INTRODUÇÃO

INTRODUCTION

Today I will talk about a PLOT in the world.

Hoje falarei a respeito de uma TRAMA existente no mundo. De um Plano arquitetado, contra a humanidade, desde tempos imemoriais, fazendo-a esquecer-se de Sua Real História e, consequentemente, afastando-a de sua verdadeira posição no contexto Universal. Lamentavelmente, o tema, via de regra, tem sido “esquecido”, ou “negligenciado”, ou “encoberto” não somente por autores ortodoxos como também por aqueles outros, seguindo linhas mais liberais.

Esta falha na literatura mundana e na esotérica liga-se, obviamente, à causas muito mais obscura e profundas do imaginado prioristicamente.

Existem muitas maneiras de observar e analisar o passado. Dezenas, talvez centenas, de pesquisadores não dão conta de como pretéritos acontecimentos, “vividos” por nossos ancestrais podem ser vistos e julgados através perspectivas diversas.

Até há alguns anos atrás, eu não conseguia “ver” sequer os contornos da Trama que se desenvolve furtivamente nas sombras. Encontrava-me, por assim dizer – como muitos ainda estão – presos à considerações esotéricas-religiosas ortodoxas, não me permitindo enxergar, com clareza, indícios da Trama e de seus “planejadores”.

Desde o momento em que me propus a desenvolver este pequeno estudo, verifiquei o quão difícil seria escrevê-lo de modo inteligível ao cidadão comum sem nenhuma intimidade com o assunto. Assaltou-me, portanto, um grande sentimento de frustração ante esse obstáculo. Reconheci a dificuldade em comunicar quaisquer informações, não comuns ao contexto diário do não “iniciado”, sem o uso de um palavreado adaptado às estas condições. É muito difícil transmitir-se idéias tão afastadas do corriqueiro. É verdade, também, que este palavreado adaptado muitas das vezes

A plan devised against humanity since time immemorial, making her forget His Royal history and therefore away from its true position in the context of Universal.

Unfortunately, the theme, as a rule, has been “forgotten” or “neglected” or “covered” by authors not only orthodox but also by those others, following more liberal lines.

This failure in worldly literature and esoteric binds obviously causes the much darker and deeper prioristicly imagined.

There are many ways to observe and analyze the past. Dozens, perhaps hundreds, researchers do not realize how bygone events, “lived” by our ancestors can be seen and judged by diverse perspectives.

Until a few years ago, I could not “see” even the contours of the Weave that develops furtively in the shadows. I found myself, so to speak - as many still are - attached to esoteric-orthodox religious considerations, not allowing me to see, clearly, evidence of Trama and his “planners”.

From the moment I set out to develop this small study, I noticed how difficult it would be to write them so intelligible to ordinary people without any intimacy with the subject. Assaulted me, therefore, a great sense of frustration at this hurdle.

Recognized the difficulty in communicating any information, not the common everyday context of not “initiated” without the use of a wording adapted to these conditions. It is very difficult to convey ideas so far removed from the everyday. It is also true that this wording adapted often more hidden unveiling. Especially in this particular subject, in which several terms have acquired in the course of time, several undesirable connotations, addicted, twisted and totally removed from their original meaning.

I also notice a clear tendency in people to reject a priori, new ideas and new concepts, for reasons related solely to religion, politics and the “status” social force. This trend, as it is easy to understand, binds on the one hand lack of adequate and illuminating and paradigmas adaptados muitas das vezes mais oculta do que desvela. Sobretudo neste particular assunto, no qual vários termos adquiriram, no transcorrer do tempo, varias conotações indesejáveis, viciadas, torcidas e totalmente afastadas de seus originais significado.

Verifico também nas pessoas uma clara tendência em rejeitar, à priori, novas idéias e novos conceitos, por motivos ligados exclusivamente à religião, política e o "status" social vigente. Esta tendência, como é fácil de se compreender, liga-se, por um lado, à falta de uma adequada e esclarecedora leitura e, por outro lado, às baixas condições do nível cultural da grande maioria das pessoas. Não seria talvez necessário dizer que, no particular caso, o Brasil apresenta-se como campeão da desinformação, ou que toda informação é somente guiada em certa e específica direção. Ou seja: aquela que mais beneficia a classe dominadora, isto é, uma minoria.

A nossa maior dificuldade reside num fato incontestável: a maioria das pessoas reage violenta e instintivamente contra qualquer idéia, ou processo, que possa a vir, de uma maneira ou de outra, estremecer o "status quo" reinante, ou seja: que as venha forçar a pensar por si próprias. Mesmo que esta nova tomada de consciência signifique uma mudança salutar, uma melhora nas condições de suas vidas ou em relação às suas atividades profissionais, sociais ou de crenças religiosas, nas quais, a grande maioria dos fiéis não têm tanta convicção. Estas são aceitas por puro comodismo ou modismo. Veja-se, como exemplo deste modismo, a enxurrada de livros esotéricos abarrotando as livrarias, e até mesmo as bancas de jornais. Atualmente, o desatino esotérico atingiu tal nível que facilitou o surgimento de "escolas", nas quais você pode tornar-se um "iniciado à jato", bastando tão somente para isto possuir dinheiro suficiente para gasta-lo no hand, lack of adequate and meaningful and reading the other hand, the low level of culture conditions of most people. There would perhaps be necessary to say that in the particular case, Brazil presents itself as a champion of disinformation, or that all information is guided only in certain and specific direction. Ie: the one that most benefits the ruling class, ie a minority.

Our greatest difficulty lies in an indisputable fact: most people instinctively reacts violently and against any idea or process that can to come, one way or another, shake the "status quo" ruling, ie that come forcing to think for themselves. Even though this new awareness mean a salutary change, an improvement in the conditions of their lives or in relation to their professional activities, social or religious beliefs, in which the vast majority of believers are not so convinced. These are accepted by pure laziness or fad. See, as an example of this fad, the barrage of esoteric books cluttering the bookstores, and even newsstands. Currently, the folly esoteric reached such a level that facilitated the emergence of "schools" in which you can become a "start-jet", it simply just to have enough money to spend it on payment of standardized teaching, coming only "God" knows where. And this conversation many have entered and continue to enter.

Quedamos amazed before the myopia of individuals rejecting new ideas and new principles not only fit the paradigms of their personal beliefs, even if those beliefs conflict with common sense and rationality. As stated by Artienza J.G. "... man is the great wrong of the cosmos, and sometimes consciously, as if anxious for the deception and addiction. " The man complies with fear and even with joy the whole religion or political philosophy you think and you impose waiver "truths" by decree or, as stated in the religions, the "word of God". In short: the man likes to be fooled.

Even seriously considering these premises, dared me to develop this work in the hope of getting hit more open minds, which, I pagamento de ensinamentos padronizados, vindos só “deus” sabe de onde. E nesta conversa muitos já entraram e continuam a entrar.

Quedamos pasmos ante a miopia de indivíduos rejeitando novas idéias e novos preceitos apenas por não se encaixarem nos paradigmas de suas crenças pessoais, mesmo que estas crenças entrem em conflito com o bom senso e a racionalidade.

Como afirmado por J.G. Artienza, “... o homem é o grande enganado do cosmo, e algumas vezes conscientemente, como se estivesse ansioso pelo engano e pela dependência”. O homem obedece com medo e até com alegria à toda religião ou filosofia política que lhe dispensa pensar e lhe impõem “verdades” por decreto ou, como afirmam as religiões, pela “palavra de deus”. Resumindo: o homem gosta de ser enganado.

Mesmo considerando seriamente estas premissas, atrevi-me desenvolver esse trabalho, na esperança de conseguir atingir mentes mais abertas, as quais, suponho, ainda existam.

A Trama aqui referida foi criada, em seus mínimos detalhes, há milhares de séculos atrás e, desde então, direciona nossos passos individuais e coletivos a uma direção que nos desvia do objetivo da evolução. Isto pode ser constatado mediante a cuidadosa observação da História e da caótica situação do mundo na atualidade. Que o homem enveredou em um beco-sem-saída será difícil contestar.

A Trama foi concebida objetivando a manutenção de um Poder controlador dos destinos da humanidade, impedindo-a de libertar-se das cadeias materiais, mentais e espirituais, obstaculizando o seu livre acesso ao básico e imprescindível conhecimento necessário à sua natural maturação, e à clara visão do que o homem é em toda sua realidade e plenitude — um Deus entre Deuses. Ou suppose, still exist.

Trama here that was created, in every detail, for thousands of centuries ago, and since then, directs our steps individually and collectively to a direction that deviates from the goal of evolution. This can be seen by careful observation of history and the chaotic state of the world today. That man embarked on an alley-no-output is hard to dispute.

Trama was designed with the objective of maintaining a power controller of the destinies of mankind, preventing it from freeing themselves from the chains material, mental and spiritual, hindering their free access to basic and essential knowledge necessary for their natural maturation, and clear vision of what man is in all its fullness and reality - a God among Gods. Or, as stated by Crowley, "a star among stars."

The grim control over our free will has been greatly exercised subtly Skin Weft, relying mainly on religious sentiment, the class struggle, the racial prejudices and political antagonisms, the understanding of the Earth as a heavy black cloak, obscuring our future. I speak not only in material terms, as many might imagine. Directs also the Plot to deeper levels, where disturbing phenomena, manifesting itself in various parts of the world, and subverting scientific theories and religious, represent merely the tip of immense "iceberg" floating dangerously in our route stocks.

I am fully awake to the fact that with my assertions, excitarei the wrath of "occult", Spiritualists, Roman Catholics, Protestants, Evangelicals, communists, capitalists and democratas.¹

Also, on the other hand, will draw attention and hatred of Architects Trama, who, through their human allies (and not humans) shut my mouth and try disprove my work. What to do? This has always been the price paid by those who, in the past or in the present, and certainly in the future (if we do not win the war against this Trama), went a step beyond the prejudiced view of premiada – um Deus entre Deuses. Ou, como dito por Crowley, “uma estrela entre estrelas”.

O sombrio controle sobre nosso livre arbítrio tem sido mui sutilmente exercido pela Trama, apoiando-se principalmente no sentimento religioso, nas lutas de classe, nos preconceitos raciais, e antagonismos políticos, entendendo-se sobre a Terra como um pesado manto negro, obscurecendo nosso porvir.

Não falo somente em termos materiais, como muitos possam imaginar. Direciona, também,, a Trama a níveis mais profundos, em que fenômenos inquietantes, manifestando-se em várias partes do mundo, e subvertendo as teorias científicas e religiosas, representam tão somente a ponta de imenso “iceberg” flutuando perigosamente na rota de nossas existências.

Estou plenamente desperto para o fato de que com minhas assertivas, excitarei a ira de “ocultistas”, espíritas, católicos romanos, protestantes, evangélicos, comunistas, capitalistas e democratas.¹ Também, por outro lado, atrairei a atenção e o ódio dos Arquitetos da Trama, os quais, por intermédio de seus aliados humanos (e não humanos) tentarão calar minha boca e desmentir meu trabalho. Que fazer? Este sempre foi o preço pago por todos quantos, no passado, ou no presente, e seguramente no futuro, (se não vencermos a guerra contra esta Trama), deram um passo além da preconceituosa visão de valores “tradicionais”, estabelecidos como padrões inquestionáveis. Enquanto não lograrmos enxergar um pouco mais à frente e com clareza, penetrando a névoa nos envolvendo e nos desorientando, ou quando o fazemos nos curvamos, covardemente, ante as forças sinistras a nos imporem regras arbitrárias, fracassaremos ruidosamente como seres divinos e livres que deveríamos ser, e seremos engolidos pelos turbilhões da step beyond the prejudiced view of "traditional" values, established as indisputable standards . While not succeed in seeing a bit more forward and clearly penetrating the fog surrounding us and disorienting, and when we do we bow, cowardly, against the sinister forces us to impose arbitrary rules, fail noisily as divine beings and we should free be, and be swallowed up by the whirlwinds of Trama. I do not claim to have glimpsed the truth in all its magnitude. No! Only penetrated slightly beyond the mist enganadora.Olhei, so to speak, behind the "first veil." Glimpsed from the corner of the eye, smile and quick movement of a shadow sneaking ominously among other shadows. However, the vision served to fleeting glimpse yet seen: what we have manipulated, misled our lives and observed for centuries on end, with sinister eyes and hiding under various masks, whether political, social or esoteric. While the common man does not feed the slightest suspicion of this manipulation, growing around her, she emerges before our eyes every moment - just look with a little more attention to facts of everyday life, for certain legends and myths coming from past, or historical puzzles and especially for current and chaotic situation in which humanity, "in toto," plunged in recent years, without knowing how and why.

Induced Trama and his vassals, the man embarked on a maze, where their desperate cries echo millennium ago, without being answered, or no chance of being a acudido Ariadne, because only the man himself could save themselves, and no "God" will do it for him.

Ouspensky once said: "that serves to try to debunk lies, if people like them, live them and them? Truth: the man lives immersed in an illusion induced, similar to the one described in "The Matrix."

Indeed, many argue that Ouspensky paints the picture with paints too dark. I disagree with that opinion. To me are still clear, comparing them to the harsh reality. Never Trama.

Não afirmo ter vislumbrado a verdade em toda sua magnitude. Não! Apenas penetrei um pouquinho além da névoa enganadora. Olhei, por assim dizer, por detrás do “primeiro véu”. Entrevi, com o canto do olho, o rápido e sorrateiro movimento de uma sombra esgueirando-se sinistramente entre outras sombras. Entretanto, a fugidia visão serviu para vislumbrar o ainda não visto: aquilo que nos tem manipulado, desencaminhado nossas vidas e nos observado durante séculos a fio, com sinistros olhos e escondendo-se sob diversas máscaras, sejam políticas, sociais ou esotéricas. Se bem que o homem comum não alimenta a mínima desconfiança dessa manipulação, crescendo a seu redor, ela emerge aos nossos olhos a cada instante – basta olharmos com um pouquinho de mais atenção para fatos do dia a dia, para certas lendas e mitos vindos do passado, ou para enigmas históricos e, principalmente, para a atual e cáotica situação em que a humanidade, “in totum”, mergulhou nos últimos anos, sem saber como e porque.

Induzido pela Trama e seus vassalos, o homem enveredou por um labirinto, onde seus desesperados gritos ecoam há milênio, sem serem respondidos, ou nenhuma chance de ser acudido por uma Ariadne, porque somente o próprio homem poderá salvar-se a si mesmos, e nenhum “deus” fará isto por ele.

Ouspensky disse certa vez: “de que serve tentar desmascarar mentiras, se as pessoas gostam delas, vivem delas e nelas? Verdade: o homem vive mergulhado numa ilusão induzida, semelhante à aquela descrita em “Matrix”. Certamente, muitos afirmam que Ouspensky pinta o quadro com tintas demasiadamente escuras. Discordo dessa opinião. Para mim ainda estão claras, comparando-as à realidade nua e crua. Jamais a mentira foi tão cultuada lie was so revered as in our time, except for the historical period dominated by the "Holy Inquisition" when the Weave through the Roman Church openly showed his hatred and contempt for humanity.

Fortunately for our grandchildren - I hope so - there is a light at the end of the tunnel.

The existence of Trama divisada and has begun to be researched by some researchers dispersed. Men who escaped the conditioning imposed by Trama, its allies (human and nonhuman) and useful idiots in CIA jargon, one useful idiot refers to someone working for her, but that does not realize the fact. This classification lay members Membras the, so called, American OTO, FRA, AMORC and more. Some of these, perhaps, are aware of what they are doing. In this group I include some tarot card readers, numerologists, etc.

In recent years some independent researchers have spoken about questions that I try to present the point of view esoteric. Several scholars have published their findings. At first timidly. Some present their studies under the chin of fiction such as Colin Wilson. But gradually, these publications become more abundant and not so disguised.

Among the pioneers of this new wave cyto Geralg Gorg, Robert A. Wilson, Timothy Leary, Zecharias Sitchin, Robert Charroux, Donald Holmes, Alais Denielou, Lovecraft, Eliphas Levi, Blavatsky, Allam Watts, Crowley, Marcelo Motta, and others in various segments of human thought.

"We are witnesses and victims, the planetary level, a huge campaign that tends to destroy any degree of freedom that human beings take in order to forge their own destiny," said one of those researchers. We constantly without realizing it, we watched and manipulated by religions, sects, political movement, esoteric, pseudo Masonic organizations, social movements and military, though they seem independent of each other, and even antagonistic, have a link uniting them among themselves and crua. Jamais a mentira foi tão cultivada como em nosso tempo, com exceção ao período histórico dominado pela “Santa Inquisição”, quando a Trama, através da Igreja Romana mostrou abertamente seu ódio e desprezo pela humanidade. Felizmente para nossos netos – assim espero – existe uma luz no final do túnel. A existência da Trama já começou ser divisada e pesquisada por alguns dispersos investigadores. Homens que conseguiram escapar do condicionamento imposto pela Trama, por seus aliados (humanos e não humanos) e por idiotas úteis. No jargão da CIA, um idiota útil refere-se a alguém trabalhando para ela, mas que não se dá conta do fato. Nesta classificação coloco membros de membras da, assim chamada, OTO Americana, FRA, AMORC e outras mais. Algumas dessas, talvez, tenham consciência do que estão fazendo. Neste grupo incluo alguns tarólogos, numerólogos, etc.

Nos últimos anos alguns independentes investigadores têm-se pronunciado sobre questionamentos que procuro apresentar sob o ponto-de-vista esotérico. Vários estudiosos têm publicado suas conclusões. A princípio timidamente. Alguns apresentam seus estudos sob o manto da ficção como, por exemplo, Colin Wilson. Mas aos poucos, estas publicações tornam-se mais abundantes e não tão disfarçadas.

Entre os pioneiros desta nova onda cito Gerald Garg, Robert A. Wilson, Timothy Leary, Zecharias Sitchin, Robert Charroux, Donald Holmes, Alais Denielou, Lovecraft, Eliphas Levi, Blavatsky, Allam Watts, Crowley, Marcelo Motta, e outros nos diversos seguimentos do pensamento humano.

“Estamos sendo testemunhas e vítimas, a nível planetário, de uma imensa campanha que tende destruir qualquer grau de liberdade que o ser humano tome no sentido de forjar seu próprio destino”, link among them among themselves and Trama. People in various nations, are mentally in complete slavery, under the spell of religious leaders and politicians, operating on the basis of statements that appear totally insane all those not under its spell.

Actually the big journals and television channels manufacture or manipulate the opinion of 90% of the world population. Is there a way to treat the news, selects them, limits them. In the USA there are 1800 journals, 11,000 weeklies, 11,000 radio stations, 2000 TV channels, 2500 editorial. But 50% of which is controlled by a score of companies, whose most important economic source is advertising. There is consensus that the public allows the survival of the media, if not the special interests.

Slavery has different forms. There one economic slavery, a slavery afirmou um desses pesquisadores. Somos constantemente, sem o percebermos, vigiados e manipulados por religiões, seitas, movimento políticos, esotéricos, organizações pseudo maçônicas, movimentos sociais e militares que, embora pareçam independentes uns dos outros, e mesmo antagônicos, possuem um elo unindo-os entre si mesmos e a Trama. Povos em várias nações, encontram-se mentalmente em total escravidão, sob o fascínio de líderes religiosos e políticos, operando em base de afirmações que surgem totalmente insanas a todos quantos não se encontram sob seu fascínio.

Na verdade os grandes periódicos e as cadeias de televisão fabricam ou manipulam a opinião de 90% da população do mundo. Existe um modo de tratar as notícias, seleciona-las, limita-las. Nos EEUU existem 1800 periódicos; 11.000 semanários; 11.000 emissoras de rádio; 2000 canais de televisão, 2500 editoriais. Mas 50% deste total é controlado por uma vintena de companhias, cuja fonte econômica mais importante é a publicidade. Não é o consenso do público que permite a sobrevivência dos meios de comunicação, senão os interesses particulares.

Every student of history knows that general area now known as the Middle East was, in antiquity, the birthplace of several religions - a true laboratory of which came to light a slew of religious systems and cults the most obscure. But also there was born Judaism, Christianity, Cult of Isis, Osiris, Baal, Dionysus, and Islam. Amid these religions and cults, the best known are: Judaism, Christianity and Islam. However, many centuries ago, Aten, Amun, Osiris, Baal, Adonis, Dionysus, etc., Reigned absolute. This area, called the Middle East, has always been tumultuous. Even today we see bubbling in various types of fights. Israel, Palestine, Iraq, Iran, were the pivot of several wars, and it is presumed that soon there will be another conflict between Israel and its Muslim neighbors, as there was between Israel and Egypt. The Iraq War was a page apart, as it represents a war provoked by the United States of America, in its interventionist policy.

It is also our understanding that several governments have always tried to control religious people for political power.

Certainly this was the case of the Emperor Constantine, when the bishops gathered in council Christians (religious meeting), in the city of Nicaea, to re-establish the power of the Roman Empire, now in decline, over the colonies established in the region.

Constantine the illiterate Constantine thus became the first ruler adopting "Christianity" as the official state religion (in the future this maneuver would be followed by many others), even though he followed the religion of the "Unconquered Sun". It will not be necessary to describe here the tricks and criminal policies perpetrated for religion hulking (pseudo Roman Christianity), won the True Christianity developed in that region of the Earth. However, it is always

A escravidão possui diferentes formas. Existe uma escravidão econômica, uma escravidão política, uma escravidão religiosa. Também em comunicação.

