science incompatible with his religion. Doubtless the concealed antimony hampered him.

Such troubles do not threaten men of limited freedom, Hottentots, Arch-bishops etc.

Note that perfect freedom of movement implies what amounts to complete inhibition of disordered action. The slightest error in the working of a delicate electrical apparatus leads to much more serious results than a disturbance of a millium times the magnitude in a cartwheel. Compare a machine gun & a Colt .44.
