THE PARTICULAR REGULATIONS.

An Epistle of ^PBEHOMET to Sir George Macne^E Cowie, Pontiff and Epopt of the AR^ECOPAGUS of the VIII th DEG: O. T. O. Grand Treasurer General Keeper of THE GOLDEN BOOK.

PRESIDENT of the COMMITTEE of the PUBLICATIONS
of the I. A. E. O.

DUTIES. HOUSE I. There is no Law beyond do what THOU WILT. Yet it is well for the Brethren to study daily in the Volume of the ^{SACRED} SECOND LAW LIBER LEGIS, for therein is much council concerning this; how best they may carry out this WILL.

HOUSE II. ^U SHARING OF MEANS; to help brothers in a kindly way not to hurt ^{their} feelings. The FIRST ESSENTIAL is punctual ^{ents} paym^{ents} of LODGE DUES.

HOUSE IV OFFER unused property for the use of the ORDER to look after the Elder Brethren.

HOUSE V. TO give pleasure to all Brethren.
Children of Members ^{also} considered to be Children of the ORDER.

TO LOVE ONE ANOTHER. Such love is holy. To instruct the children in the Law of Thelema: Independence and freedom of thought; to warn them of cowardice and servility as the most deadly diseases of the human soul.

HOUSE VI. Choose servants from the Order if possible and they must be treated as equals at all times and in Lodge Work.
All members to give their greatest help
to the Order according to their calling.
Legal and Business advice, Healing, etc.

HOUSE VII WIVES should be members of the Order.
There must be no law cases ^{in the} at Courts
between members.

MEMBERS of the Order should regard those without its pale as having no rights of any kind. (as they are outside the LAW)

I. A. E. O.

HOUSE VIII Testimony to the ORDER'S Benefit
in last Will and Testament.

DEATH A JOYFUL EVENT.

HOUSE IX Spread the Principles of the Order
over the world.

HOUSE x Pregnant women especially sacred to the Order, and they should be treated with honour.

HOUSE XI To try to persuade friends to join the Order.

HOUSE XII SECRECY only with regard to the nature of the Rituals, Words, SIGNS &c.

The Ordeals I write not The Rituals shall be half known and half concealed.

THE LAW IS FOR ALL.

I. A. E. O. LIBER C I.

but they should be treated with due respect
and every effort should be made to bring them to freedom.

Enemies are only so while fighting,
after that, they are children of one Father.

THE PRIVILEGES.

HOUSE I Destroy ALL FEAR by creating an absolute certainty in the mind of the POWER OF THE INNERMOST SELF TO CONQUER.

Consider well the LAW OF DETACHMENT
This ensures progress and your fight for that realisation means MAN'S LIBERATION.