Todo estudante de Historia Geral sabe que na área hoje conhecida como Oriente Médio foi, na Antiguidade, o berço de várias religiões – um verdadeiro laboratório do qual veio à luz uma enorme quantidade de sistemas religiosos e cultos os mais obscuros. Mas também ali nasceu o Judaísmo, o Cristianismo, o Culto de Isis, de Osíris, de Baal, de Dionísio, e o Islã. Em meio a estas religiões e cultos, as mais conhecidas são: Judaísmo, Cristianismo e Islamismo. Porém, há muitos séculos atrás, Aton, Amon, Osíris, Baal, Adonis, Dionísio, etc., reinaram absolutos.

Esta área, chamada Oriente Médio, sempre foi tumultuada. Mesmo hoje a vemos fervilhar em diversos tipos de lutas. Israel, Palestina, Iraque, Irã, foram o pivot de diversas guerras, e presume-se que brevemente haverá outro conflito entre Israel e seus vizinhos mulçumanos, como já houve entre Israel e o Egípto. A Guerra do Iraque foi uma página à parte, pois constituiu uma guerra provocada pelos Estados Unidos da América, em sua política intervencionista.

region of the Earth. However, it is always interesting to revive the memory of this ignominy articulated against humanity, since the current "Roman Catholics" seem to ignore the history of their own religion and the crimes she committed to stabilizing the world, including the mass murder the Cathars, men and women who followed the primitive Christianity. The last stronghold of the Cathars was "Mount Segur," to which the legends refer to as being the place where was the Holy Grail.

According to a researcher of our time, "Constantine summoned the bishops of various regions in the famous Council (Nicaea 325 BC) so that they reach an agreement on the figure of" Jesus Christ "2 - if he was or was not of the same essence of God . Proceeded to a votaçãoistóriaHistória. Paradoxically, the bishops voted against the divinity of Jesus. In this they followed the doctrine of Arius, bishop of Alexandria, and one of the most learned of his time.

Constantine - Constantine the uneducated - not yet abandoned the cult of Sol Invictus (Mitra), was losing patience. For, as he would then become a "god" who, after all, was not God? Therefore, taken from anger forced the bishops to do another vote to recognize that Jesus was of the same substance of the Eternal Father, and not like substance. Many bishops have "turned coat" for fear of the consequences of not obeying the wishes of the Emperor. But Arius and twenty-one bishops of sense (and honest) stood firm with the previous votes. Arius, cult like, knew that the Jews considered themselves "sons of God". In fact as true Christians. That's exactly what distinguished them from other people, and that made them one of the "chosen people" 3. In the Old Testament, God is referred to as Father to someone in several books - Exodus, Psalms, Samuel, etc..

But the methods of Constantine were more convincing. Arius was excommunicated and his books burned (as always, what you do not understand, you destroy), and the Também é de nosso conhecimento que vários governantes sempre tentaram o controle religioso do povo para obter poder político. Certamente foi este o caso do Imperador Constantino, quando reuniu os bispos cristãos num concílio (reunião de religiosos), na cidade de Nicéia, para re-estabelecer o poder do Império Romano, já em decadência, sobre as colônias estabelecidas naquela região. Constantino, o analfabeto Constantino, tornou-se assim o primeiro governante adotando o “Cristianismo” como religião oficial do estado (futuramente esta manobra seria seguida por vários outros); muito embora ele mesmo seguisse a Religião do “Sol Invicto”. Não será necessários descrever aqui as artimanhas políticas e criminosas perpetradas para que a religião surgente (o pseudo cristianismo Romano), vencesse o Verdadeiro Cristianismo, desenvolvido naquela região da Terra. Porém, sempre é interessante reavivar a memória desta ignomínia articulada contra a humanidade, uma vez que os atuais “católicos romanos” parecem ignorar a história de sua própria religião e dos crimes que ela cometeu para estabilizar-se no mundo, inclusive o assassinato em massa dos Cátaros, homens e mulheres que seguiam o cristianismo primitivo. O ultimo reduto dos Cátaros foi “Monte Segur”, ao qual as lendas se referem como sendo o local onde estava o Santo Graal.

Segundo uma pesquisadora de nosso tempo, “Constantino reuniu os bispos de diversas regiões no famoso Concílio (Nicéia 325 a.C) para que estes chegassem a um acordo sobre o figura de “Jesus Cristo”² – se Ele era ou não da mesma Essência de Deus. Procedeu-se a uma votação História.

Paradoxalmente, os bispos votaram contra a divindade de Jesus. Nisso eles seguiam a doutrina de Ário, bispo de Alexandria, o

Council of Nicaea decreed the death penalty for those who retain some of the works of Arius.

This is, unfortunately, the story of the origin of the Roman Catholic Church (for details see "A Letter from Macau", Marcelo Motta). The dogmas of the Church were established by vote, and always allied to the powerful and ruthless rulers of the world, against the freedom of the rest, and to do so using violence, lies and crime.

Years later the Council of Nicaea, followed by standardization of the Books of the Bible, being removed from the original text (or properly taking shape to support the Nicene Creed) facts and elements mystically incompatible with reform. There followed a systematic persecution of the Gnostics, pagans and Jews, ensuring to the Roman Church, that no rival disturb the consolidation of doctrine "Christian Roman". In 391 ev a fanatizada crowd encouraged by growing church, burned the Temple and the Library of Alexandria, the great center of the Old Knowledge. It was the deepest blow suffered by the spirit of intellectual inquiry, ending with the possibility to search and thus to expose the fraud, one of the daughters of the most beloved "Big Plot". From that point, any independent researcher was branded a heretic, tortured and burned alive .. "In the name of God." Who has seen the movie or read the book "The Name of the Rose" (Umberto Eco) can make a faint idea of how this happened, even among priests.

After the Council of Nicaea, others were performed consolidating fraud. Thus, the Great Trama was taking over the Western mind.

a doutrina de Ário, bispo de Alexandria, e um dos mais cultos de seu tempo. Constantino – o inculto Constantino – que ainda não abandonara o culto ao Sol Invictus (Mitra), ia perdendo a paciência. Pois, como iria ele, então, se converter a um “deus” que, afinal, não era Deus? Por isso, tomado de ira, obrigou aos bispos a fazerem outra votação em que reconhecessem que Jesus era da mesma substância do Pai Eterno, e não substância parecida. Muitos bispos “viraram a casaca” por temerem as consequências em não obedecerem aos desejos do Imperador. Mas Ário e mais vinte e um bispos de bom senso (e honestos) mantiveram-se firmes com os votos anteriores. Ário, culto como era, sabia que os judeus se consideravam “filhos de Deus”. Aliás como os verdadeiros cristãos. Era isso exatamente que os distinguia dos outros povos, e que fazia deles um “povo eleito”³. No Antigo Testamento, Deus é designado como Pai para alguém em vários livros – Êxodo, Salmos, Samuel, etc. Mas os métodos de Constantino eram mais convincentes. Ário foi excomungado e seus livros queimados (como sempre acontece, aquilo que você não entende, você destrói), e o Concílio de Nicéia decretou a pena de morte contra quem conservasse alguma das obras de Ário. É esta, infelizmente, a história da origem de Igreja Católica Apostólica Romana (para maiores detalhes veja “Carta da Um Mação”, de Marcelo Motta). Os dogmas da Igreja foram estabelecidos por votação, e sempre aliando-se aos poderosos e cruéis senhores do mundo, contra a liberdade do resto, e para tanto usando da violência, da mentira e do crime. Anos mais tarde ao Concílio de Nicéia, seguiu-se a padronização dos Livros da Bíblia, sendo retirados do texto original (ou devidamente tomando a forma a apoiar o Credo de Nicéia) fatos e elementos misticamente incompatíveis

"The costumes have been prepared conveniently to distract and enslave every sector of the population. Thus we have, from the beginning, the custom sport spectacle (Foot-ball, basketball, cycling, etc.. High competition and professional) used as distraction from an important part of the population male.

Becomes apparent that the present moment witness a phenomenon of extraordinary features. Serious questions, both in the religious and esoteric harvest are passing through the sieve of a thorough investigation. The project is due to various thinkers and independent researchers, starting a revolution in the paradigms of both chains.

Recent disclosures of unpublished works, kept secret for a long time (centuries or more), these studies indicate new orientation.

It can be argued that this awakening was inaugurated with Blavatsky, Crowley, Dion Fortune, Ouspensky, Freud, Jung, and others.

The movement also offers new perspectives and interpretations bolder as important and crucial problems penalizing the human race in our tumultuous end of século.⁴ Portanto, is a happy occurrence we can currently express ourselves more freely and publish relevant topics, until recently taboo, and many of them unknown in Brazil, which put us very close the sale before several works that emerged in America and Europe. For centuries we had our knowledge and

com a reforma. Seguiu-se uma sistemática perseguição aos gnósticos, pagãos e judeus, assegurando, para a Igreja Romana, que nenhuma rival perturbasse a consolidação da doutrina “cristã romana”. Em 391 e.v., uma fanatizada multidão incentivada pela igreja em crescimento, incendiou o Templo e a Biblioteca de Alexandria, o grande centro do Conhecimento Antigo. Foi o mais profundo golpe sofrido pelo espírito da pesquisa intelectual, terminando com a possibilidade de se pesquisar e, conseqüentemente, de se expor a Fraude, uma das filhas mais querida da “Grande Trama”.

A partir desse ponto, qualquer pesquisador independente era estigmatizado de herege, torturado e queimado vivo.. “em nome de deus”. Quem viu o filme ou leu o livro “O Nome da Rosa” (Humberto Eco) pode fazer uma pálida idéia de como isto acontecia, mesmo entre sacerdotes.

Após o Concílio de Nicéia, outros foram realizados consolidando a Fraude. Assim, a Grande Trama foi se apossando da mente ocidental.

our consciousnesses limited by the shackles forged in the underground of false Christianity.

The most notable manifestation of our libertarian position is the change that occurred in the thinking of many scholars, researchers, scholars and mystics have arisen in this century. This freed several individuals from the shackles of a brutal dogmatism escravizante for unpublished interpretations of sacred texts, traditions and esoteric magical-mystical speeches from the past.

It was stated by a serious researcher, that the ecclesiastical power put a tourniquet on the mind of the Western world for fifteen hundred years. At present the tourniquet begins to be removed, and new horizons light up with the promise of full freedom of expression and action in all fields of human activity.

Despite contrary powers - the same who burned Giordano Bruno, Joan of Arc, Jacques de Molay, and others whose names would fill every page of this work - the truth starts to be revealed. The "Holy Books" of various religions of the past, now appear in a new light, even in the mechanism of their structures. The research progresses apace, and leads us to the point where it calls into question the (pseuda) basic historicity of these scriptures, which was a crime - usually punishable by death at the stake - doubted whether even a letter. Scholars of these texts and the lives of their writers, begin to declare openly that the narratives contained therein can not be accepted as real events, historical. Or they consist of an allegorical way of transmitting certain knowledge, or blur events not understood by our ancestors and are mostly pure fabrication. For us, particularly the New Testament presents an amalgam of various religious beliefs, popular beliefs, words pass secret organizations. All this being offered the Greeks and Trojans, as a divine revelation. But, as already stated, containing subterrâneos do falso cristianismo.

A mais notável manifestação dessa nossa posição libertária encontra-se na mudança ocorrida no pensamento de vários estudiosos, pesquisadores, eruditos e místicos surgidos nesse século. Isto libertou vários indivíduos das algemas de um brutal dogmatismo escravizante para inéditas interpretações de textos sagrados, tradições esotéricas e discursos mágico-místicos vindos do passado. Foi afirmado, por um sério pesquisador, que o poder eclesiástico colocou um torniquete, na mente do mundo ocidental, durante quinze centenas de anos. Na atualidade o torniquete começa a ser removido, e novos horizontes iluminam-se com a promessa de total liberdade de expressão e ação em todos os campos da atividade humana.

A despeito dos poderes contrários – os mesmos que queimaram Giordano Bruno, Joana D'Arc, Jacques de Molay, e outros cujos nomes ocupariam todas as páginas desse trabalho – parte da verdade começa a ser revelada. Os “Livros Sagrados” de várias religiões do passado, aparecem agora, sob uma nova luz, mesmo no mecanismo de suas estruturas. A pesquisa progride a passos largos, e nos leva ao ponto onde ela põe em xeque a (pseuda) básica historicidade dessas escrituras, das quais era crime – geralmente punido com a morte na fogueira – duvidar-se mesmo de uma letra. Estudiosos desses textos e da vida de seus escritores, começam a declarar abertamente que as narrativas ali contidas não podem ser mais aceitas como acontecimentos reais, históricos. Ou eles consistem numa forma alegórica de transmitir certos conhecimentos, ou encobrem acontecimentos não compreendidos por nossos antepassados ou são, em sua maioria, pura invencionice. Para nós, particularmente, o Novo Testamento apresenta um

In 1933 Hitler became the perfect partner for negotiations. Was agreed a concordat, which granted religious and educational advantages to the Catholic Church. This voluntary abdication of political Catholicism, Rome imposed, facilitated the rise of Nazism. amalgama de várias concepções religiosas, crenças populares, palavras de passe de organizações secretas. Tudo isto sendo oferecidos a gregos e troianos, como sendo uma revelação divina. Mas, como já afirmado, contendo alguns fatos, infelizmente descritos e interpretados por observadores cujas mentes ainda não se encontravam preparadas para entendê-los e, assim, os registraram sob o ponto de vista da superstição religiosa e de uma visão maravilhada ante as insólitas ocorrências.

Neste contexto, a própria Igreja de Roma, vendo-se ameaçada diante de várias dessas descobertas, e temerosa (como sempre) de perder o poder político exercido sobre as massas, começa a rever, muito discretamente, alguns de seus dógmas e algumas de suas “estórias”. Veja-se, por exemplo, o caso do “Santo Sudário”, que a Igreja, não faz muito tempo, reconheceu publicamente como uma falsificação.

O golpe dessas críticas textuais, estremecendo o edifício dos dogmas, tem sido bastante forte. O abalo acentuou-se, ainda mais, sob a divulgação de traduções e comentários eruditos concernentes aos “Manuscritos do Mar Morto” e da Biblioteca de Nag Hamadi⁵, no específico caso do Cristianismo. Estas traduções e comentários trouxeram, ao público, inúmeros fatos históricos até então desconhecidos, ou mantidos em absoluto segredo pelas autoridades civis e eclesásticas.

Mais recentemente, a Igreja Romana, veio à público pedir perdão ao judeus por ter fechado os olhos ante os crimes do

It is difficult and quite tiresome to write on any subject when most people have already considered, a priori, "true", "Untouchable", "set", etc., Claiming to know him very well through reading superficial popular magazine articles, dominated by the media, or the word "leaders" manipulating the content of these readings in favor of their philosophies implemented under the aegis of faith, awe, or by political coercion.

Therefore, I refer readers to the study of several books, whether for or against the conclusions that chagaram the authors cited in the course of this work. This freedom of demand is essential in achieving the real knowledge. Sticking to one line of thought, for fear of punishment coming from a pseudo "heaven" or "infallibility" of a man dressed in a doubtful authority, is to return to the level of the caveman.

This has always been the difficulty in assessing the fair religions and esoteric. We study several works about them and draw our own conclusions, especially with regard to the esoteric, as currently disclosed in the middle profane - so superficial, biased, commercial and what is worse, wrong. For esotericism is not offered to the people Esoteric, but a crude imitation of him. As a comparison, we could say that the distance between esotericism and Esoteric is the same between the expertise of an electrician and electrical engineer Science. Just highlighting a fundamental difference:

Holocausto. Isto cinquenta anos depois de sua monstruosa atitude. Deveria também pedir perdão pelas atrocidades por ela cometidas contra cátaros, gnósticos, Templários, Maçons, Esoteristas, Mulçumanos, etc. E esta organização ainda tem a coragem de dizer-se Cristã... Na verdade nos sabemos que a posição da Igreja de Roma não foi somente fechar os olhos às atrocidades do Nazismo. Em várias ocasiões houve até incentivos. "O Papa Pio XII (Pacelli), ajudou a moldar uma ideologia de poder papal sem precedentes; durante a década de 1920, ele empregou a astúcia e a coerção moral para impor esse poder na Alemanha. Em 1933 Hitler tornou-se o parceiro perfeito para negociações. Foi acertada uma concordata, que concedia vantagens religiosas e educacionais à Igreja Católica. Essa abdicação voluntária do catolicismo político, imposta de Roma, facilitou a ascensão do Nazismo." (Vide "O Papa de Hitler", John Cornwell).⁶ Em "Paranóia", um estudo elaborado já há algum tempo, eu exponho todo o caso do escândalo envolvendo o Vaticano, o Banco Ambrosiano, e o Arcebispo Paul Marcinkus. the electrician has true function within society, while the "esoteric" no. Unless that confusion, misinterpretation, of fraud, of bad information, danger and embromação, led to unspeakable purposes. There's the fact that the shoe fits the "promoters" of the "esoteric" in our country and around the world. For our words become very clear, we are talking about include a slag (deceiving the people for their own benefit) of "magicians", "tarot card readers", "Qabalists", etc., Among whom it is very difficult to separate the wheat from the chaff. This is an unforgivable crime of which I accuse them, donate to those who hurt ...

The same table shows that in religions and "orders" (or should I say dis-order?), The "secret brotherhood" (the secret that only have the name, and brotherhood is a legend), and more markedly, in "school magic" conferring degrees left and right, as if the Magic could be learned in classrooms the likeness of any school year. This is not anything magic ...

Face of chaos esoteric expanding around us, what can be done? How to distinguish truth from falsehood?

At this point it would be useful to quote the phrase used by an unknown sage of old Judea: "By their fruits ye shall know them."

The sentence should be sufficiently enlightening to the wise. Little or nothing we can do to those who do not have ears to hear. We must remember, too, that magical powers were never predict the development or spiritual growth as many might judge. One does not imply the other. Unbalanced people may possess admirable or malevolent magical gifts, and use them in order to benefit personally at the expense of their neighbors. And usually do. Individuals morally and spiritually never will, even possessing such powers.

Attitudes of the past, for the esotericism in general and in particular the Magic arrived to our days almost intact, and always tending to two extremes: one indicating the

E difícil, e bastante cansativo, escrever-se sobre qualquer assunto quando a maioria das pessoas já o considera, a priori, “verdadeiro”, “intocável”, “estabelecido”, etc., pretendendo conhece-lo muito bem através da leitura de superficiais artigos de revistas populares, dominadas pela mídia, ou pela palavra de “líderes” manipulando o conteúdo dessas leituras em favor de suas filosofias implantadas sob a égide da fé, do temor religioso, ou pela coerção política. Portanto, indico aos leitores o estudo de vários livros, sejam contra ou a favor das conclusões que chagaram os autores citados no decorrer desse trabalho. Esta liberdade de procura é imprescindível na conquista do real saber. Ater-se a uma só linha de pensamento, por temor a um pseudo castigo vindo do “céu” ou da “infalibilidade” de um homem vestido de uma autoridade duvidosa. É retornar ao

Magic as "an art of the devil," a danger to the human soul, while other places it on a pedestal raising it to the level of extraordinarily sacrosanct. Both trends are obviously unbalanced. In both extremes the effects have been devastating for humanity. People remain without knowing what to do between the cross and the sword: Magic or destroys their souls, and these, as they are impure (what they want us to believe the agents of Trama) to degrade. It is not difficult to understand that they have two alternatives for purpose, away from all the Real Science of the Magi

The various ongoing research come making the position of Trama quite difficult. Mainly remain veiled to the eyes of men. This obviously has forced the move, maneuvering their pieces on the board in the world, in an attempt to undo the progress of knowledge, unless those points of immediate interest. But, while moving it becomes visible as a serpent denounces moving in grasses. Thus, the direction of its sinuous movements can be expected closer to the observer.

The widespread confusion when the world plunged in recent decades, this result foreshadow the desperate action of Trama. Just we pay more attention, and we will see her shadow sneaking up behind these events. News reaches us from the four corners of the world: the most stupid wars, social unrest, economic problems eroding the wealth of many countries, racial and religious disharmony never seen in such proportions, and an increase of scary weapons increasingly radical, urban violence, fanaticism, movements trying to rebuild Nazism, Fascism and Communism, for the extermination of truly free men. It is more than clear that the human race is governed politically and economically by unknown groups financial miscreants criminals, and intellectually dubious psychotic and directed by charlatans. On the other hand, large amount of documents inscriptions prehistoric uma autocracia satânica, o retorno ao nível do troglodita.

Esta sempre foi a dificuldade na apreciação imparcial da religiões e do esoterismo. Devemos estudar várias obras a respeito e delas tirar nossas próprias conclusões, principalmente no concernente ao esoterismo, como atualmente divulgado no meio profano – de modo superficial, tendencioso, comercial e o que é pior, errado. Pois o esoterismo oferecido ao povo não é Esoterismo, mas sim um grosseiro arremedo dele. Como comparação, poderíamos afirmar que a distância entre o esoterismo e o Esoterismo é a mesma existente entre os conhecimentos de um eletricista e a Ciência de engenheiro elétrico. Apenas destacando-se uma diferença fundamental: o eletricista possui verdadeira função dentro da sociedade, enquanto que o “esoterismo” nenhuma. A não ser aquela da confusão, da má interpretação, da burla, de má informação, do perigo e da embromação, dirigidas para propósitos inconfessáveis. Aí está a realidade, em que caiba a carapuça nos “divulgadores” do “esoterismo” em nosso país e no resto do mundo. Para que nossas palavras fiquem bem claras, destacamos estarmos falando de uma escória (ludibriando o povo em benefício próprio) de “magos”, “tarólogos”, “qabalistas”, etc., no meio dos quais é muito difícil separar o jôio do trigo. Este é um crime imperdoável, do qual eu os acuso, doe a quem doer...

O mesmo quadro observa-se na religiões e “ordens” (ou deveria dizer desordem?), de “fraternidade secretas” (que de secretas só têm o nome, e a fraternidade é uma lenda), e mais acentuadamente, nas “escolas de magia” conferindo diplomas a torto e a direito, como se a Magia pudesse ser aprendida em salas de aulas a semelhança de qualquer curso escolar. Isto não é Magia coisa nenhuma...

documents, incunables, primitive monuments, papyri, medieval manuscripts and cultures, said, primitive, have suffered systematic destruction, as if something, or someone, to erase the memory of the past, because this memory (perhaps genetic memories) are clues that would lead us to the truth soon. Many other documents are hidden, altered the original texts or "accidentally lost" or considered "apocryphal" by an authority charlatan committed to our tormentors tormentors. I can cite as exponential crimes of Trama, in the past, the fire of the Library of Alexandria and the Crusades. We also note the disappearance of the keys of the old symbols of the texts hieroglyphics, Mayan writing, Aztec, Inca, and the Gnostic texts. Of the latter only have referrals through reviews of their opponents (and therefore unreliable). Diante do caos esotérico expandindo-se à nossa volta, que pode ser feito?

Como distinguir a verdade da mentira?

Nesse ponto seria de grande utilidade citar a frase dita por um desconhecido sábio da velha Judéia: "Pelos seus frutos os conhecereis".

A frase deveria ser suficientemente esclarecedora ao bom entendedor. Pouco ou nada poderemos fazer para os que não têm ouvidos de ouvir. Devemos nos lembrar, também, que poderes mágicos jamais foram indicadores de evolução ou crescimento espiritual como muitos possam julgar. Uma coisa não implica a outra. Pessoas desequilibradas ou malévolas podem possuir admiráveis dons mágicos, e usa-los de maneira a se beneficiarem pessoalmente em detrimento de seus semelhantes. E geralmente o fazem. Indivíduos moral e espiritualmente jamais o farão, mesmo possuindo tais poderes.

Atitudes do passado, relativas ao Esoterismo em geral e à Magia em particular, chegaram até nossos dias quase que intactas, e sempre tendendo para dois extremos: uma indicando a Magia como "uma arte do diabo", um perigo para a alma humana; enquanto outro a coloca num pedestal elevando-a à níveis de algo extraordinariamente sacrossanto. Ambas as tendências são, obviamente, desequilibradas. Em ambos os extremos os efeitos têm sido devastadores para a humanidade. As pessoas permanecem sem saber o que fazer entre a cruz e a espada: ou a Magia destrói suas almas, ou estas, impuras como são (o que querem nos fazer crer os agentes da Trama) a aviltam. Não será difícil compreender que as duas alternativas possuem, por finalidade, afastar a todos da Real Ciência dos Magi. As diversas pesquisas em curso vêm tornando a posição da Trama bastante difícil. Principalmente em se manter velada aos olhos dos homens. Isto intelligent beings on Earth, because at the end of his plot, just remain on the planet, the idiots, the semi-humans and the retarded, much easier to be controlled, enslaved and labor for the Architects of Greater Trama. After World War II, humanity thought he could breathe more relieved in an atmosphere of peace, harmony and progress. Another terrible mistake. Then burst the Korean War, Vietnam, Iran, Pakistan, Iraq, Bosnia, etc., Where ultra sophisticated weapons were tested for the joy of enriching the American war industries, Russian, English, etc.. Does anyone even realized anyone at any time, the man stopped killing each other, without knowing why? That most industries worldwide live and enrich our blood like vampires that are? Throughout this time, man has ceased to be guided by lies implanted by Trama. The exalted "Civilization of the twentieth century" became the obvious example.

For countless millennia, mankind has accepted without question the least, these lies, whether in the field of religion, or in politics, and have nothing to do with the reality of the facts observed in nature. It is evident, for me, the function of these statements untrue: keep the popular masses ignorant and subservient to an 'Elite' that Benjamin Disraeli described as "figures that can not be envisioned by those whose eyes can not penetrate the Backstage." In this same line of thought Gorg Gerard tells us: "I have a vision of a huge hoax in all grades of history at all levels of our civilization. The world is condemned to live under the rule of a caste which I call the Powers "

I would fully agree with Gorg was not his pessimism. Humanity is not irretrievably doomed to live under the rule of this Trama. Remaining hopes. There is still time to wake up and respond. There are forces fighting Trama wherever she appears, at this very moment in the past. Furthermore, in spite of every care to keep ignored some evidence leak, and men more attentive have a glimpse of what is really happening and verdade dos cinco dos momentos. Isto, evidentemente, a tem forçado mexer-se, manobrando suas peças no tabuleiro do mundo, numa tentativa de anular o avanço do conhecimento, a não ser naqueles pontos de seu interesse imediato. Mas, ao mover-se ela torna-se visível como uma serpente se denuncia movendo-se num capinzal. Desta maneira, a direção de seus movimentos sinuosos pode ser prevista ao observador mais atento.

A confusão generalizada em que o mundo mergulhou, nas últimas décadas, resultam deste prenuncio da desesperada ação da Trama. Basta prestarmos maior atenção, e veremos a sombra dela esgueirando-se por detrás destes acontecimentos. Notícias nos chegam dos quatro cantos do mundo: guerras as mais estúpidas, distúrbios sociais, problemas econômicos corroendo a riqueza de vários países, conflitos raciais e religiosos nunca vistos em tais proporções, e um aumento assustador de armas cada vez mais radicais; violência urbana, fanatismos, movimentos tentando reerguer o Nazismo, o Fascismo e o Comunismo, para extermínio dos homens verdadeiramente livres. Torna-se mais do que claro que a raça humana está sendo governada política e economicamente por desconhecidos grupos financeiros, canalhas criminosos, e intelectualmente dirigida por duvidosos psicóticos e charlatões.

Por outro lado, grande quantidade de documentos, inscrições rupestres, monumentos pré-históricos, papiros, manuscritos medievais e culturas, ditas, primitivas, vêm sofrendo sistemática destruição, como se algo, ou alguém, quisesse apagar a memória do passado, porque nesta memória (as memórias genéticas talvez) encontram-se pistas que nos levariam mais rapidamente à verdade. Outros tantos documentos são ocultados, alterados nos textos originais ou "acidentalmente perdidos", ou glimpses of what is really happening, and who is responsible for Trama.

We have been kept in a sepulchral blindness. A blinding us away from the real source of our knowledge and our position in the universal context. The priestly class itself has been, herself a victim of this blindness. While living under the illusion that you are serving the true God, and to be the world's elite. And in the same way following military and corrupt politicians. The reality is another. All these classes "eletistas" are merely puppets in the hands of true "Masters of the World", which have sought to set limits to human evolution, for fear this development, as will be discussed later. And in this context those who judge is free, in fact, a fool wannabe, a sheep among sheep, deceived, thickening the herd, following the determination and the whim of hidden beings to whom we are nothing more than Animals that usable and useful for its purposes, but disposable at the end of this utility, the same as in guinea Lab.

I can not believe all this misery, all this confusion, all this bloodshed, muddying the path of civilization, is the Will of the True God, the Creator of the Universe. Also, on the other hand, will not be blaming it on a hypothetical "devil" that give the puzzle solved or explained. It is very easy and child such a kind of reasoning. He would wash us to another issue: after all, who created the devil? If the answer is "God", then this "god" would prove to be a coward universal, creating a being to cover up their own weaknesses, cruel and sadistic tendencies, which would be a great absurdity, considering God as Love and Supreme Goodness. Seen is that God said in the Bible that God can not be universal, but an imitation of Him, appointed by the Gnostics as Demiurge, or Jehovah.

Jehovah declares the Almighty (El Shaday), and declares: "Even before the day was I, and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, who shall let it?" - (Isaiah considerados “apócrifos” por uma autoridade charlatanesca comprometida com nossos algozes algozes. Posso citar, como exponenciais crimes da Trama, no passado, o incêndio da Biblioteca de Alexandria e as Cruzadas. Podemos também assinalar o desaparecimento das chaves dos antigos símbolos dos textos hieróglifos, da escrita Maia, Azteca, Inca; e dos textos Gnósticos. Desses últimos somente temos referências através comentários de seus opositores (portanto, não confiáveis). E de outros tantos documentos indicando remotas civilizações que floresceram na face do planeta, muito antes do atual hominídeo aparecer. As deturpações bíblicas, cujos erros de tradução e interpretação contam, respectivamente, entre 30000 e 20000. O sistemático assassinato de inúmeros sábios que ousaram levantar a ponta do véu da ignorância. Os tenebrosos calabouços da Inquisição, onde padeceram, sob as mais terríveis torturas, milhares de homens e mulheres acusados de feitiçaria, herezia, pacto com o diabo, etc. O assassinato dos Templários, dos Cátaros, cujos conhecimentos punham o poder da Igreja em perigo; o genocídio dos Incas no Peru, e Astecas no México; as perseguições aos Maçons, e a outros grupos religiosos como os Albigenses, Gnósticos, etc. Em nossa época, o holocausto dos Judeus, dos Ciganos, dos homossexuais, etc., sob a bota Nazista auxiliada pelo Vaticano. A utopia marxista-leninista com seus crimes e perseguições, e o selvagem Capitalismo que parece imperar no mundo, matando de fome milhões de seres humanos. São estes, outros tantos êxitos obtidos pela ação da Trama que, assim, sem aparecer, executa seu plano de extermínio de todos os seres inteligentes da Terra; pois no fim de sua trama, apenas permanecerão, no planeta, os idiotas, os semi-humanos e os retardados, muito mais fáceis de serem controlados, escravizados e de 43:23). "For the Lord of hosts hath purposed: who shall annul it? And his hand is stretched out: who shall turn it back (Isa. 14:27). "Behold, I, I am, and there is no god with me: I kill and make alive, I wound and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand" - (Deut. 32:39) Apostle Paul reveals that someone submitted and corrupted all of creation: "For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. Because we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now " _ (Rom. :19-22). Now if all creation was subjected to oppressive, and within it many Jehovah arrogates powers, or Jehovah is subjected to oppression, or is lying. It turns out that those who do, have more power than the speaker and proclaims it can not do.

The man's situation, in actuality, it is as if he had his clothes soaked in gasoline and madly dance around a bonfire, and all Dantesque scene applauded for assistance: priests, politicians, government officials and, of course, "esoteric".

During the reign of the black "Inquisition" (The infamous "Inquisition" was created by a fanatical Spanish, Dominic Guzman, driven by a boundless hatred against "herezias." In 1216 Guzman manástica created order, which later times Dominican was called.) thousands of sages, philosophers and researchers, and even representatives of the wealthier classes (endowed with heart and sense of individuality) were mercilessly burned alive, or died in the torture chambers. They fought against fraud, showing another reality than the "official" dictated by the Church of Rome. Even today there are people who try controlados, escravizados e de trabalhar para os Arquitetos da Grande Trama.

Após A Segunda Guerra Mundial, a humanidade julgou poder respirar mais aliviada num clima de paz, harmonia e progresso. Mais um terrível engano. Seguidamente estourou a Guerra da Coreia, do Vietname, do Iran, do Paquistão, do Iraque, da Bósnia, etc., onde arma ultra sofisticadas foram testadas para a alegria de enriquecimento das indústrias bélicas americanas, russas, inglesas, etc. Será que ninguém ainda se apercebeu quem em tempo algum, o homem parou de matar-se mutuamente, sem ao menos saber porque? Que a maioria das indústrias mundiais vivem e se enriquecem de nosso sangue como vampiros que são?

Durante todo este tempo, o homem tem-se deixado guiar pelas mentiras implantadas pela Trama. A tão exaltada "Civilização do Século XX" tornou-se o evidente exemplo disto.

Por inumeráveis milênios, a humanidade tem aceito, sem o mínimo questionamento, estas mentiras, sejam no campo das religiões, ou seja no político, e que nada têm a ver com a realidade dos fatos observados na Natureza. Torna-se evidente, para mim, a função dessas afirmações mentirosas: manter a massa popular ignorante e subserviente à uma "Elite" que Benjamim Disraeli descreveu como "figuras que não podem ser vislumbradas por aqueles cujos olhos não conseguem penetrar nos Bastidores".

Nesta mesma linha de pensamento nos informa Gerard Gorg: "Eu tenho a visão de uma mistificação imensa em todos os graus da História, em todos os níveis de nossa civilização. O mundo está condenado a viver sob o domínio de uma casta que eu chamarei de os Poderes" Eu estaria de pleno acordo com Gorg não fosse seu pessimismo. A humanidade não está condenada irremediavelmente a viver triste. Even today there are people who try to justify the atrocities committed by the Inquisition, based on totally false premises (see, in particular, the ideas of Mr. Paulo Coelho on the subject). In particular, the man has not changed much in their reactions to the novel, before the great heroes, against the truth, especially when these and these are contrary to the standards established by the laws and customs fraud and the blinkered mindset of politicians and priests.

In the black days of the Inquisition, Freemasonry rose majestically against infamy. Was still Freemasonry, namely the powerful Order created by true fans opposing the Great Plot. Unfortunately Freemasonry, in our time, decayed beyond that provided by their creators.

Some would say that nowadays there are more inquisitorial bonfires (but there are other ways to "burn" someone) other means to shut our mouths. And, in a sense, far worse to the employees before the Inquisition, because more subtle, more disguised.

What happened during the history of human evolution is that certain, yet unforeseen beings were made to be God. After being accepted, took advantage of the situation, they managed to make the True God was seen, historically, as the Adversary (ie, transformed the True God in "Devil." Thus, we have accepted for millennia untrue statements as were true. Worse, is that we kill each other in our these lies. It's time to finish this foolishness.'m convinced that in the age we live in, it will start a period during which many of the existing lies will unmasked and then the man could breathe more freely without fearing anything. however, we can not delude ourselves: the war for the conquest of Liberty will be tremendous and long.

In this work appear some of these lies and "mysteries."

Say that a vision of the universe, different from what we are accustomed to accept, is sob o domínio dessa Trama. Ainda restam esperanças. Ainda é tempo de acordar e reagir. Existem forças combatendo a Trama onde quer que Ela apareça, neste instante mesmo como no passado. Além disso, e a despeito de todo cuidado para manter-se ignorada, alguns indícios vazam, e os homens mais atentos têm um vislumbre do que realmente está acontecendo, e quem são os responsáveis pela Trama.

Temos sido mantidos numa cegueira sepulcral. Uma cegueira nos afastando do Conhecimento de nossa real origem e de nossa posição no contexto universal. A própria classe sacerdotal tem sido, ela mesma, vítima desta cegueira. Muito embora viva sob a ilusão de que está servindo ao verdadeiro Deus, e de ser a elite do mundo. E no mesmo caminho seguem militares e políticos corruptos. A realidade é outra. Todas essas classes "eletistas" não passam de simples marionetes nas mãos dos verdadeiros "Senhores do Mundo", que têm pretendido fixar limites para evolução humana, por temor a esta evolução, como será discutido mais à frente. E neste contexto aqueles que se julga livre é, na realidade, um tolo presunçoso; uma ovelha entre ovelhas, enganada, engrossando o rebanho, seguindo a determinação e o capricho de seres ocultos para os quais nada mais somos do que animais úteis e aproveitáveis para seus fins, mas descartáveis ao término desta utilidade, da mesma forma que cobaias em laboratório.

Não posso crer que toda esta miséria, que toda esta confusão, que toda esta sangueira, enlameando o caminho da civilização, seja a Vontade do Deus Verdadeiro, do Criador do Universo. Também, por outro lado, não será lançando a culpa em um hipotético "diabo" que daremos o enigma por resolvido, ou explicado. É muito fácil e infantil um tal tipo de raciocínio. Ele nos levaria a uma senseless, mean to assert itself, in other words, that such a view does not fit the standards set arbitrarily imposed by fear of a pseudo "divine being" by force or political economy, or the weapons. These were always the means employed by the "dominant elite" to impose itself on the popular masses. Tyrants always seek to inhibit and subjugate the people through religion or through force or terror, and the use of these methods vary according to the reaction of each people. When, for whatever circumstances, are not successful the desired effect, the result is a fierce hatred and mass murder, as happened in Russia and Communist China, and other countries labeled as "democratic" as, for example, the United States of America, which in addition to virtually decimate indigenous populations of its territory, has a nasty habit of getting himself into the life of other countries to "save them" or democratizes them to force. Also, this has been the method used catechesis by priests and ministers and other representatives of organized religion, against the people called "primitives". As evangelists often say: "We will save you, even if this is necessary to kill him." This is the "word of the fierce god (Jehova) these" believers ". And therefore, "he", the god of the Bible tried to suppress the "rebels" from the earth with the flood, and the destruction of the "Tower of Babel", and razing Sodom and Gomorrah. Of course, for the man of sense, these "stories" demonstrate fully that "God" is not God at all, but a grotesque imitation of Him.

For many this my vision is a vision foolish, heretic, etc.. But, as told by Bryan Swimme "we do not need visions sensible; need is the most shocking and fantastic views of the universe that we can find." In what is fully supported by Teilhard de Chardin: "Just got the incredible chance of being true." Teilhard de Chardin was a priest of the Church of Rome, and developed his studies and anthropological research with strong nuances contrary to the dogmas of the tipo de raciocínio. Ele nos levava a uma outra questão: afinal, quem criou o diabo? Caso a resposta seja “deus”, então este “deus” revelar-se-ia um covarde universal, criando um ser para encobrir suas próprias fraquezas, tendências sádicas e cruéis; o que seria um grande absurdo, considerando-se Deus como Amor e Bondades Supremas. Visto está que o deus referido na Bíblia não pode ser este Deus Universal, mas uma imitação Dele, nomeado, pelos Gnósticos, como Demiurgo, ou seja, Jehová.

Jeovah se declara todo poderoso (El Shaday), e declara: “Ainda antes que houvesse dia, eu e ninguém há que possa fazer escapar de minhas mãos; operando eu, quem impedirá?” – (Is. 43:23). “Porque o Senhor dos Exércitos o determinou: quem pois o invalidará? E a sua mão estendida está: quem pois a fará voltar atrás (Is. 14:27). “Vede que eu, eu sou, e mais nenhum Deus comigo; eu mato e faço viver, eu firo e eu saro: e ninguém há que escape da minha mão” – (Deut. 32:39) Paulo apóstolo revela que alguém submeteu e corrompeu toda a criação: “Porque a criação, ficou sujeita à vaidade, não por sua vontade, mas por causa do que a sujeitou, na esperança de que também a mesma criatura será libertada da escravidão da corrupção, para a liberdade da glória dos filhos de Deus. Porque sabemos que toda a criação geme e está juntamente com dores de parto até agora” _ (Rm:19-22).

Ora, se toda criação foi submetida ao opressor, e dentro dela Jeovah se arroga tantos poderes, ou Jeovah está submetido ao opressor, ou está mentindo. O que parece é que, quem faz, tem mais poder do que quem fala e proclama o que não pode fazer.

A situação do homem, na atualidade, é nuances contrary to the dogmas of the Church, and his ideas "advanced", died in the wilderness. Only now his books can be read and appreciated.

Most existing theories, whether religious, political or esoteric, anything has helped us in understanding the man, the universe and God. And not the aim of this our work to create new theories, or controversial. But the controversies arise inexorably like a shadow that accompanies the light.

For those who come in our exposure just crazy, daydream, etc., Have a sacred right to think so and follow their own ideas. I suggest, however, that before taking any direction, they should study our propositions. Discussions priori always be a factor negative toward understanding: creates hatred, bitterness, fanaticism and encourage wars. Consult the textbooks of history and will realize the fact. There was resentment of the priests of Rome against the True Christians, we would not have the massacre of the Cathars, the Gnostics, etc.. There was hatred of Hitler (deluded by a pseudo supremacy "as Aryan race") against Jews, blacks, gypsies and homosexuals, we would not have the Second World War, during which thousands of men, women, children and elderly were slaughtered, in cold blood, in the name of ethnic cleansing. The understanding of truth will ever come of disputes, wars and hatred, always based on extremism, personal beliefs, and without any grounds, except that of bad faith. The bitter controversy between antagonistic factions - whether political or religious, or social - we have away, and will continue to do so, the important human questions. And this is exactly what our enemies want. For while men degladiam on behalf of chimeras, they - our enemies - easily overwhelm us. In our century, especially in the last decades, we have only acted like crazy - wars and more wars. This view depresses and scares me. Demonstrates how mankind has not learned that it is part of one body, and as it is in the hands of cruel handlers. We can not remain como se ele tivesse suas vestes embebidas em gasolina e, loucamente, dançasse à volta de uma fogueira, e toda dantesca cena aplaudida pela assistência: padres, políticos, governantes e, claro, “esoteristas”.

Durante o negro reinado da “Santa Inquisição” (A infame “Santa Inquisição” foi criada por um fanático espanhol, Dominic Guzman, impelido por um ódio sem limites contra as “herezias”. Em 1216 Guzman criou a ordem manástica, que tempos mais tarde chamou-se Dominicana.) milhares de sábios, filósofos e pesquisadores, e mesmo representantes das classes mais abastadas (dotados de coração e senso de individualidade) foram impiedosamente queimados vivos, ou morreram nas câmaras de tortura.

Lutavam eles contra a Fraude, mostrando uma outra realidade que não a “oficial” ditada pela Igreja de Roma. Ainda hoje existem indivíduos que tentam justificar as barbaridades cometidas pela Inquisição, baseando-se em premissas totalmente falsas (vide, particularmente, as idéias do Sr. Paulo Coelho sobre o assunto). Neste particular, o homem não mudou muito em suas reações ante o inovador, ante os grandes heróis, ante a verdade, principalmente quando estes e estas contrariam os padrões, leis e costumes estabelecidos pela Fraude e pela tacanha mentalidade de políticos e sacerdotes.

Nos negros tempos da Inquisição, a Maçonaria ergueu-se majestosa contra a infâmia. Ainda era a Maçonaria, isto é, a poderosa Ordem criada pelos verdadeiros Adeptos opondo-se à Grande Trama. Infelizmente a Maçonaria, em nossa época, decaiu além do previsto por seus criadores.

Diriam alguns que hoje em dia não existem mais fogueiras inquisitórias (mas existem outros meios de se “queimar” alguém): outros meios para calar nossas bocas. E, em certo sentido, bem piores aos empregados anteriormente pela Inquisição, porque mais sutis, mais disfarçados.

O ocorrido durante a história da evolução humana consiste em que certos e ainda não definidos seres fizeram-se passar por Deus. Depois, sendo aceitos, aproveitaram da situação, conseguiram fazer com que o Verdadeiro Deus fosse visto, historicamente, como o Adversário (isto é, transformaram o Verdadeiro Deus em "Diabo". Desta maneira, temos aceito, durante milênios, afirmações mentirosas como se fossem verdade. O pior, é que nós nos matamos mutuamente em nosso dessas mentiras. Já é hora desta insensatez terminar. Estou convicto que na época em que vivemos, iniciar-se-á um período, durante o qual, muitas da mentiras existentes serão desmascaradas e, então, o homem poderá respirar mais livremente sem nada temer. Porém, não podemos nos iludir: a guerra para a conquista da Liberdade será tremenda e longa.

No decorrer deste trabalho serão exibidas algumas dessas mentiras e "mistérios". Dizer-se que uma visão do Universo, diferente da qual nós estamos acostumados a aceitar, é insensata, significa afirmar-se, em outras palavras, que tal visão não se ajusta aos padrões estabelecidos arbitrariamente e impostos pelo temor de um pseudo "ser divino", ou pela força político econômica, ou pelas armas. Estes foram os meios sempre empregados pela "elite dominadora" para impor-se sobre a massa popular. Os tiranos sempre procuram inibir e subjugar o povo através da religião, ou através da força ou pelo terror; e o emprego desses métodos variando segundo a reação de cada povo. Quando, por quaisquer circunstâncias, não surtem o efeito desejado, o resultado é um ódio feroz e o assassinato em massa, como aconteceu na Rússia e na China comunistas, e em outros países rotulados como

When we returned from a trip and entered a new phase of our lives, we are impelled immediately to a new kind of journey, "the pattern is not linear or circular, but spiral."

I returned from a journey where many of my old ideas and concepts were purged by the "dryness" of the way. And now those ideas seem like child's play. "The vision and mental clarity arising from this will purge stream will try to convey in this study."

Write about a new vision of the world, when it comes to religion and esotericism, is the same as stoke a hive of angry bees. It is taking a dangerous option, since it consists in overthrowing old idols and face hatred and attacks fiercest welcome the worshipers of these idols - those who sleep and dream can not handle being awake. Put another way, "the slaves shall serve."

Critics of both currents always confronted with three obstacles: the thought adulterated, bigotry and fraud. And I do not know which of the three is the worst. I hope to get them dribbles, fleeing the jargon used by most "magicians" and "started" writing about. Viso mild approach the subject, easy to read those eventually being lay in the occult, come to read these pages.

Maybe my words can be, for many, the first contact with concepts, judgments, philosophies and occult practices .. It can also happen (who could deny it? The universe is so full of surprises) that some of these potential readers obtain as best result of this reading, the awakening to new horizons and the desire to go further in search of these ideas, trying to reach other "branches" of leafy 'Tree of Life', savoring its fruits, and aiming for a level of consciousness beyond that achieved by me in this so short and wonderful existence.

No matter at all, that such an awakening is caused by desire in me to fight - the important thing is to wake up and see the danger to which we are exposed by closing our eyes to the action of that "Elite Anti “democráticos” como, por exemplo, os Estados Unidos da América, que além de praticamente dizimar as populações indígenas de seu território, tem o péssimo costume de meter-se na vida de outros países para “salvá-los”, ou democratizá-los à força? Também, este tem sido o método de catequese usada por padres e pastores e outros representantes de religiões organizadas, contra os povos chamados “primitivos”. Como os catequizadores costumam dizer: “nós te salvaremos, mesmo que para isto seja necessário matá-lo”. Esta é a “palavra do feroz deus (Jehova) desses “crentes”. E, por isso, “ele”, o deus da Bíblia tentou suprimir os “rebeldes” da face da Terra com o dilúvio, e com a destruição da “Torre de Babel”, e arrasando Sodoma e Gomorra. Evidentemente, para o homem de bom senso, estas “histórias” demonstram cabalmente que esse “deus” não é Deus coisa nenhuma, mas uma grotesca imitação Dele.

Para muitos esta minha visão é uma visão insensata, herege, etc. Mas, como dito por Bryan Swimme “não necessitamos de visões sensatas; precisamos é das mais chocantes e fantásticas visões do Universo que pudermos encontrar.” No que é apoiado plenamente por Teilhard de Cardin: “Só o inacreditável tem possibilidade de ser verdadeiro”. Teilhard de Cardin era um sacerdote da Igreja de Roma, e desenvolveu seus estudos e pesquisas antropológicas com fortes nuances contrárias aos dogmas de Igreja, e por suas idéias “avançadas”, morreu no ostracismo. Somente agora seus livros podem ser lidos e apreciados.

A maioria das teorias existentes, sejam religiosas, políticas ou esotéricas, em nada nos tem ajudado na compreensão do Homem, do Universo e de Deus. E não o fito deste nosso trabalho criar novas teorias, ou polêmicas. Mas as polêmicas inexoravelmente surgirão como a sombra que acompanha a luz.

Human”, which domino “The Great plot”. And where is related to the esoteric “and” tiny.

It would be appropriate to add something that was not clearly told by several “esoteric” before me: that nothing replaces direct vision, personal experience and research unprejudiced.

For this, at various points of this writing, I present precious symbols, “keys”, so to speak. The most attentive reader will not be difficult to take possession of the true meanings of these keys and open the necessary doors for advancement in the understanding of the Real Art, for without these “keys” no door will open, or will open a door wrong. And this is undoubtedly the reason we hear and read so much nonsense concerning the Esoteric. Only with the Real Keys will unfold, before our eyes, a world full of wonderful truths, and situate the Great Danger lurking in this very moment behind the scenes.

There is nothing more disappointing and deeply traumatizing discover that everything, to which we devote much of our lives is just a big scam, whose sole purpose is to keep us away from reality, becoming useful idiots. This happened to me, and I will not be the last. The same thing is occurring, and will continue to occur, as large numbers of individuals, until we know separate “the wheat from the chaff” - means: while we do not realize clearly that the vast majority of messages from all sacred texts were manipulated, and deformed, for centuries, causing a rift between us and our past and consequently away from the path to a promising future.

Once, Madame Blavatsky declared to splurge and understanding of many very few, “that is the secret enemy of truth.” This, look well: do not want to dignify the lack of secrets. There are secrets and secrets. Blavatsky was a Master of the Temple. And we all know that when a Master of the Temple speaks, he only tells lies. Why?

That “started” to find the answer for que acompanha a luz.

À aqueles que virem em nossa exposição apenas loucura, devaneio, etc., têm o sagrado direito de assim pensarem e de seguirem suas próprias idéias. Sugiro, entretanto, que antes de tomarem qualquer direção, deveriam estudar estas nossas proposições. Discussões a priori sempre serão um fator negativos em direção à compreensão: cria ódios, rancores, fanatismos e incentivam guerras. Consultem os compêndios de História e constatarão o fato. Não fosse o rancor dos padres de Roma contra os Verdadeiros Cristãos, não teríamos o massacre dos Cátaros, dos Gnósticos, etc. Não fosse o ódio de Hitler (iludido por uma pseudo supremacia da "tal raça ariana") contra os judeus, negros, ciganos e homossexuais, não teríamos a Segunda Grande Guerra, durante a qual milhares de homens, mulheres, crianças e velhos foram chacinados, a sangue frio, em nome de uma limpeza racial. A compreensão da verdade jamais virá de disputas, de guerras e de ódios, sempre baseados em extremismos, crenças pessoais, e sem quaisquer fundamentos, a não ser aquele da má fé. As acirradas polêmicas entre facções antagônicas – sejam políticas ou religiosas, ou sociais – nos têm afastado, e continuarão a fazê-lo, das importantes questões humanas. E é exatamente isto que nossos inimigos desejam. Pois enquanto os homens se degladiam em nome de quimeras, eles – nossos inimigos – mais facilmente nos dominarão. Em nosso século, especialmente nas última décadas, só temos agido como loucos – guerras e mais guerras. Esta visão me assusta e deprime. Demonstra o como a humanidade ainda não aprendeu que ela faz parte de um só organismo, e de como está em mãos de manipuladores cruéis. Não podemos permanecer neste erro fatal.

that started to find the answer for themselves. They do not know all the "secrets"? Do not they say that there are no secrets?

As it is difficult to imagine, the statement made by the "most famous occultist" of the nineteenth century, created great turmoil and even awe, media esoteric, especially among mation. Logically, having its foundations based on a Big Secret, Freemasonry would not survive without them, just as the Roman Catholic Church without its dogmas.

The shock caused by the words of Blavatsky was so intense to the point that many esoteric among the most exalted, start a campaign against it. And this, of course, were instigated and supported by fraud, that taking advantage of the opportunity, announced the despicable rumor that Blavatsky was a swindler and spy in the pay of Russia Kzarista. As we can see, the truth does not please the majority, especially those living the lie. Incidentally numbers never translated quality, in spite of this, so called Democracy. I myself, in my ignorance, and how training, newcomer to the Temple of Solomon, I was upset at the time the statement read. I let him take me for my foolishness, and paid this error with interest and inflation.

Time passed. Thirty years after learning of the wise words of Blavatsky, and the indispensable help of a friend and Frater, could finally rid myself of conditioning, tax me, and understand them a little more clarity. Better late than never. But was thirty precious years of pilgrimage not pleasant; many falls and many mistakes have been necessary for understanding the underlying truths in the work of that great woman, especially in his monumental "The Secret Doctrine".

Blavatsky, among other things, warned us in his own way, and throughout his life, against the errors, deceptions and empty assertions, which most "esoteric" have taken and publicized as indisputable truths - true dogmas such those which invented the Church of Rome, and now followed by its subsidiaries: Protestantism, now divided into several "churches" and sects, is nothing more than a continuation of the Roman sleight - ie: a farce invented at the Council of Nicaea in order to please Greeks and Trojans. Only one thing distinguishes the matrix of subsidiaries: Protestantism with its churches and sects, has become many times worse than Roman Catholicism, because based on a grotesque and growing fanaticism.

The Council of Nicaea (325 AD) convened by Roman Emperor Constantine at the time. Newly converted to Christianity. Constantine was pressured by his court to develop a concept of God that would please the Christian factions that had Jesus as savior of the sins of the world. Among many discussions during the debates, a group of dignitaries Christians decided that God was three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. What contradicts the words of Jesus himself, because neither the New Testament nor in the Apocrypha texts, ever referred to the Trinity. What the Gospels unanimously express is: "I (Jesus) and the Father are one ..."

It was at this council that the Gospels do not have the endorsement of the Holy Spirit were labeled Apocrypha. And how could God know about this decision?

Constantine then turned to a vote. This advocates the Trinity lost to Arius, who claimed that Jesus was not of the same essence of God. The Constantine did not enjoy it and ordered a new vote in which Jesus was considered the same essence of the Father, and that he used his "authority" of the Emperor. Arius and his followers were excommunicated, and all his writings destroyed, then be considered a crime against the Emperor, and having read the writings Aryans.

Then, from Nicaea, everything that was not according to the dictates of Rome was vidas, somos impelidos imediatamente para um novo tipo de jornada; “o padrão não é linear ou circular, mas em espiral.” Voltei de uma jornada onde muitas de minhas antigas idéias e concepções foram purgadas pela “secura” do caminho. E agora aquelas idéias me parecem como brincadeiras de crianças. “A visão e a clareza mental decorrentes desta purgação irei transmitir irei tentar transmitir neste estudo.”

Escrever sobre uma nova visão do mundo, no que tange à religião e ao esoterismo, é o mesmo que aticar uma colméia de furiosas abelhas. É assumir uma perigosa opção, pois consiste em derrubar antigos ídolos e enfrentar ódios e ataques mais ferozes vindos dos adoradores desses ídolos – os que dormem e sonham não suportam ser acordados. Dito de outra maneira “os escravos servirão”.

Os críticos de ambas as correntes sempre defrontam-se com três obstáculos: o pensamento adulterado, o fanatismo e a fraude. E eu não sei qual dos três é o pior. Espero conseguir dribla-los, fugindo dos jargões usados pela maioria dos “magistas” e “iniciados” escrevendo a respeito. Viso uma abordagem amena do tema, facilitando a leitura daqueles que, eventualmente, sendo leigos em ocultismo, vierem a ler estas páginas. Talvez minhas palavras possam ser, para muitos, o primeiro contato com conceitos, juízos, filosofias e práticas ocultas.. Pode, também, acontecer (quem o poderia negar? O Universo é tão cheio de surpresas) que alguns desses eventuais leitores obtenham, como melhor resultado desta leitura, o despertar para novos horizontes e o desejo de ir mais longe na pesquisa destas idéias, procurando atingir outros “ramos” da frondosa ‘Árvore da Vida”, saboreando seus frutos, e objetivando um nível de consciência mais além do alcançado por mim nesta tão curta e maravilhosa existência. Não importa, em absoluto, que um tal burned or at least prohibited. I nat did not happen with the Gospel of Thomas as a Gnostic monk copied it, closed it in an urn and took him to Egypt, where it was found more than 1600 years later, in 1945 in the region of Nag Hamadi.

Much of the "esoteric" and "tion" I knew, never assimilated, even a thousandth of the message Blavatsky. And even less that of Aleister Crowley, the Magus of the XX Century. If anything, they remained confused in the "Hall of Lost Steps". Failed to see the hidden behind the occult. Every work of master Russian and in English magus clearly displays how much we are mistaken, and will continue to be, in many of our cherished beliefs, and totally ignorant of the dark "movements" underground engendered by "powers" that hardly could imagine even exist - even in our daydreams bolder Unfortunately both successors of Crowley and Blavatsky failed to give proper continuation or develop properly, the seeds sown by these two giants of modern esotericism. Even the followers of Blavatsky and Crowley were themselves involved through the web woven by fraud.

The result of this catastrophic incompetence reflected promptly in krishnamurtiana farce, and the indisputable decline of the Theosophical Society, which has become, in our day, a pale shadow of what was at the time of its founder - do not speak here about the Brazilian Theosophical Society, Today there under another name, considering it a joke ... and distasteful, say in passing. The same decline has been followed by several "Thelemic orders," especially the OTO (business English and American) Every work of Blavatsky is directed to unmask the "esoteric secrets" and false Christianity. Aleister Crowley has continued this work, achieving greater breadth and depth, developing it into lines much more universal. Unfortunately his books are not as easy to find in Brazil, as are the scribbles of a certain pseudo "magician Roman Catholic" (what a paradox!). To our despertar seja causado pelo desejo em me combater – o importante é que despertem e vejam o perigo a que estamos expostos por fecharmos os olhos à ação daquela “Elite Anti Humana”, a qual domino “A Grande Trama”. E na qual está atrelado o esoterismo com “e” minúsculo.

Seria conveniente acrescentar algo que não foi claramente dito por vários “esoteristas” que me antecederam: que nada substitui a visão direta, a experiência pessoal e a pesquisa destituída de preconceitos.

Para isto, em vários pontos deste escrito, apresento símbolos preciosos, “chaves”, por assim dizer. Ao leitor mais atencioso não lhe será difícil tomar posse dos verdadeiros significados destas chaves e abrir as necessárias portas para avanço na Compreensão da Arte Real; pois sem estas “chaves” nenhuma porta abrir-se-á, ou se abrir será uma porta errada. E este é, sem dúvida, o motivo de ouvirmos e lermos tanta besteira concernente ao Esoterismo. Somente com as Reais Chaves se descortinará, ante nossos olhos, um mundo cheio de maravilhosas verdades, e situaremos o Grande Perigo nos rondando neste momento mesmo por detrás dos bastidores.

Nada existe de mais decepcionante e profundamente traumatizante descobrir-se que tudo aquilo, a que dedicamos grande parte de nossas vidas, não passa de uma grande farsa, cuja finalidade única consiste em nos manter afastados da realidade, tornando-nos idiotas úteis. Isto aconteceu comigo; e não serei o último. A mesma coisa vem ocorrente, e continuará ocorrendo, como grande número de indivíduos, enquanto não soubermos separar “o joio do trigo” – quer dizer: enquanto não percebermos claramente, que a grande maioria das mensagens de todos os textos sagrados foram manipulados, e deformados, durante misfortune, translations (post Marcelo Motta) of Crowley's books, for the Portuguese are lousy. As for the Spanish nor fala.8 Blavatsky and Crowley demonstrate the further development of the Science of Human Nature, confirming that the Esoteric Knowledge is the only True God of the Universe and Man.

I can not here omit to make some comments about Freemasonry.

Unfortunately, this Order only saw a large number of men flaunting their "exalted degrees" and bazofinando secret knowledge that in reality do not. All Real Secrets them were veiled in the last 100 years. Ante lamentable fact, John Yarker, Grand Master of the Rite for England, writer, scholar, whose culture, honesty, science and value are indisputable and indispensable to any serious student of Freemasonry, used once, the following words regarding the tion of his time: "The blind are leading the blind" 9.

This has been recognized by as many mation certainly not the most insignificant. In my view, Freemasonry has lost over the years, most of his former position, authority, effectiveness and power of confronting and resolving the problems plaguing mankind. Freemasonry today, with rare exceptions, has become a mere form without meaning interno10.

What could attribute so pitiful picture?

Some authors point to the absurd superstitions introduced in various Rites. Others, lacking practical good sense and usefulness in the field of Initiation.

My particular view points to causes more intimate, first originated n ignorance, negligence and the lack of basic knowledge and historical. Besides these, the massive infiltration of undesirable elements, connected mostly to the current commanded by the disruptive forces inimical to man. Evidence of this movement in the ignoble estampam documents guarded in Mizrain Shop (Paris) in the last century. I refer here to the famous, and not less terrifying, PROTOCOL OF THE WISE OF SION " seculos, causando uma ruptura entre nos e nosso passado e, conseqüentemente, afastando-nos do caminho para um futuro promissor.

Certa vez, a Sra. Blavatsky declarou, para alarde de muitos e compreensão de pouquíssimos, “que o segredo é inimigo da verdade”. Isto, veja-se bem: não quer dignificar a não existência de segredos. Existem segredos e Segredos. Blavatsky era uma Mestra de Templo. E todos nós sabemos que quando um Mestre de Templo fala, ele só diz mentiras. Por que? Que “iniciados” encontrem a resposta por si mesmos. Não conhecem eles todos os “segredos”? Não dizem eles que não há segredos?

Como não é difícil de se imaginar, a declaração proferida pela “mais famosa ocultista” do Século XIX, criou grande reboliço e mesmo espanto, nos meios esotéricos, principalmente entre mações. Logicamente, tendo suas fundações baseadas em um Grande Segredo, a Maçonaria não sobreviveria sem eles, da mesma forma que a Igreja Católica Romana sem seus dogmas.

O choque causado pelas palavras de Blavatsky foi tão intenso ao ponto em que vários esoteristas, entre os mais exaltados, iniciarem uma campanha contra ela. E nisto, evidentemente, foram instigados e apoiados pela Fraude, que aproveitando-se da oportunidade, divulgou o ignóbil boato que Blavatsky era uma farsante e espiã a soldo da Rússia Kzarista. Como podemos observar, a verdade não agrada a maioria, principalmente àqueles vivendo da mentira. Aliás quantidade jamais traduziu qualidade, em que isto pese à, assim chamada, Democracia. Eu mesmo, em minha ignorância, e como maçã, recém chegado ao Templo de Salomão, senti-me perturbado na época em que li a declaração. Deixei-me levar por minha tolice, e paguei este erro com juros e correção monetária.

PROTOCOLS OF THE WISE OF SION, the formation Schorst Joseph brought the public in an attempt to give the alarm maquiaválica warp the enemies of God and Man. Here we open a parenthesis for some important considerations:

The Nazis used the "Protocols" as a weapon against the Jews. Attempted to demonstrate the latter having been the authors of the document. We disagree entirely with this release. The "Protocols", while indicating a clear plot to Zionist domination of the world, were not written by Jews, but by those who seek to incite racial and political struggles in our world. The Jews have never been the authors of the "Protocols". By all indications were the Jesuits.

However, it is also possible that the investigations carried out, whatever the orders given and enforced, have not reached a definitive result regarding the authorship of the "Protocols"

It should be noted that the United States arrived quite late on this subject. Were proceeded by four world powers, and one of them for a long time. A copy of the "Protocols" was delivered to the British Museum, upon receipt of this Institute, dated August 10, 1906. The notes probably date back to the year 1896. The first Zionist Congress met in Basel in the year 1897. Recently published the document in England (I have two copies in Portuguese. One without indicating the publishing house), in circumstances that aroused public attention, despite the title he received little happy. Edited it to House Eyre and Spottidwood, printers official of the British government, which would, in another country, to be printed at the mint. Ante hubbub of the Jewish press, the "Times" of London, criticizing the work, declared that all attacks against the Jews had shown "insufficient".

That newspaper noted in the Jewish defenders sometimes passed over the O tempo passou. Trinta anos após tomar conhecimento das sábias palavras de Blavatsky, e a indispensável ajuda de um amigo e Frater, consegui, finalmente, libertar-me do condicionamento, a mim imposto, e compreende-las com um pouco mais de clareza. Antes tarde do que nunca. Mas foram trinta anos preciosos de peregrinação nada agradável; muitas quedas e muitos erros foram necessários para a compreensão das verdades subjacentes na obra daquela grande mulher, principalmente em sua monumental "A doutrina Secreta".

Blavatsky, entre outras coisas, nos alertou, à sua maneira, e durante toda sua vida, contra os erros, engodos e vãs afirmativas, as quais a maioria dos "esoteristas" têm tomado e divulgado como verdades indiscutíveis – verdadeiros dogmas tais quais aqueles inventados pela Igreja de Roma, e atualmente seguidos por suas subsidiárias: O Protestantismo, atualmente dividido em várias "Igrejas" e seitas, nada mais representa do que uma continuação da escamoteação romana – isto é: uma farsa inventada no Concílio de Nicéia com o intuito de agradar gregos e troianos. Somente uma coisa diferencia a matriz das subsidiárias: O Protestantismo com suas igrejas e seitas, tornou-se muitas vezes pior que o Catolicismo Romano, porque baseiam-se num fanatismo grotesco e crescente.

O Concílio de Niceia (325 d.C) convocado pelo Imperador Romano Constantino na época. Recém convertido ao Cristianismo. Constantino foi pressionado por sua corte a elaborar um conceito de Deus que agradasse as facções cristãs que tinha Jesus como salvador dos pecados do mundo. Entre muitas discussões durante os debates, um grupo de altos dignatários cristãos decidiu que Deus era três pessoas: Pai, Filho e Espírito Santo. O que contraria as palavras do próprio Jesus, pois nem no Novo Testamento nem textual content of these "Protocols", attacked, in turn, its underground and to judge the text, invariably served the formula: "the work of a criminal", etc. .

The "Protocols" irresistibly force us to repeat these questions: Have the Jews a system of world domination organized? What is your policy? How to put it into practice?

Regarding the first question, I answer no, even though the recent events in Palestine and widely publicized in the print and televised, begin to make me change my opinion. The Israelites are now employing against the Palestinians, the same methods the Nazis used against them. But I still prefer to think that behind all this is the hand of the Weave pulling the strings. The second and third questions are obvious to anyone that plans should only come from the Weft. End of parenthesis.

It is unnecessary to add here about the tragic death of Jose Schorst, brutally murdered in Egypt, two years after her courageous gesture. Perhaps this is an issue that should be discussed by the Masons particularly because the Protocols is a serious accusation that Freemasonry is an arm of the Weave. And Freemasonry, to date, has not refuted the accusation. Silence is consent ...

Therefore, I will go with the main theme of this work, which is: "The Big Plot". While all these issues are interconnected in a rather intimate.

nos textos Apócrifos, jamais se referiu à Trindade. O que unanimemente todos os Evangelhos expressam é: “Eu (Jesus) e o Pai somos um...”

Foi neste Concílio que os Evangelhos que não tinham o aval do Espírito Santo foram rotulados Apócrifos. E de que forma se podia saber sobre essa decisão divina?

Então Constantino recorreu a uma votação. Nesta os defensores da Trindade perderam para Ário, que afirmava que Jesus não era da mesma essência de Deus. A Constantino isto não agradou e ordenou uma nova votação em que Jesus fosse considerado da mesma essência do Pai, e para isto usou de sua “autoridade” de Imperador. Ário e seus seguidores foram excomungados, e todos seus escritos destruídos, passando a ser considerado um crime contra o Imperador ler e escrever os escritos Arianos.

Então, a partir de Nicéia, tudo que não estivesse de acordo com os ditames de Roma era queimado ou, no mínimo, proibido. Isso não aconteceu com o Evangelho de Tomé porque, um monge gnóstico copiou-o, encerrou-o numa urna e levou-o para o Egito, onde foi encontrado mais de 1600 anos depois, em 1945 na região de Nag Hamadi.

Grande parte dos “esoteristas” e “maçons” que conheci, jamais assimilaram, sequer, um milésimo da mensagem de Blavatsky. E muito menos ainda aquela de Aleister Crowley, o Magus do Sec. XX. Se muito, eles permaneceram confusos na “Sala dos Passos Perdidos”. Não conseguiram ver o oculto por detrás do ocultismo. Toda obra da mestra russa e do magus inglês nos exhibe claramente o quanto estamos enganados, e continuaremos a estar, em muitas de nossas queridas crenças, e totalmente ignorantes dos sombrios “movimentos” subterrâneos engendrados por “poderes” que, dificilmente, poderíamos imaginar sequer existirem – mesmo em nossos devaneios mais ousados. Infelizmente tanto os sucessores Particularly I would define esotericism as a legacy from far away ... An inheritance received by man some obscure moment of his career, not very well located, much less seriously researched by the "scholars" of the "Science Journal". I would even say that the Esoteric is what "left", or could reach us, very clearly misrepresented by accidental causes, and factional and splintered by manipulations of great knowledge that thousands of years, was part of the common heritage of the various cultures earth. For several decades, my thoughts and ideas were obscured, wrapped and addressed to the most dangerous errors and devious ways. Needed to go through an existential twist, quite painful to get to "see" what is visible all the time and all right under our noses, but we do not want to see, just for fear of their meanings. There is a fear in children "see" that would lead us to assume our responsibilities as divine beings who are: free and independent in a boundless universe.

In this context, I very to that friend who once gave me a jolt to wake me up.

Certain days were, he and I, chatting informally about human evolution, its future and its boldness in the conquest of outer space, and the consequences that certainly in the near future, would modify greatly the structures of human relations (political - social and, more markedly, religious beliefs) as becomes obvious.

de Crowley e de Blavatsky não lograram dar o devido prosseguimento, ou desenvolver adequadamente, as sementes lançadas por estes dois gigantes do atual esoterismo. Os próprios seguidores de Blavatsky e Crowley foram, eles mesmos, envolvidos pela teia tecida pela Fraude.

O resultado desta incompetência catastrófica repercutiu prontamente na farsa krishnamurtiana, e no indiscutível declínio da Sociedade Teosófica, a qual tornou-se, em nossos dias, uma pálida sombra do que fora na época de sua fundadora – não falo aqui da tal Sociedade Teosófica Brasileira, hoje existindo sob outro nome, por considerá-la uma piada... e de mau gosto, diga-se de passagem.

O mesmo declínio tem sido seguido por várias “ordens thelêmicas”, principalmente pela OTO (ramo inglês e norte-americano) Toda obra de Blavatsky direciona-se em desmascarar os “segredos esotéricos” e o falso cristianismo. Aleister Crowley deu continuação a essa trabalho, alcançando maior amplitude e profundidade, desenvolvendo-o em linhas muito mais universais. Infelizmente seus livros não são tão fáceis de serem encontrados no Brasil, como o são os rabiscos de certo pseudo “mago católico apostólico romano” (que paradoxo!). Para nossa infelicidade, as traduções (pós Marcelo Motta) dos livros de Crowley, para o português são péssimas. As para o espanhol nem se fala.⁸ Blavatsky e Crowley demonstram o ulterior desenvolvimento da Ciência da Natureza Humana, confirmando que o Esoterismo é o único Conhecimento Verdadeiro sobre Deus, o Universo e o Homem.

Não posso aqui me omitir em tecer alguns comentários sobre a Maçonaria. Infelizmente, nesta Ordem somente vi um grande número de homens alardeando seus “exaltados graus” e bazofiando

As usual, I spoke copiously eloquent and enthusiastic about the latest exploits of Russian and American - arguably the pioneers of the great adventure awaiting us in space, as were the Spanish and Portuguese conquest of the seas centuries atrás¹¹.

At one point in my speech, emphasizing future travel to other planets, and even the distant solar systems, my friend interrupted me and, seriously, remarked: "What makes you think that man should be free enough to reach such achievements, or even if you will be allowed to do it? "

The sudden and unusual observation left me confused. Do not know the answer. Did the man had no free will? We are not free to think and act? Who or what, then, would prevent from achieving your dreams? Indeed, his words loomed enigmatic. Interestingly, reminded me of the famous "estória" Tower of Babel. I saw, in a flash, "God" coming down from heaven, and with thunderous and authoritative cry, "Enough! I will not let the man continue on your adventure. " However, this rapid mental vision, I saw something quite incongruous, even unusual. Outside of his time and place. At the time I could not determine what. But the image remained stubbornly stuck in my mind like a parasite troublesome.

At the time I had started my esoteric studies at a school well known but whose name will decline, respecting my former confreres. Very young and very presumptuous of my "knowledge" obtained at the school, and also excessively inattentive, I went unnoticed what he really wanted me to transmit, without speaking too plainly. So, I lost the opportunity to question him more seriously and to go deeper into the issue. That, of course, would have saved me time and a lot of disappointments in subsequent years.

Maybe, who knows, it was a hidden conhecimentos secretos que, na realidade, não possuem. Todos os Reais Segredos lhes foram velados nos últimos 100 anos. Ante tão lamentável fato, John Yarker, Grão Mestre do Rito para a Inglaterra, escritor, estudioso, cuja cultura, idoneidade, ciência e valor são indiscutíveis e indispensáveis a qualquer estudante sério da Maçonaria, usou, certa vez, as seguintes palavras em relação aos os maçons de sua época: "São cegos guiando cegos"⁹. Isto tem sido reconhecido por outros tantos maçons não certamente os mais insignificantes. A meu ver, a Maçonaria perdeu, ao longo dos anos, muitíssimo de sua antiga posição, autoridade, eficácia e poder de equacionar e resolver os problemas afligindo a humanidade. A Maçonaria atual, com raríssimas exceções, tornou-se uma simples forma destituída de conteúdo interno¹⁰.

A que poderíamos atribuir tão lamentável quadro?

Alguns autores apontam para as absurdas superstições introduzidas em vários Ritos. Outros, em práticas desprovidas de bom-senso e de utilidade no campo da Iniciação.

Meu particular ponto de vista aponta para causas mais íntimas, originadas primeiramente na ignorância, na negligência e na falta de conhecimentos básicos e históricos. Além desses, na massiva infiltração de elementos indesejáveis, ligados, em sua maioria, à correntes comandadas pelas forças desagregadoras inimigas do homem. Provas desse movimento estampam-se no ignóbil documentos, guardado a sete chaves na Loja Mizraim (Paris) no século passado. Refiro-me, aqui, aos famosos, e não menos aterradores, PROTOCOLOS DOS SÁBIOS DE SION, que o maçom José Schorst trouxe a público numa tentativa de dar o alarme da maquiavélica urdidura dos inimigos do Homem e de Deus. Aqui devemos abrir um parêntesis intention to leave me free to pursue its own initiative, the answers related to your observation. Only offered a clue. Implanted a 'worm' in my head. Either way, a clear track, I was a little more attentive and less presumptuous to perceive it. Therefore, it was up to me, follow it or not.

His words caused me deep malaise. Almost physical. It was as if I was a tightrope stretched over a deep chasm and in full darkness. The observation remained in my subconscious as an embryo developing and growing slowly in the womb of his hand. In this case my mind. Only years later, and after several frustrating experiences in the field of "esoteric", is that the account has surfaced with renewed intensity, raising numerous and perplexing questions, whose answers I could not get. The evil increased. The embryo grew. It was as if I had been asleep and dreamed all my life: a sleepwalker decorating concepts and accepting false, completely misrepresented. In the meantime I was happy to read Donald Holmes, Stanislav Grof, Robert Ambelain, Robert Charroux Qixe Cardinale, John Allegro, Burton Russell and several others among historians, psychologists and independent researchers: authors who made me "look" in other directions . In the following years, still in agonizing crisis, redoubled my attention to the words of my friend (now deceased) ¹². Reevaluated all that hitherto had been accepted as truth. I became agnostic. Under cold analysis, as my old beliefs diluted soap bubbles into the wind. New thoughts took shape. The Universe, Man, and even the concept of God, acquired new dimensions - might not be exactly what I had thought. Clearing been opened in confusing and obscure forest where I was lost. Images appeared, grew, changed constantly in shape and color and essence, connecting one to the other as I focused on the medium and the ruler of my friend. Everything is shuffled. The world, as known, collapsed into chaos terrifying. That idea of a universal hierarchy

Deus. Aqui devemos abrir um parêntese para algumas considerações importantes:

Os nazistas se utilizaram dos “Protocolos” como arma contra os judeus. Tentaram demonstrar terem sido estes últimos os autores do documento. Discordamos inteiramente desta versão. Os “Protocolos”, embora indiquem uma clara trama para domínio sionista do mundo, não foram escritos pelos judeus, mas sim por aqueles que procuram acirrar lutas raciais e políticas em nosso mundo. Os judeus jamais foram os autores dos “Protocolos”. Ao que tudo indica foram os jesuítas.

Porém, é igualmente possível que as investigações realizadas, fossem quais fossem as ordens dadas e cumpridas, não tenham chegado a um resultado definitivo quanto a autoria dos “Protocolos”

Cumprir notar que os Estados Unidos chegaram bastante atrasados neste assunto. Foram procedidos por quatro potências mundiais, e uma delas há bastante tempo. Uma cópia dos “Protocolos” foi entregue ao museu Britânico, mediante recibo deste Instituto, datado de 10 de agosto de 1906. Os apontamentos remontam provavelmente ao ano 1896. O primeiro congresso sionista reuniu-se em Basileia no ano 1897.

Recentemente publicou-se o documento na Inglaterra (eu o tenho em português em duas cópias. Uma delas sem indicação da casa publicadora), em circunstâncias que despertaram a atenção pública, apesar do título pouco feliz que recebeu. Editou-o a Casa Eyre e Spottiswood, impressoras oficiais do governo britânico, o que equivaleria, noutro país, a ser impresso na Casa da Moeda. Ante algazarra de imprensa judaica, o “Times” de Londres, criticando a obra, declarou que todos os contra ataques dos judeus se tinham mostrado “insuficientes”.

O referido jornal fez constar que os terrifying. That idea of a universal morality, much vaunted by esotericism, fell to the ground. I trembled before the shock. An axe was laid in the ancient roots rotted. The unease grew overwhelmingly. For the first time in my life I felt really terrified, helpless, frustrated, just as there had never been before. The vision disclosed, in violent commotion caused me: a sickness life, physical and mental. In this view, the man showed up a puppet gangly, unwilling own - a grotesque caricature of what should be in reality. A puppet manipulated by unseen hands, from its origin to the present day. I sensed a scary "shadow" moving behind all the historical facts of our religions, our most cherished beliefs, our ideals, and especially decisions which affirm our being foolishly. Terrified realized how much we have been deceived: a panel liar out of the scenarios painted in the background of our lives, our history, and we breakfasted as if it were real landscape. The Dantesque vision rose before me undisguised: a wall constantly changing as the interests of those who raised and pore brings her - now know - hide the answers sought for so long ... but in places and times wrong. When was the missing piece of the puzzle has adapted perfectly into the overall picture.

Almost on the verge of insanity, I remembered the remark Wednesday, years ago, my friend. Then the light shone, and the image of the Tower of Babel flashed in his real form, without interference from the veils placed before our eyes by Trama. Finally, I had overcome the enemies for a few seconds. However long enough to see and see. That moment remains etched vividly, even today, in my memory. It was a quick look, but enough to understand. The incongruity of the vision that years ago I was unable to determine, showed up, now, terribly clear. I was shaken by a nervous laugh. I had seen clearly from behind the scenes, beyond the Tower of Babel. Understood the terrifying fact that my friend had referred for mincing words. I glimpsed defensores judeus passavam por alto o conteúdo textual destes “Protocolos”, atacavam, em troca, a sua clandestinidade e, para julgar o texto, serviam-se invariavelmente da fórmula: “obra de um criminoso”, etc.

Os “Protocolos” nos obrigam irresistivelmente a repetir estas perguntas: Possuem os judeus um sistema de domínio mundial organizado? Qual é sua política? Como a põem em prática? Em relação a primeira pergunta, devo responder não, muito embora os últimos fatos ocorridos na Palestina e amplamente divulgados pela imprensa escrita e televisada, comecem a me fazer mudar de opinião. Os israelitas atualmente estão empregando, contra os palestinos, os mesmos métodos nazistas usados contra eles. Mas eu ainda prefiro pensar que por detrás de tudo isto está a mão da Trama mexendo os cordéis. A segunda e terceira perguntas está evidente a qualquer um, só que os planos devem provir da Trama. Fim dos parentesis.

Desnecessário seria acrescentar aqui sobre o trágico fim de Jose Schorst, assassinado brutalmente no Egito, dois anos após seu corajoso gesto. Talvez seja este um assunto que deveria ser particularmente discutido pelos Maçons, porque nos Protocolos existe uma séria acusação de que a Maçonaria é um braço da Trama. E a Maçonaria, até hoje, não refutou a acusação. Quem cala consente... Portanto, irei adiante com o tema principal deste trabalho, qual seja: “A Grande Trama”. Embora todos estes assuntos estejam interligados de maneira bastante íntima.

the Weave and fraud developed and intertwining over millions of years against us.

Rightly said my friend, "What makes you think that man is so free enough to reach such achievements, or even if you will be allowed to do so"

I imagine that the first duty of a true researcher is to restore the truth, destroying the lie. Even sta truth be against their personal ideas. We can not tolerate a farce and joke. They can not prevail by more attractive they are, or because they are more comfortable - even in this position paper, our idols are overthrown more expensive. Outside the true history of the human race would become apart of immense imposture, where events, enlarged and embellished by the beliefs or invented by flatterers of the powerful, not to bring the witness of the real facts. Lying below the line of conduct is not the aim of this work.

Few are those who feel angry and indignant against my considerations and iconoclastic analysis of their beliefs ... He will never forgive the word frank, healthy irreverence and thought freed from taboos. But that hardly matters. I do not write to please any of Particularmente eu definiria o Esoterismo como um legado vindo de muito longe... Uma herança recebida pelo homem algum obscuro momento da sua trajetória, não muito bem localizado, e muito menos seriamente pesquisado pelos “doutos” da “Ciência Oficial”. Diria mesmo que o Esoterismo é o que “sobrou”, ou conseguiu chegar até nós, muito deturpado evidentemente, por causas acidentais e por manipulações facciosas e estilhaçado, de grandioso Conhecimento que a milhares de anos, constituía parte do patrimônio comum às várias culturas da Terra.

Durante várias décadas, meus pensamentos e idéias estiveram obscurecidas, embrulhadas e direcionadas aos mais perigosos erros e caminhos tortuosos. Necessitei passar por uma reviravolta existencial, bastante dolorosa, para conseguir “enxergar” aquilo que está visível o tempo todo e para todos bem debaixo de nossos narizes, mas que não queremos ver, simplesmente por medo de seus significados. Existe um temor infantil em “ver” o fato que nos levaria a assumirmos nossas hardly matters. I do not write to please any of the current systems in the world. Quite the contrary. The truth always dislike most unable to consider it. I am aware that trying to wake the sleepers and dreamers, and always an exhausting and dangerous task. If the reader wishes to join the group of sleepy, then close the book and forget ... However, many wish to be agreed. To these I write.

If the idea outlined here are correct, they will prove themselves in the minds of those who study in a non-judgmental. Either way will be of interest as an aspect of truth, and his place will be found in the course of time. They will also lead the student to other important research and discoveries, as was my own case. I am convinced that the research is not yet finished.

Many have asked me if I consider myself a master in Esotericism. The answer is no! Only am, and a small degree and started in an Order little known by the public.

No one can, in good conscience, consider himself a master. Each of us can, of course, have certain skills gained in some specific branches of human activity. But we will always be students. Ever, in any way, we will be learning something - especially with ourselves. Within us there is an inexhaustible source of knowledge and wisdom stored for millions of years of evolution, but which rarely resorted under normal conditions, because the means of achieving this source was forgotten by men. Only an insignificant number of individuals know the secret to achieving this source without difficulty. Only in special cases, even very special one "device" is activated within us, by some means unknown, and the source is reached. Thus, the individual enters the possession of perceptions surpassing those known in the so called normal consciousness.

So we have to be very careful with people saying "masters". In most cases are impostors.

Likewise we must take extreme care with responsabilidades como seres divinos que somos: livres e independentes num Universo sem limites.

Neste contexto, muito devo àquele amigo que, certa vez, deu-me uma sacudidela para me despertar.

Certos dia estávamos, ele e eu, conversando informalmente a respeito da evolução humana, de seu futuro e de seu arrojo na conquista do espaço sideral, e das consequências que, certamente, num futuro bem próximo, modificariam grandemente as estruturas das relações humanas (politico-sociais e, mais acentuadamente, as crenças religiosas) como se torna obvio.

Como de costume, eu falava copiosamente e com eloquente entusiasmo sobre as últimas proezas de russos e norte-americanos – sem dúvida os pioneiros da grande aventura nos aguardando no espaço, como o foram os portugueses e espanhóis na conquista dos mares séculos atrás¹¹.

A certa altura de meu discurso, acentuando futuras viagens a outros planetas, e mesmo a distantes Sistemas Solares, meu amigo interrompeu-me e, seriamente, observou: “O que faz você imaginar que o homem seja livre suficiente para atingir tais conquistas, ou mesmo que ser-lhe-á permitido fazê-lo?”

A brusca e insólita observação deixou-me confuso. Não a soube responder. Por acaso não tinha o homem livre arbítrio? Não somos livres para pensar e agir? Que, ou o que, então, impediria de realizar seus sonhos? Deveras, as palavras dele erguiam-se enigmáticas. Curiosamente, fizeram-me lembrar da célebre “estória” da Torre de Babel. Vi, num lampejo, “Deus” descendo dos Céus, e com tonitroante e autoritária, clamar: “Basta! Não permitirei que o homem prossiga em sua aventura”. Porém, nesta rápida visão mental, vi algo what we read in the Bible translations, or other sacred texts of various religions in the world.

Do not believe the reports in these ancient texts "sacred" are myths and much less "divine revelations" in the sense usually given to the term "divine." To me they are accounts of real events, but totally misrepresented. Described in simple language of the time, employing terms meaning very different things from what we have been led to understand by the same terms today. Therefore, translations of them do not represent what the original writers wished to transmit in the times they were written. We must remember, for example, that the biblical texts were copied from other ancient texts, adapted to Hebrew religious beliefs. What translators, through ignorance of the original language, or malice, or because they personally witnessed the facts, not able to give their translations means unique, or could not afford to do so, because the languages used did not have the exact terms for such.

One example: in the Hindu epic, written thousands of years ago, we find reference to "vimanas", a word usually translated as coach. This translation was found to be wrong. The word "vimana" used in several senses, eg, "fire in the air", "calculator of the day" or "Creator of heaven" presents, in all its variations, compared with the extent of the firmament and its dimensions. 17:59 But in the passages of the "Yajurveda", and in subsequent sections of the original, "Vimana" figure unequivocally as "flying vehicle" (See "Flying Machines in Ancient India", Prof. Dileep Dr. Kumar Kanjilal). It should have been necessary if one skilled in this ancient Sanskrit natural translation to be revealed. (Incidentally, the word "prove" has been misappropriated. Revedlar has originally the sense of showing, discover, manifest. Quite the contrary ... I mean "Ensuring double", "hide twice" such as re-count, re-compete, etc.).

Another curious description, and brings

Foram, nesta rápida visão mental, vi algo bastante incongruente, insólito mesmo. Fora de seu tempo e lugar. No momento não consegui determinar o que. Mas, a imagem permaneceu teimosamente grudada em minha mente como um parasita incomodativo.

Na época, eu havia iniciado meus estudos esotéricos em uma escola bem conhecida, mas cujo nome não declinarei, respeitando meus antigos confrades.

Muito jovem, e bastante presunçoso de meus “conhecimentos”, obtidos naquela escola, e também excessivamente desatento, me passou despercebido o que realmente ele desejara me transmitir, sem falar demasiadamente claro. Assim, perdi a oportunidade de questiona-lo mais seriamente e de ir mais fundo na questão. O que, obviamente, me teria poupado tempo e uma série de decepções nos anos subsequentes.

Talvez, quem sabe?, fosse sua oculta intenção deixar-me livre para procurar, por iniciativa própria, as respostas ligadas à sua observação. Somente uma pista oferecera. Implantara uma “minhoca” em minha cabeça. De qualquer forma, uma pista clara, se eu fosse um pouco mais atento e menos presunçoso para percebê-la. Portanto, cabia a mim, segui-la ou não.

As palavras dele causaram-me profundo mal estar. Quase físico. Era como se eu estivesse numa corda bamba estendida sobre um profundo abismo e em plena escuridão. A observação permaneceu, em meu subconsciente, tal como um embrião desenvolvendo-se e crescendo lentamente no útero de sua mão. No presente caso minha mente. Somente anos mais tarde, após várias e frustrante experiências no campo do “esoterismo”, é que a consideração veio à tona com redobrada intensidade, suscitando inúmeras e desconcertantes interrogações, cujas respostas eu não

Another curious description, and brings amazement, found in the "Puranas". In this book we find the storytelling of Assuras. According to the text, this people reached a civilization unparalleled in the past (and perhaps present). Built three large cities. A soil, copper; another, floating above the ground, the silver, and the third, located in the "great heights", was gold. Moreover, Assuras, dressed in skintight costumes, something like silk, could survive - according to reports from the Puranas - for a long time under the ocean water without difficulty. What does this mean? I think that these descriptions are simple enough to make us think seriously. This feat of Assuras, remember that the other "God Oannes" (half fish, half man) who lived under water during the night and day came ashore to teach men the arts and sciences. Looking at the representations of this "god", which reached us, observe, unbelievers, the fact that it uses a curious garb eerily similar to the current dive.

On our side of the world, ie, in the West, we see a biblical prophets being "swallowed by a whale" and then exit the "belly" of the animal safely. What we really want to convey in this reports?

We read in Genesis that "The Lord God confused the languages of men spreading them everywhere," because they were "building a tower to reach heaven." We agree that this biblical (and many others) exists - without atinarmos what - the description of events observed by our ancestors without proper understanding of what really happened. And very important events that happened thousands of years ago, registered under the religious point of view or superstitious and unintelligible to us by the ineffectiveness of the terms used to register them. This is something unusual for the ancient inhabitants of the earth, something that escaped entirely understanding them. Then they used words describing objects and events "similar" to what actually witnessed.

consegui obter. O mal aumentou. O embrião cresceu. Era como se eu estivesse dormindo e sonhando durante toda minha vida: um sonâmbulo decorando e aceitando conceitos falsos, inteiramente deturpado.

Neste meio-tempo tive a felicidade de ler Donald Holmes, Stanislav Grof, Robert Ambelain, Robert Charroux, Qixé Cardinale, John Allegro, Burton Russell e vários outros entre historiadores, psicólogos e pesquisadores independentes: autores que me fizeram "Olhar" em outras direções.

Nos anos seguintes, ainda na angustiada crise, redobrei minha atenção às palavras de meu amigo (hoje falecido)¹². Reavaliei tudo quanto até então houvera aceito como verdade. Tornei-me agnóstico. Sob fria análise, minhas antigas crenças diluíram-se como bolas de sabão ao vento. Novos pensamentos tomaram corpo. O Universo, o Homem, e mesmo o conceito de Deus, adquiriram novas dimensões – talvez não fossem exatamente aquilo que eu julgara ser. Clareira foram abertas na confusa e obscura floresta em que eu estava perdido. Imagens apareciam, cresciam, mudavam constantemente em forma, e cor e essência, conectando-se uma a outras na medida em que eu as focalizava e as media pela régua de meu amigo. Tudo se embaralhava. O mundo, como o conhecera, desmoronava num caos aterrador. Aquela idéia de uma hierarquia universal, tão apregoada pelo esoterismo, caía por terra. Tremi ante o choque provocado. Um machado fora posto nas antigas raízes apodrecidas. O mal estar crescia avassaladoramente. Pela primeira vez na vida senti-me realmente atemorizado, impotente, frustrado, só, como jamais houvera antes. A visão descortinada, causou-me violenta comoção: uma náusea vida, física e mental. Nesta visão, o homem mostrava-se uma marionete desencadeada, com

Following this clue, I urge everyone to consider what they understand a man of the twelfth century, we spoke to him about the television. Or, if possible, we showed them one working. How such a man would react before this event? Course would panic before our "magic." Would tell his friends that he saw men, horses, huge towers, carriages strange, moving without horses, etc., And all this in a small box. If he describe his experiences, we would interpret as, centuries later, the description of a "magic box, showing men, towers, powered horseless carriages, etc? Imagine now that we were one of those friends of the visionary. Of course we would interpret such a description as the vision of a lunatic, or if we were religious, being a "divine revelation" to which we would not have any explanation, unless that faith in miracles. Note, too, that this twelfth century would not have the slightest idea what this box was described by our friend, that is, a television, because television would be invented only centuries later, and our mind still would not be in possession of this knowledge so commonplace today, and for this very reason, there would be in our vocabulary the word "television." The same reasoning can be considered in relation to the telephone, the airplane, the electric light, the great ocean liners, the submarines, the wetsuit, to satellites, to the computer, rockets, etc.. We also read the biblical texts (and others of course) we take into account that some of the scribes of these books used in certain passages a coded language to hide certain knowledge ... 13

se uma marionete desengonçada, sem vontade própria – uma grotesca caricatura do que deveria ser na realidade. Um boneco manipulado por mãos invisíveis, desde sua origem até os dias atuais. Eu pressentia uma assustadora “sombra” movendo-se por detrás de todos os fatos históricos, de nossas religiões, de nossas mais queridas crenças, de nossos ideais e, principalmente, de decisões as quais afirmamos tolamente serem nossas. Aterrorizado percebi o quanto temos sido enganados: um painel mentiroso fora pintado no fundo do cenário de nossas vidas, de nossa história, e nós o tomávamos como se fosse a paisagem real. A dantesca visão erguia-se à minha frente, sem disfarces: uma muralha mudando constantemente na medida dos interesses daqueles que a ergueram e, poro traz dela – agora o sabia – escondiam-se as respostas procuradas por tanto tempo... mas em lugares e tempos errados. Foi quando a peça que faltava no quebra-cabeça adaptou-se perfeitamente no quadro geral.

Quase à beira da demência, lembrei-me da observação feia, anos atrás, por meu amigo. Então, a Luz brilhou e a imagem da Torre de Babel cintilou em sua real forma, sem interferências dos véus colocados ante nossos olhos pela Trama. Finalmente, eu havia superado os inimigos por alguns segundos. Todavia o tempo suficiente para ver e enxergar. Aquele momento permanece gravado vivamente, e até hoje, em minha memória. Fora uma rápida olhada, mas suficiente para compreender. A incongruência da visão que, anos atrás eu fora incapaz de determinar, mostrava-se, agora, terrivelmente clara. Fui sacudido por uma gargalhada nervosa. Eu vira claramente por detrás dos bastidores, além da Torre de Babel. Compreendi a aterradora verdade a que meu amigo se referira por meias palavras. Vislumbrei a Trama e a Fraude desenvolvidas e se entrelaçando

Some time ago, when I wrote an article on the Qabalah, it became necessary to add to it a note towards better understanding on the part of readers, that even the Qabalah as disclosed in several popular books, has been suffering from an evil action Trama .
He knew that, as a rule, it had always been avoided by others fearful of injuring their doctrines of "esoteric currents", which belonged - or see crumbling theories supporting these currents. Discovered, too, that many sectors "Masonic" concealed their knowledge of the fraud, especially with regard to the real origins of Roman Catholicism, and perhaps of Freemasonry itself. Theosophists avoided even get clearly in trouble, hiding it, even if this action smite
the Theosophical Essence.

Although acomodática can understand the stance of these people, I can not excuse it by cowardice demonstrated.

Freed from the chains of religious and esoteric my youth, it did not take long to realize that the Weave infiltrated in almost all sectors of human life, as stated by Gerard Gorg: "I have a vision of a huge hoax in all steps of history in all levels of our civilization. The world is condemned to live under the rule of a caste which I call The Powers ".

I'd be inclined to agree entirely with Gerard Gorg, not his pessimism. The world is not irretrievably doomed. The world can still get rid of these "powers", this Trama, this mystification. But, of course, will not be an easy task, and solved through prayer or pseudo-esoteric practices.

Although modern man concerned with his strenuous struggle for survival in the context
as chaotic and horrific it became our world, does not have the slightest suspicion of the considerações e análises iconoclastas de suas crenças... Jamais ele perdoam a palavra franca, a irreverência salutar e o pensamento liberto de tabus. Mas isto pouco importa. Não escrevo para agradar quaisquer correntes dos sistemas existentes no mundo. Muito pelo contrário. A verdade sempre desagrada a maioria dos incapazes de considera-la. Não ignoro que tentar acordar os dorminhocos e sonhadores e sempre uma tarefa exaustante e perigosa. Se o leitor deseja fazer parte do grupo dos sonolentos, então feche este livro e o esqueça... Entretanto, muitos desejam ser acordados. A estes eu escrevo.

Se as idéias aqui expostas são corretas, elas se provarão por si mesmas nas mentes daqueles que a estudarem de maneira não preconceituosa. De qualquer forma serão de interesse como um aspecto da verdade, e seu lugar certo será encontrado no curso do tempo. Elas poderão também liderar o estudante à outras importantes pesquisas e descobertas, como foi o meu próprio caso. Estou convencido que a pesquisa ainda não está terminada.

Muitos me têm perguntado se me considero um Mestre em Esoterismo. A resposta é não! Somente sou, e num grau bem diminuto, iniciado em uma Ordem pouco conhecida pelo público.

Ninguém pode, em sua consciência, considerar-se um Mestre. Cada um de nós poderá, evidentemente, apresentar certas habilidades conquistadas em alguns específicos ramos da atividade humana. Porém sempre seremos estudantes. Sempre, e de qualquer forma, estaremos aprendendo algo – principalmente conosco mesmo. Dentro de nós existe uma fonte inesgotável de conhecimentos e sabedoria, guardados durante milhões de anos de evolução, mas a qual raramente recorremos em condições normais, porque o meio de alcançar esta fonte foi esquecida pelos homens.

works of the weave around them, this is strong evidence emerging before our eyes every moment : legends, myths, riddles, endless wars, and a flood of unusual findings in all corners of the planet, pointing in one direction. However, progress is very slow and the barriers erected very large, precisely due to the fact that we have been so conditioned and not give any attention to things and events outside everyday, off the swings of the stock market, or inflation, or defeat of our football team, or political speeches (this so called democracy), or a newscast superficial directed by interests that do not like our population. We are used to focus our attention to a bunch of frivolous things, without any real meaning in our existence. Remain blind and deaf to the terrible lie in which we operate. And on every occasion in which someone more observant, atina with this and talking openly about it. Immediate vassals of the Weave into action, moving its arms against the "heretic". The person thus situated, is seen isolated, persecuted, classified as demented, accused of subversion of the order, if not send behind bars, or a madhouse, as happened with Wilhelm Reich, demeaning or death, as in case of Giordano Bruno, Galileo, and several others. And all these crimes committed hideously cold and cynical in the name of "god" of "religion", "democracy", the "morals" or any other lame excuse, which is accepted by a majority, even without being understood.

However, for the wrath of Trama, Fraud and his helpers (the anti-human and useful idiots), we all, without exception, keep in certain deeper levels of our consciousness, the knowledge of these facts and the necessary keys to the secrets involving our origins and because of the Weave. Because this knowledge is transmitted continuously from father to son, from generation to generation through genetic inheritance. Vague memories of somewhere (not necessarily the Earth) or time (not Somente um ínfimo número de indivíduos conhecem o segredo de atingir esta fonte sem maiores dificuldades. Somente em casos especiais, muito especiais mesmo, um “dispositivo” é ativado em nosso interior, por algum meio desconhecido, e a fonte é alcançada. Assim, o indivíduo entra na posse de percepções ultrapassando aquelas conhecidas no estado, assim chamado, normal de consciência.

Portanto, temos que ter muito cuidado com pessoas se dizendo “mestres”. Na maior parte dos casos são impostores.

Da mesma forma devemos tomar cuidado extremo com o que lemos nas traduções bíblicas, ou em outros textos sagrados das várias religiões existentes no mundo.

Não creio que os relatos nestes antigos textos “sagrados” sejam mitos e, muito menos, “revelações divinas” no sentido dado normalmente ao termo “divino”. Para mim eles constituem relatos de acontecimentos reais, mas totalmente deturpado. Descritos na linguagem simples da época, empregando termos significando coisas bastante diferentes das que temos sido levados a compreender pelos mesmos termos atualmente. Portanto, as traduções deles não representam aquilo que seus escritores originais desejaram transmitir nos tempos em que foram escritos. Devemos nos lembrar, por exemplo, que os textos bíblicos foram copiados de outros textos mais antigos, adaptados às crenças religiosas hebraicas. Que tradutores, por ignorância da língua original, ou por malícia, ou porque não presenciaram os fatos pessoalmente, não souberam dar às traduções o seu significado original, ou não tinham meios de fazê-lo, porque as línguas usadas não possuíam os termos exatos para tal.

Vamos a um exemplo: nos épicos hindús, escritos Há milhares de anos, encontramos referência à “divindade” que necessarily in the personal past) that were free and happy, "a time when the 'gods' walked the earth (perhaps ourselves). And it is exactly this sentiment, located so deep in our hearts, that religions and fraternities "esoteric" take advantage to snatch the poor man, beckoning him with promises to meet again in their temples and shops, the return path to that paradise "lost" but it actually does not lie, lie and never will, a hypothetical heaven, the astral world, etc.. That existed, and still exists within man himself, and right here on earth at this very moment.

As the man to learn how to enter password in the level of these genetic memories, restoring them consciously, then the man will get the keys to your own true past history and its future destiny, because one thing is connected to another.

That is how I situate and understand the practices of meditation, invocation, and other processes for thousands of years known to Initiates: effective means of opening and expansion of our minds, leading us to these levels of consciousness. So Trama attempts by all possible means, erode these practices, mixing them with superstitions, etc.. Therefore, people even considered among the most intelligent, have so much trouble, and even disgust, acceptance of correct methods and practices contrary to those so-called "official".

Galileo, and more recently Teilhard de Chardin, suffered the consequences of this unprecedented aversion, the different - one in science and one in the field of religion - and the process will not end with them. Stanislav Grof said: "a new truth triumphs not because convince his opponents, making them see the light, but because eventually die, and a new generation grows up familiar with them."

The wise words of Grof may seem naysayers, but they clearly demonstrate the facts as they are in our "scientific society". We are conditioned not to accept anything encontramos referência as "vimanas"; uma palavra normalmente traduzida por carruagem. Esta tradução foi descoberta estar errada. A palavra "vimana", usada em vários sentidos como, por exemplo, "fogo no ar", "calculador do dia" ou "criador do céu", apresenta, em todas suas derivações, relação com a extensão do firmamento e suas dimensões. Mas nas passagens 17.59 do "Yajurdeva", e nos trechos subsequentes do original, "Vimana" figura inequivocamente como "veículo voador" (Ver "Maquinas Voadoras na Índia Antiga", do Prof. Dr. Dillep Kumar Kanjilal). Note-se ter sido necessário um especialista na antiga Sânscrita para que esta singular tradução fosse revelada. (A propósito, a palavra "revelar" tem sido usada de maneira equivocada. Revedlar não tem, originalmente, o sentido de mostrar, descobrir, manifestar. Muito pelo contrário... Quer dizer "Velar duplamente", "ocultar duas vezes", tal como re-contar, re-petir, etc.).

Outra descrição curiosa, e que nos traz espanto, encontramos nos "Puranas". Neste livro encontramos a narração da história dos Assuras. Segundo o texto, este povo atingiu uma civilização sem paralelos no passado (e, talvez no presente). Construíram três grandes cidades. Uma no solo, de cobre; outra, flutuando acima do solo, de prata; e a terceira, localizada nas "grandes alturas", era de ouro. Além disso, os Assuras, vestidos em trajes colantes, algo parecido com seda, podiam sobreviver – segundo o relato dos Puranas – durante muito tempo sob as águas oceânicas sem dificuldades. O que quer isto dizer? Julgo que estas simples descrições sejam o bastante para nos fazer pensar seriamente. Esta proeza dos Assuras, lembra aquela outra do "Deus Oannes" (metade peixe, metade homem) que vivia sob as águas durante a noite, e de dia vinha à terra firme ensinar aos homens as artes e as ciências. Olhando as representações desse "deus", we are conditioned not to accept anything that flee the standards. And when someone "skyscraper" these patterns, we discriminate pestering your life. It was ever thus, and thus will be for a long time.

We learn to seek the truth exactly where it is not. Blindly rely on any statement coming from groups considered infallible - especially in the case of priests, ministers, psychics, gurus, politicians, etc.. There is power in driving the acceptance of dead theories, advocated by these "illustrious gentlemen" ..

The human being has been, and still is, one dependent condition, suitable for handling direct and indirect. Here's the harsh reality: "Man is the great wrong of the Cosmos." Where can we find the first cause of this human tendency? Why man bows to the field of induction? Why carry the feeling that it is an inferior being? The man introduces himself as the only animal obeying what they know. The only being frightened fleeing a confrontation with reality. The only being who panics before death. And yet, all religions claim that death is nothing more than a "pass" to another better world. Says the man believe in the afterlife for the soul, where she will be happier than I was here on earth, and cry away when their loved ones (not even your loved ones) die. Man has always accepted, in practice the wisdom call stating an evil worth more than a well-known unknown. And in this way - that is not the way, but one astray - the individual becomes truly free, to society, an outcast, an unwanted, persecuted and forced silence of ostracism. So it has been for centuries, and it seems to be so for many centuries even if we fail to achieve a new kind of consciousness.

Most of humanity says that the human being was made by "god" to worship him and obey him, to bow before his infinite majesty. What a great daffodil is this "god". What a great masturbation is this deity.

Could it be that people believe that? From what I've seen, the answer is no! But fear to que chegaram até nós, observamos , incrédulos, o fato dele usar uma curiosa roupagem estranhamente parecida aos equipamentos de mergulho atuais.

Do nosso lado do mundo, isto é, no Ocidente, vemos um dos profetas bíblicos ser “engolido por uma baleia” e depois sair do “buche” do animal são e salvo. O que realmente este relatos nos quer transmitir?

Lemos no Gênesis, que “O Senhor Deus confundiu os idiomas dos homens espalhando-os por toda parte”, porque eles estavam “construindo uma Torre para atingir o céu”. Devemos convir que neste relato bíblico (e em muitos outros) existe – sem atinarmos o que – a descrição de eventos observados por nossos ancestrais sem a devida compreensão do que ocorria realmente. Eventos muito importantes e acontecidos há milhares de anos atrás, registrados sob o ponto de vista religioso ou supersticioso e ininteligíveis para nós pela ineficácia dos termos usados para registrá-los. Isto é, alguma coisa fora do normal para os antigos habitantes da Terra, algo que fugia inteiramente da compreensão deles. Então usaram palavras descrevendo objetos e acontecimentos “parecidos” com o que realmente presenciaram.

Seguindo esta pista, exorto a todos considerarem o que entenderia um homem do Século XII, se lhe falássemos a respeito da televisão. Ou, se fosse possível, lhes mostrássemos uma funcionando. Como reagiria tal homem antes este acontecimento? Naturalmente entraria em pânico perante nossa “magia”. Diria a seus amigos que viu homens, cavalos, torres imensas, carruagens estranhas, movendo-se sem cavalos, etc., e tudo isto dentro de uma caixa pequena. Se ele descrevesse suas experiências, como nós interpretaríamos, séculos depois, a descrição de “uma caixa mágica, mostrando homens, torres, carruagens introduce ourselves as "atheists" (ie, atheists regarding this kind of "god") makes us hypocrites, and we we mask of "believers". Therefore, certain men to invoke the presence of "God", the aid of the "divine powers", and sometimes not divine, to do the most abominable and revolting acts. This represents an atavism inherited from longtime, the source of our religions. For it is not true that Yaveh ordered the killing of children and the rape of virgins? The firstborn of the enemies of the Jews were always passed to the sword. See, for example, what happened with the Egyptians and caananitas.

And why? Because this "god" (which is not "God", but an imitation of him. Gnostics called him Dermiurgo) is crazy. It is a monstrous vampire. Is passed by the Divinity Major, when after all is just a travesty. The religion he created is a debased form of Religion Original, and this menstruum contributed to distorting the man in his evolutionary journey, because this evolution "hindered" his plans - or better said "them".

The people who "served" (this verb - serve - are employed in the original Hebrew, with the connotation of "servant", worker, etc..) To "God" Hebrew simply had to tilt his head to his will, whether it " God "wants to send him good or evil. This attitude servant of slaves in inherited through the Creed of the Roman Church .. The "god" Enki Babylonian amused by this, and Yaveh imitated very well (of course was the same "god" in a different guise). In fact, this trend comes from far far more in time and space. The manipulation that can be located in time and space, is just a mere reflection of another unfathomable, hidden from our eyes, affecting our immediate reality, our notions of good and evil, our ideas of divinity, etc..

movidas sem cavalos, etc? Imagine-se agora que nós fossemos um desses amigos do visionário. Claro está que interpretaríamos uma tal descrição como sendo a visão de um lunático ou, se fôssemos religiosos, sendo uma “revelação divina”, para a qual não teríamos qualquer explicação, a não ser aquela da fé em milagres. Observe-se, também, que neste Século XII não teríamos a menor idéia do que fosse esta caixa descrita por nosso amigo, isto é, uma televisão, porque a televisão somente viria a ser inventada séculos mais tarde, e nossa mente ainda não estaria na posse deste conhecimento tão corriqueiro hoje em dia e, por esta razão mesma, não haveria em nosso vocabulário a palavra “televisão”. O mesmo raciocínio pode ser considerado em relação ao telefone, ao avião, à luz elétrica, aos grandes transatlânticos, aos submarinos, a roupa de mergulho, aos satélites, ao computador, aos foguetes, etc.

Devemos, também, aos lermos os textos bíblicos (e outros, evidentemente) tomarmos em consideração que, alguns dos escribas destes livros usavam, em certas passagens, uma linguagem cifrada, para ocultar certos conhecimentos...13

Finding one of the possible origins of the fraud, said Mr Bentham that "destruction of the error is extremely difficult when it has its roots in the language." The words of this distinguished researcher led me to puzzle out passages where, I'm sure, many words and even whole sentences, lost their original meanings.

Take, quickly, the example of the Tower of Babel.

We are told that in Babylon (Babylon, in Hebrew, which translates as "The Gateway to the Solar Gods") "The Lord God confused the languages of the peoples Tosos". The simplistic story becomes, for me, a fallacious explanation of the differences between the languages of the various peoples of the earth. An explanation child. Looking up, however, on the other hand, highlights the fact that the most effective means of communication - at least among us humans - is the spoken and written language. And that without the proper use of it, it becomes difficult any understanding between us.

Also, I have noticed many controversies and wars themselves, derive the problem of communication, that litigants use the same words to say something different, and sometimes, different words for the same things. I have personal experience of the fact of how we use the same word meaning different things.

When I was a child, I was quite confused to hear my father say that "the table" director of the firm where he worked had chosen for a trip to São Paulo. In my childishness could not fathom how a "table" would give orders (or speak) to my father. This is just one of thousands of examples of how we can misinterpret the meaning of words. Just years ago, if some guy said to be dating a "cat" could be very misunderstood by your friends and neighbors. All interpret the phrase as if he was crazy, or making deals with some "she-devil", one of whose symbols is a cat. Likewise how we know that the word "daimone" wants simply mean, in Greek, "guardian angel or guardian angel," and in this sense was used in Ancient Greece. (Socrates, constantly cited his "daimone"). The term "heretic" originally posed no offense or compliance. The word derives from the Greek "Haerens" meaning an act of choice: Josephus, the Jewish historian of the Century I, used the word to refer to a party or a sect, without intention or disparagement. To St. Paul in Acts 26, 5, used the term in this sense.

Imagine, therefore, what should have happened when the biblical texts (and older ones) were translated by different people than the Jews, without proper understanding of the original meanings of the words therein. Add to this the fact that the Pentateuch was written thousands of years ago, and in a coded language, symbolic. And besides, summarizes "stories" and specific traditions of people older than the Hebrews. Now imagine what might have happened with translations of ancient texts still written in languages almost entirely forgotten (like hieroglyphics, for example), but it served to give body to the biblical texts. Languages highly technical encrypted and only understood by an elite of priests and, again, is the case of hieroglyphs (ie "sacred glyphs"). Let us also in mind that the problem will be even more pronounced when the "translator" incompetent were chosen for the position to perform these translations (and in many cases for artigo sobre a Qabalah, tornou-se necessário acrescentar-lhe uma nota no sentido de melhor entendimento, por parte dos leitores, que mesmo a Qabalah como divulgada em vários livros populares, vem sofrendo uma maléfica ação da Trama.

Sabia que, via de regra, o assunto sempre fora evitado por outros autores temerosos de ferirem as doutrinas das “correntes esotéricas”, as quais pertenciam – ou de verem ruir teorias sustentando essas correntes. Descobriria, também, que inúmeros setores “maçônicos” ocultavam seus conhecimentos sobre a Fraude, principalmente no concernente às reais origens do Catolicismo Romano e, quiçá, da própria Maçonaria. Que mesmo teosofistas evitavam entrar claramente no problema, ocultando-o, mesmo que com esta ação ferissem a Essência Teosófica.

Muito embora possa compreender a acomodática postura desta gente, não posso desculpa-la pela covardia demonstrada.

Liberto das cadeias esotéricas e religiosas de minha juventude, não demorou muito para perceber que a Trama se infiltrara em quase todos os setores da vida humana, como declarado por Gerard Gorg: “ Eu tenho a visão de uma mistificação imensa em todos os degraus da História, em todos os níveis de nossa civilização. O mundo está condenado a viver sob o domínio de uma casta que eu chamarei de Os Poderes”.

Eu estaria inclinado a concordar inteiramente com Gerard Gorg, não fosse seu pessimismo. O mundo não está irremediavelmente condenado. O mundo ainda pode se libertar destes “Poderes”, desta Trama, desta mistificação. Mas, evidentemente, não será uma tarefa fácil, ou resolvida mediante rezas ou das práticas pseudo-esotéricas.

Se bem que o homem moderno, preocupado com sua extenuante luta pela sobrevivência no contexto tão caótico e interpretation). Let us remember that the Old Testament was originally written in Aramaic characters on footwear (whose letters, each one by itself, has a symbolic meaning). Moreover, the language of Moses was Egyptian, not Hebrew, which emerged only centuries later. We must also remember that before the Bible was translated into modern languages, she passed the Greek and Latin. It is necessary to bear in mind that the Hebrew people was under slavery and influences of Egyptian society over four centuries. And Moses was an Egyptian prince, something that many people pretend not to know. Let us add here also that shortly after the Egyptian captivity, the Hebrew people fell under Babylonian captivity (597 BC) until the Persians libertaram.¹⁴

Returning the Temple treasures.

We can imagine that at this time how many translation errors were committed. How many errors in interpretation have been imposed, leading us to the interpretations truncated, distorted and wrong? And all this without taking into account the political and religious leanings of the translator (or translators) that with only one "fell swoop" could give scriptures trends according to your ideas and beliefs.

By the legend of the Tower of Babel, I realized how much evidence is alarming the degree of deformation of the human mind for centuries of religious attributions, already resulting almost impossible to grasp the meaning of this mess established by "god", and why he created it, if is that it was God (With capital "D") the creator of this linguistic confusion.

I will not dwell on analyzing this great "slutty" divinity. Far from me such boldness. However, it becomes more than obvious to any rudimentary intelligence, the "divine machination", resulting in the inability to reach some day to realize our true situation and, from that, we start calling things by their real name; understand its real meaning, their motives and even their place in our existence.

atroz em que se tornou nosso mundo, não possui a mínima desconfiança das obras da Trama à sua volta, fortes indícios desta emergem aos nossos olhos a cada instante: lendas, mitos, enigmas, guerras sem fim, e uma avalanche de insólitas descobertas em todos os cantos do planeta, apontando numa só direção. Entretanto, o progresso é muito lento e os obstáculos erguidos muito grandes, precisamente devido ao fato de termos sido tão condicionados e de não darmos a menor atenção às coisas e eventos fora do cotidiano, fora das oscilações da bolsa de valores, ou da inflação, ou derrota de nosso time de futebol, ou do discursos políticos (nesta, assim chamada democracia), ou de um noticiário superficial dirigido pelos interesses que não os nossos como população. Estamos acostumados a focalizar nossa atenção para um amontoado de coisas fúteis, sem qualquer significado em nossa real existência. Permanecemos cegos e surdos à terrível mentira em que estamos inseridos. E em toda ocasião na qual alguém, mais observador, atina com isto e fala abertamente a respeito. De imediato os vassalos da Trama entram em ação, movimentando seus tentáculos contra o "herege". A pessoa, assim localizada, se vê isolada, perseguida, classificada como demente, acusada de subversão da ordem, quando não a enviam para trás das grades, ou para um manicômio, como aconteceu com Wilhem Reich, ou para a morte aviltante, como no caso de Giordano Bruno, Galileu e vários outros. E todos estes crimes hediondamente praticados fria e cinicamente em nome de "deus", da "religião", da "democracia", dos "bons costumes", ou qualquer outra desculpa esfarrapada, as quais são aceitas, por uma maioria, mesmo sem serem compreendidas.

This whole issue brings me to another consideration: what's the point, so we try to understand? What good religions say that people need to irmanarem up, they understood, if the very "God" has determined that this was not done, by confusing the languages at Babel. We will be going against some "divine?" The reader has already considered this aspect of the question?

Being dynamic, the language mutates over time. Consequently, if it is not properly used, updated, obeying these mutations temporal (and even spatial), our ability to communicate will be affected, will become poor by giving rise to no understanding of what we speak or write by others. The words change meaning, meanings that sometimes have nothing to do with the original've tried reading the letter to the King of Portugal walks, informing him of the discovery of Brazilian lands? It's terribly difficult to understand it the first reading. Note that only 492 years separate us from these events. Imagine what happened in the space of a thousand years. What was desired to humanos e idiotas úteis), todos nós, sem exceção, guardamos, em certos níveis mais profundos de nossas consciências, o conhecimento desses fatos e as necessárias chaves dos segredos envolvendo nossas origens e o porque da Trama. Pois este conhecimento é transmitido ininterruptamente de pai para filho, de geração para geração, através da herança genética. Vagas lembranças de algum lugar (não necessariamente a Terra) ou época (não necessariamente no passado pessoal) em que éramos livres e felizes: “uma época em que os ‘deuses’ andavam sobre a Terra (talvez nós mesmos). E é exatamente este sentimento, localizado tão profundamente em nossos corações, que as religiões e as fraternidades “esotéricas” se aproveitam para abocanhar o pobre coitado, acenando-lhe com promessas de reencontrar, em seus templos e lojas, o caminho de retorno àquele paraíso “perdido” mas que, na verdade, não se situa, e jamais situar-se-á, num hipotético céu, mundo astral, etc. Que existiu, e ainda existe, dentro do próprio homem, e aqui mesmo na Terra, neste momento mesmo.

A medida que o homem senha a aprender como penetrar no nível dessas lembranças genéticas, restaurando-as conscientemente, então, o homem obterá as chaves de sua própria e verdadeira história passada e seu destino futuro, pois uma coisa está ligada à outra.

Eis aí como situo e entendo as práticas de meditação, de invocação, e outros processos há milhares de anos conhecidos por Iniciados: meios eficazes de abertura e ampliação de nossas mentes, nos conduzindo à estes níveis de consciência. Por isso a Trama procura, por todos os meios possíveis, desvirtuar essas práticas, misturando-as com superstições, etc. Por conseguinte, pessoas, mesmo consideradas entre as mais inteligentes, têm tanta dificuldade e communicate lost all meaning for us. This obviously creates serious obstacles to accurate historical knowledge 15. It took a genius like Champollion arise that hieroglyphics were "translated". We take into account that the hieroglyphs "translated" by the French scholar, and used as a key to the other translations subsequent mortuary papyri and inscriptions, belonged to the Ptolemaic Period, when the Egyptian civilization was in full decay under the influence of Greek culture, and consequently, their traditions almost disappeared. Even the Egyptians Century I understand the language and writing of their ancestors, because the language used at this time was the Coptic. The language of the ancient people inhabiting the banks of the Nile was lost forever. We only have speculation about. Specifically, the pronunciation of the words spoken today are embedded in these speculations. Simply, we do not have the slightest knowledge of how they pronounced the. And, by the way, was a written purely symbolic. We do not really know if our translations are correct. Moreover, the glyphs used in the burial tombs of the ancient Egyptians are very many examples of writing encrypted: secret codes to obscure a message or a lesson to those who had not allowed to meet him. The same happens with the biblical accounts, especially the Old Testament. As an example we can report that the word Ariel (the name of an "angel") comes from ARI (lion or fire) - yra - and it (AI = God). Ariel is then the Lion of God or the God of Fire. How many know that means Cherub Winged Bull, Cherub and being its plural and therefore, the Cherubim are Winged Bulls? This means that the Entry of Eden is guarded by a Winged Bull and armed with a sword. The picture is totally different from what we have to an "angel". Moreover, the word "angel" used in the Christian Bible, comes from the Greek word "angelos" which means "messenger" - one who brings mais inteligentes, com tanta amabilidade, e mesmo aversão, na aceitação de métodos corretos, e de práticas contrárias àquelas ditas “oficiais”.

Galileu, e mais recentemente Teilhard de Cardin, sofreram as consequências desta aversão ao inédito, ao diferente – um no campo da ciência e o outro no campo da religião – e o processo não terminará com eles.

Disse Stanislav Grof : “ uma nova verdade triunfa não porque convença seus opositores, fazendo-os ver a luz, mas porque eventualmente morrem, e uma nova geração cresce familiarizando-se com elas.”

As sábias palavras de Grof podem parecer negativistas, mas elas demonstram claramente os fatos como são em nossa “sociedade científica”. Estamos condicionados a não aceitarmos nada que fuja aos padrões estabelecidos. E quando alguém “arranha” estes padrões, nós o discriminamos infernizando sua vida. Sempre foi assim, e assim será ainda por muito tempo.

Nós aprendemos a procurar a verdade exatamente onde ela não está. Confiamos cegamente em qualquer afirmativa vinda de grupos considerados infalíveis – principalmente em se tratando de padres, pastores, médiuns, gurus, políticos, etc. Existe um poder nos conduzindo à aceitação de teorias mortas, preconizadas por estes “ilustríssimos senhores”..

O ser humano tem sido, e ainda o é, um condicionado dependente, propício à manipulação direta e indireta. Eis a dura realidade: “O Homem é o grande enganado do Cosmos”.

Onde podemos localizar a causa primeira desta tendência humana? Por que o homem se curva ao domínio da indução? Por que carrega o sentimento de que é um ser inferior? O homem apresenta-se como o único animal obedecendo aquilo que desconhece. O único ser que foge mean messenger. One who brings messages from God. However, the Hebrew word is "malakh", which means "dark side" of God. Within this same issue highlight the word demon comes from the Greek daimonos, ie "Angel Protector".

If the language confusion and misunderstanding among the peoples of the Earth, begun in Babel, vera was the intention of an angry god, then, that divinity nailed. Managed to make the men of this planet do not communicate properly and in this case, he ("God" irate) reigns, that is "chaos" reigns for our misfortune.

But I constantly wonder if such a "god" can be taken seriously. It is against all common sense that a "god", said infinitely powerful, has used such a stratagem to impose upon the tiny beings, so it is claimed, he himself created. If I were God, would have employed the method more efficient, more direct, more radical, befitting my status as "all powerful". Incidentally, neither would be necessary to use some method. God knew, even before He created man, that his creation tramaria against his "divinity" because God is not omnipresent and oniciente? To create man and then, in a fit of anger (angry god?), Confusing the languages to prevent the men reach the heavens? For this, if God could, in the blink of an eye, sweeping rebellious mankind on Earth? Actually, truth be told, he tried, and repeatedly, unable (?). How can "god" does not accomplish his will?

However it is said this was done. And many good people strongly believe that assertive. It is us, therefore, the impression that this "God of the Bible was not God at all, and the Tower of Babel was not exactly a tower within the meaning of the word current naming one vertical construction made of bricks or stones."

Once I learned that the hieroglyph of an ear of wheat, placed at the edge of cultivated fields, was conventional sign, used by, used by the ancient people of Egypt, to warn their enemies that they would be killed if they penetrate the plantations. Currently, such a amedrontado a um enfrentamento com a realidade. O único ser que se apavora diante da morte. E, no entanto, todas as religiões afirmam que a morte nada mais é do que uma "passagem" para outro mundo melhor. Diz o homem acreditar em outra vida para a alma, onde ela será mais feliz do que foi aqui na Terra, e chora desabaladamente quando seus entes queridos (até seus entes não queridos) morrem. O homem sempre aceita, na prática, a chamada sabedoria afirmando mais valer um mal conhecido que um bem desconhecido. E nesse caminho – que não é caminho, mas um descaminho – o indivíduo verdadeiramente livre torna-se, perante a sociedade, um proscrito, um indesejável, perseguido e obrigado ao silêncio do ostracismo. Assim tem sido durante séculos, e me parece o será por muitos séculos ainda, se falharmos em atingir um novo tipo de consciência.

A maior parte da humanidade afirma que o ser humano foi feito por "deus" para adorá-lo e obedecê-lo, para curvar-se perante sua infinita majestade. Que grande narciso é este "deus". Que grande masturbação é esta divindade.

Será mesmo que as pessoas acreditam nisso? Pelo que tenho visto, a resposta é não! Mas o medo de nos apresentarmos como "ateus" (isto é, ateus em relação a este tipo de "deus") nos torna hipócritas, e nós nos mascaramos de "crentes". Por isto, certos homens até invocam a presença de "deus", o auxílio dos "poderes divinos", e as vezes não divinos, para praticarem os mais abomináveis e revoltantes atos. Isto representa um atavismo herdado de longa data, da nascente de nossas religiões. Pois não é verdade que Yaveh ordenava a matança de crianças e o estupro de virgens? Os primogênitos dos inimigos dos hebreus sempre eram passados a fio de espada. Vide, por exemplo, o acontecido com os egípcios e os caananitas.

E por que? Porque esse "deus" (que não é signal placed on the roadside, would say nothing to us. And if we change an ear of corn for a corn, such a signal would indicate there around a site (a tent) where we can buy corn boiled or baked. Likewise, a sign at the edge of existing highways, showing a fork and knife crossed, indicates to drivers that there is a restaurant ahead, not that drivers are garfados or stabbed if they continue the journey.

Another interesting story, illustrating how complex the problem of communication between two different cultures, is that of King Atuhualpa (Inca) which forthwith took the Bible to the ear, when a "charitable and gentle Jesuit," the entourage of Pizzarro, gave him the to "hear" the voice (or word) of "god." Of course the incident to us in the most hilarious, was reason enough for the "charitable", understanding and gentle Christ's representative instigate the Spanish soldiers against the "heretics", resulting in a brutal massacre of hundreds of unarmed Incas.

We can thus observe how much is difficult to understand the correct meaning of words and ral (or signs) used for thousands of years ago on papyrus, tablets, clay tablets, inscriptions, etc., By people culturally different and separated in time in space. When Crowley wrote his books, he took great care in the choice of words, because I knew that many of them had connotations entirely addicted and adulterated, not only by time but also by the "Roman theology." But he can not dodge the use of certain words like "spirit", "child", "astral", "devil", etc.. How could he convey the secrets of the making of "Cakes of Light" unless using certain words that ensure these secrets to profane eyes?

Recently the existence and importance of the language problem was acknowledged by several scholars. But who seriously tried a solution, were forced to "renounce" their claims. And throughout history, no matter who caused inquiries deeper more riots and

E porque... porque esse "deus" (que não é "deus", mas uma imitação Dêle. Os Gnósticos o chamavam de Demiurgo) é louco. É um monstruoso vampiro. Faz-se passar pela Divindade Maior, quando afinal não passa de uma imitação grotesca. A religião criada por ele é uma forma adulterada da Religião Original, e este mênstruo contribuiu para desvirtuar o homem, em sua caminhada evolutiva, porque esta evolução "atrapalhava" os planos dêle – ou melhor dito "deles". O povo que "servia" (este verbo – servir – está empregado, no original hebraico, com a conotação de "serviçal", trabalhador, etc.) ao "deus" hebreu simplesmente tinha que inclinar a cabeça à sua vontade, quer este "deus" quer lhe enviasse o bem, quer o mal. Esta atitude serviçal de escravos nos herdamos através do Credo da Igreja Romana.. O "deus" Enki dos babilônios divertia-se com isto; e Yaveh o imitou muito bem (claro! Era o mesmo "deus" em roupagens diferentes). Na realidade, tal tendência vem de muitíssimo mais longe, no tempo e no espaço. A manipulação que pode ser localizada, nos tempo e no espaço, representa apenas simples reflexo de outra insondável, oculta aos nossos olhos, afetando nossa realidade imediata, nossas noções de bem e mal, nossas idéias de divindade, etc.

who caused mankind deeper, more not and more devastation than the issues related to the meaning of words. And the Bible, as well as other sacred texts of the world, has words whose meanings are not clear enough. Perhaps because they have never been accurate in the sense of describing what their scribes witnessed, or have thought presenciado.¹⁶

Let us look deeper into the issue of "Tower of Babel". Let us be bolder, more critical:

What could "God" fearing a simple tower, erected in a city of a primitive people? And "god" could ignore the obvious fact of the impossibility of achievement of a "tower", built of brick or stone, hit the "heavens" (Outer Space?). It would even be a tower?

Are there people who actually believe this

Localizando uma das prováveis origens da Fraude, disse o Sr. Benthon que a “destruição do erro é sumamente difícil quando ele tem suas raízes na linguagem”. As palavras deste ilustre pesquisador levou-me a matutar sobre passagens bíblicas onde, tenho certeza, muitas palavras, e mesmo frases inteiras, perderam seus originais significados.

Tomemos, rapidamente, o exemplo da Torre de Babel.

Somos informados que na Babilônia (Babylon, em hebraico, que se traduz por “O Portal dos Deuses Solares”) “O Senhor Deus confundiu os idiomas de todos os povos”. O simplório relato torna-se, para mim, uma falaz explicação das diferenças existentes entre as línguas dos diversos povos da Terra. Uma explicação infantil. Olhando-se, entretanto, por outro lado, põe em destaque o fato de que o meio mais eficaz de comunicação – pelo menos entre nós, humanos – é a linguagem falada e escrita. E que sem o correto uso dela, torna-se difícil qualquer entendimento entre nós. Além disso, tenho percebido que muitas controvérsias, e mesmos guerras, derivam-se do problema da comunicação; que os litigantes usam as mesmas palavras para dizerem coisa diferentes e, outras vezes, diferentes palavras para as mesmas coisas. Tenho a experiência pessoal do fato de como podemos usar a mesma palavra significando coisas diferentes.

Quando eu era criança, fiquei bastante confuso ao ouvir meu pai dizer que “a mesa” diretora da firma onde trabalhava o havia escolhido para uma viagem a São Paulo. Na minha infantilidade não consegui atinar de como “uma mesa” poderia dar ordens (ou falar) a meu pai. Este é apenas um dos milhares de exemplos de como podemos interpretar erradamente o significado das palavras.

Há pouco anos atrás, se algum rapaz story? Did they really believe that with such a building men could reach the "abode of the Supreme Being"? Ridiculous! You must be very fanatical, very Christian, or too simplistic to believe this story. The description of the Tower of Babel is, in my view, a great allegory. Even in distant Babylonian times, the priests knew that the planets revolved in infinite space, and who possessed the spheroid, and that endless space served beyond the Earth's surface. Only in the event of Roman Catholicism is that this knowledge was hidden from the public: that Galileo died, and more. Could "God" the Creator of All, ignoring these facts so commonplace. Or is that infamous Tower of Babel was not exactly a tower, but something VERY SIMILAR to a Tower? What could it be? What can the love of "God" to lead men to heaven?

The answer is on the tip of our tongues. Only our minds, conditioned by religion, belief, know what else, does not allow such a response. The conditioning binds us, limits us, constrains us to not admit it clearly in our conscious minds - even though, deep in our unconscious to know perfectly. I suppose if the visit, or if you look at a picture of the cable Kennedy (formerly Cape Canaveral) which is the basis for launching rockets, we would see the famous Tower of Babel. As said by someone: "the blind as those who will not see."

Frequently found anacronias appearing through our history. And our scholars never explained it convincingly. Strange things appearing in inappropriate places and times. Remembering things in actual objects. See, but ... do not want to see. I believe we are giving different names to the same things. Why is the word written in the Torah is the tower?

Simply because at the time it was written, there was a better word to describe what they saw. But of course: in those days there was their vocabulary the word for "ROCKET". And those who saw it, mistook him for a tower. The closest thing to a rocket na pouco anos atrás, se algum rapaz dissesse estar namorando uma “gata”, poderia ser muito mal interpretado por seus amigos e vizinhos. Todos interpretariam a frase como se ele estivesse louco, ou fazendo pactos com alguma “diaba”, cujo um dos símbolos é uma gata. Da mesma forma sabemos que a palavra “daimone” quer simplesmente significar, em grego, “anjo protetor, ou anjo da guarda”, e neste sentido era usado na Grécia Antiga. (Sócrates, constantemente citava seu “daimone”). O termo “herege”, originalmente, não representava ofensa nem cumprimento. A palavra deriva-se do grego “haerens”, significando um ato de escolha: Josefo, o historiador judeu do Século I, usava a palavra para denominar um partido ou uma seita, sem intenção ou menosprezo. Até São Paulo, em Atos 26, 5, usava o termo neste sentido.

Imaginemos, portanto, o que deve ter acontecido quando os textos bíblicos (e outros mais antigos) foram traduzidos por vários povos que não os judeus, sem a devida compreensão do significados originais das palavras ali usadas. Acrescentemos a isto o fato do Pentateuco ter sido escrito a milhares de anos atrás, e em uma linguagem cifrada, simbólica. E, além disso, resume “estórias” e tradições específicas de povos mais antigos que os hebreus. Imaginemos, agora, o que pode ter ocorrido com traduções de textos mais antigos ainda, escritos em línguas quase totalmente esquecidas (como os hieróglifos, por exemplo), mas que serviram para dar corpo aos textos bíblicos. Linguagens extremamente técnicas, cifradas e somente compreendidas por uma elite de sacerdotes como, outra vez, é o caso dos hieróglifos (isto é “glifos sagrados”). Tenhamos, também, em mente que o problema será muito mais acentuado quando “tradutores” incompetentes para o cargo foram escolhidos para executar them for a tower. The closest thing to a rocket on its base of scaffolding, a tower is under construction. The analogy is perfect. I do not want to say that the Hebrews saw these rockets in their launch towers. No! They were seen by people even older, who described the event with the words of her tiny vocabulary. The oral and written tradition was then passed from culture to culture, until you get to the Hebrews. These ancient Hebrews who recorded these traditions were entitled. Only in their minds, and consequently in their vocabulary, there was the idea and the word for rocket, let alone the words to describe the outer flight, unless stated that "men" wanted to reach the heavens by building "a tower."

According to Zacharias Sitchin (scientist, journalist. Today NASA consultant) the Sumerian pictographic sign referring to "gods" was a word dissilábica, DIN.GIR. The symbol for GIR was in the form of a "rocket two sections" with stabilizers. DIN, the first syllable of the name, means "fair", "pure", "brilliant". These "stories" these myths, these legends, these "things" strange, always appeared over the ages and under different labels. The only difference is that the people have interpreted the language used in their own time. A space rocket may well be defined as a high tower ready to "reach the heavens", especially when in their "nest" of scaffolding or cradle launch, as we see in photos released by NASA. Not wanting to be presumptuous, if this writing is read in a few years, I hope readers do not take the words "nest" and "Cradle" in its normal sense, ie, "nest" of bird, and "cradle" of newly born. From the above said, we now have an idea of why the City of Babylon (Babylon) had this name, ie: Portal or Portal of Solar Gods of Heaven. For there existed a launch, or existed in times more remote, or better, there the earth tried to build a launch pad. Only that this "god" or "gods" not allowed. How could Elijah and Ezekiel (ie, the scribes who received these names) estas traduções (e, em muitos casos, para interpretações). Lembremo-nos que os Antigo Testamento foi escrito originalmente em caracteres calcados sobre o Aramaico (cujas letras, cada uma por si, possui um significado simbólico). Além disso, a língua de Moisés era a egípcia, não a hebraica, somente surgida séculos depois. Não podemos esquecer também que antes da Bíblia ser traduzida para as línguas modernas, ela passou pelo Grego e o Latim. É necessário ter em mente de que o povo hebreu esteve sob escravidão e influencia da sociedade egípcia durante quatro séculos. E que Moisés era um príncipe egípcio, coisa que muita gente finge não saber. Acrescentemos aqui também que logo após o cativeiro egípcio, o povo hebreu caiu sob cativeiro da Babilônia (597 a.C) até que os Persas os libertaram.¹⁴ Devolvendo os tesouros do Templo.

Podemos imaginar que neste tempo quantos erros de tradução foram cometidos. Quantos erros de interpretação nos têm sido impostos, levando-nos à interpretações truncadas, erradas e distorcidas? E tudo isso sem levarmos em consideração as inclinações políticas e religiosas do tradutor (ou tradutores) que com apenas uma “penada” poderia dar às escrituras tendências de acordo com suas idéias e crenças pessoais.

Mediante a lenda da Torre de Babel, percebi o quanto é alarmante comprovar o grau de deformação da mente humana durante séculos de imputações religiosas, que já resulta quase impossível atingirmos o significado desta confusão estabelecida por “deus”, e porque ele a criou, se é que foi Deus (com “D” maiúsculo) o criador desta confusão linguística.

Não me deterei em analisar esta grande “sacanagem” da divindade. Longe de mim uma tal ousadia. Porém, torna-se mais do que evidente a qualquer rudimentar inteligência que, da “divina describe on their fantastic adventures? Logically, described according to their capacity of knowledge, and the language of the time and, moreover, through the prism of religious beliefs. Ezekiel would not have found anything more appropriate than naming his vision of a spaceship landing, as a Chariot of Fire descending from the heavens the clouds and thunder (discharges the retro-rocket boosters and the noise of them). How could Jonah describe a submarine, it was not through the images of a baleira? How old could describe a diver, if not as a "god" half man and half fish? With each passing day it becomes more evident to me, and a large number of people who, for countless millennia, humanity has taken a bill of goods, never questioning a series of bizarre narratives contained in sacred texts, nothing have in common with the facts actually observed in times that have been written or recorded.

The preposterous interpretations of religions offend our intelligence, our powers of observation and reasoning.

Is evident that the function of these dogmatic assertions is distract us from the truth, keep us in ignorance and subject us to that "Elite" so well described by Benjamin Disraeli as "figures that can not be envisioned by those whose eyes can not penetrate behind the scenes . Backstage. Here's the key word. However, despite all frames against us, some eyes could penetrate behind the scenes of history and saw ...

Something very serious happened in the past of mankind, soon after the appearance of Homo sapiens. And the event has been hidden for all these millennia.

It happened, however, that the "gods" left a gap in their defensive system. A small flaw, whereby the astute observer can penetrate as'll check later, behind the scenes, beyond the Tower of Babel. But most of the human race lost its ancient wisdom and plunged into paths that do not lead anywhere. But regardless, it continues to be the heir of a Great Power, a science and technology that fundamental inteligência que, da "divina máquina", resultou a impossibilidade de chegarmos, algum dia, a dar conta de nossa autêntica situação e, a partir disso, começarmos a chamar as coisas por seu real nome; a entender seu real significado, seus motivos e até seu lugar em nossa existência.

Toda esta problemática leva-me a outra consideração: de que adianta, portanto, tentarmos nos entender? De que adianta as religiões dizerem que os homens têm necessidade de irmanarem-se, de compreenderem-se, se o próprio "deus" determinou que isto não fosse realizado, ao confundir as línguas em Babel. Estaremos certos indo contra a "vontade divina?" O leitor já considerou este aspecto da questão?

Sendo dinâmica, a língua sofre mutações no tempo. Consequentemente, se ela não for devidamente empregada, atualizada, obedecendo a estas mutações temporais (e mesmo espaciais), nossa capacidade de comunicação será afetada; tornar-se-á precária, dando ensejo a não compreensão do que falamos ou

Great Power, a science and technology that will one day come to be recovered. His first steps have already been taken in this direction. I hope so.

All this has been hidden from us. Events related to our creation and evolution. One way or another, the "gods" tried to make us forget what we are. There was an accident in the initial plan of "our creators." The course of our evolution followed lines not covered by them. They did not want us to become what we are, or what will be the future, ie autonomous beings and endowed with endless possibilities, including that of supplant them. These possibilities frighten them deeply. The nature of self-preservation, self-transcendence, which they, by their intrinsic natures, have no more, because of some factor unknown to me, are the main reason for this fear and hatred they have for us. Our possibilities are so immense that we can, in a short time, overcome them. Here's why the great fear they have for us.

But, after all, who are they?

They are the "gods". Those who created us to serve them eternally in bondage atrocious. The "Ancients" coming from the stars, in the words of HPLovecraft.17

escrevemos por outros. As palavras mudam de significado; significados que, as vezes, nada têm a ver com os originais. Já tentaram ler a carta de Caminha ao Rei de Portugal, informando-o da descoberta das terras brasileiras? É terrivelmente difícil entendê-la a primeira leitura. Observem que somente 492 anos nos separam destes acontecimentos. Imaginemos o acontecido num espaço de mil anos. O que foi desejado comunicar perdeu todo sentido para nós. Isto, obviamente, cria sérios obstáculos ao exato conhecimento histórico 15. Foi necessário surgir um gênio como Champollion para que os hieróglifos fossem “traduzidos”. Levemos em conta que os hieróglifos “traduzidos” pelo sábio francês, e usados como chave para as demais traduções subsequentes de papiros e inscrições mortuárias, pertenciam ao Período Ptolomaico, quando a civilização egípcia estava em franca decadência, sob influência da cultura Grega, e conseqüentemente, suas tradições quase desaparecidas. Nem mesmo os egípcios do Século I compreenderiam a língua e a escrita de seus antepassados, pois a língua usada, nesta época era o Copta. O linguajar dos antigos povos habitando às margens do Nilo perdeu-se para sempre. Só temos especulações a respeito. Especificamente, a pronúncia das palavras ditas hoje estão inseridas nestas especulações. Simplesmente, nós não temos o menor conhecimento de como eles as pronunciavam. E, diga-se de passagem, era uma escrita puramente simbólica. Nós nem sabemos realmente se nossas traduções estão corretas. Além do mais, nos hieróglifos usados nas tumbas mortuárias dos antigos egípcios existem numerosíssimos exemplos de uma escrita cifrada: códigos secretos para tornar incompreensível uma mensagem ou um ensinamento a quem não tivesse autorizado a conhecê-la. O mesmo autorizado a conhecê-lo. O mesmo acontece com os relatos bíblicos, principalmente com o Antigo Testamento. Como exemplo disto podemos informar que a palavra Ariel (o nome de um “anjo”) vem de ARI (leão ou fogo) – y r a -, e la (Al = Deus). Ariel é então o Leão de Deus ou o Fogo de Deus. Quantos sabem que Querub significa Touro Alado, e Querubim sendo seu plural e que, portanto, os Querubins são Touros Alados? Isto significa que a Entrada do Éden está guardada por um Touro Alado e armado com uma Espada. A imagem é totalmente diferente daquela que temos de um “anjo”. Além do mais, a palavra “anjo”, usada na Bíblia cristã, vem da palavra grega “ângelos”, que quer dizer “mensageiro” – aquele que traz mensagens de Deus. No entanto, a palavra hebraica é “malakh”, que significa o “lado sombrio” de Deus. Dentro deste mesmo assunto destacamos a palavra demônio que vem do grego daimonos, isto é, “Anjo Protetor”.

TRUE TOWER OF BABEL

Se a confusão de línguas e a incompreensão entre os povos da Terra, iniciada em Babel, foi a vera intenção de um deus irado, então, aquela divindade acertou em cheio. Conseguiu fazer com que os homens deste planeta não se comuniquem devidamente e, neste caso, ele (o “deus” irado) reina absoluto; isto é o “caos” reina absoluto para nossa desgraça.

Mas eu me pergunto constantemente se um tal “deus” pode ser levado à sério. É contra todo senso comum que um “deus”, dito infinitamente poderoso, tenha usado um tal tipo de estratégia para impor-se aos ínfimos seres que, assim é afirmado, ele mesmo criou. Fosse eu deus, teria empregado método mais eficiente, mais direto, mais radical, condizente com minha condição de “todo poderoso”. Aliás, nem seria necessário usar método algum. Deus saberia, antes mesmo de criar o homem, que esta sua criação tramaria contra sua “divindade”, pois não é deus

To one who knows observe the entire Universe is a revelation. All things change, and in however, remain.

There are fairly strong evidence of the survival of some elements in polytheistic Hebrew Exateuco where Elohisticas sources consistently use the plural Elohim, Lords (the source Elohistica is dated about the year 800 BC).

In Genesis 3:5, the "snake clearly tells Eve that she and Adam will become" How the Gods ", if you eat" The Forbidden Fruit ". "God Bible" uses the pronoun "we", which is more than a mere convention. Appears in the Pentateuch, and in earlier writings, such as "The God of Hosts" assisted by a "Divine onipresente e oniciente? Para que criar o homem e depois, num acesso de ira (deus irado?), confundir as línguas para impedir que os homens atingissem os céus? Para que isto, se deus poderia, num piscar de olhos, varrer a humanidade rebelde da face da Terra? Aliás, a bem da verdade, ele o tentou, e por várias vezes, sem conseguir(?). Como pode “deus” não concretizar sua vontade? Porém é dito: isto foi feito. E muita gente boa acredita piamente nessa acertiva. Fica-nos, portanto, a impressão de que aquele “deus da Bíblia não era Deus coisa nenhuma, e que a Torre de Babel não era exatamente uma Torre, na acepção atual da palavra nomeando uma construção vertical feita de tijolos, ou pedras.”

Certa vez tomei conhecimento de que o hieróglifo de uma espiga de trigo, colocada à beira dos campos cultivados, era sinal convencional, usado pelos, usado pelos antigos povos do Egito, para alertar seus inimigos que eles seria mortos caso penetrassem nas plantações. Atualmente, um tal sinal posto à beira das estradas, nada diria para nós. E no caso de trocarmos uma espiga de trigo por uma de milho, um tal sinal seria indicativo de haver por perto, um local (uma barraca) onde se possa comprar milho cozido ou assado. Da mesma forma, uma placa, à beira das atuais rodovias, mostrando um garfo e uma faca cruzados, indica aos motoristas a existência de um restaurante mais à frente, e não que os motoristas serão garfados ou esfaqueados se continuarem a viagem.

Outra interessante história, exemplificando como é complexo o problema de comunicação entre duas culturas diferentes, é aquela do Rei Atuhualpa (Inca) que incontinenti levou a Bíblia ao ouvido, quando um “caridoso e manso jesuíta”, da comitiva de Pizarro, lhe a entregou para “ouvir” a voz (ou palavra) de “deus”. Claro que o incidente, Council" a "sod". The "sod" is clearly implicated in I Kings 29:19 and Isaiah 6. The "Celestial Court" is always called Beni ha Elohim, "Children of the Gods", comparable to the 'Sons of God' in the Canaanite religion.

"The idea of man being created to be a slave to the 'gods' not shocked at all the ancient peoples, as a peculiar idea. In biblical times, the deity was "lord", "king", "ruler", "owner", etc.. The term usually translated as "worship" was, in fact, AVOD (work). The man is not old biblical 'loved' his 'god' - WORKING for him "(Zecharia Sitchin).

Necessary to emphasize that the Elohim did not create the hominid inhabitants of the earth. Was the current man they created. The ancient hominids were already on earth when the Elohim came here. Through their knowledge of cellular engineering, he manipulated the genetic code of primitive man (as today we have begun to do), so that they could serve their needs (the gods), that is, for men, so created is become skilled workers.

Esoteric Sources tell us that the "demiurgic Intelligences", or created a mutation in the laboratory, or took advantage of mutations occurring in nature, accelerating them to produce a race of beings with greater brain capacity. Anyway, this intervention was not done arbitrarily at any moment in the history of race. It was planned, following the man through his 'slow' evolutionary march. The "gods" had at its disposal, the time needed. But we are totally impossible to determine the age of these made. Except were drawn by beings with the technique required to perform the feat.

We also need to note that much of the subsequent human evolution may have been achieved through the sexual union of the "demiurge" in human form and women's race Homo Sapiens. This strange statement is recorded in ancient traditions, especially in Genesis, Chapter 6 vs 1-4.

Although Elohim did not create man para nos no máximo irritante, foi motivo bastante para que o “caridoso”, compreensivo e manso representante de Cristo instigasse os soldados espanhóis contra os “hereges”, resultando num brutal massacre de centenas de incas desarmados.

Podemos assim observar o quanto é difícil perceber o correto e real significado de palavras (ou sinais) usados há milhares de anos atrás em papiros, tábuas, blocos de argila, inscrições rupestres, etc., por povos culturalmente diferentes e separados no tempo e no espaço.

Quando Crowley escreveu seus livros, ele teve grande cuidado na escolha das palavras, pois sabia que muitas delas possuíam conotações inteiramente viciadas e adulteradas, não somente pelo tempo, mas também pela “teologia romana”. Porém, ele também não pode esquivar-se do uso de certas palavras como “espírito”, “criança”, “mundo astral”, “demônio”, etc. Como poderia ele transmitir os segredos da confecção dos “Bolos de Luz” a não ser usando certas palavras que velam estes segredos aos olhos profanos?

Recentemente a existência e importância do problema linguístico foi admitido por vários estudiosos. Mas os que tentaram seriamente uma solução, foram forçados a “renunciar” suas pretensões. E, ao longo da História, não houve questão que causasse indagações mais profundas, mais tumultos e mais devastações do que as questões ligadas ao significado das palavras. E a Bíblia, tanto quanto outros textos sagrados do mundo, possui palavras cujos significados ainda não estão claros o bastante. Talvez porque nunca tenham sido exatas, no sentido de descrever o que seus escribas presenciaram, ou pensaram ter presenciado.¹⁶

Although Elohim dispusessem major powers and expertise in all branches of science, could not prevent or predict, that the man acquired the gift of life also CREATE, from the sexual union, and overcoming self. Aptly, the Elohim, thought that hybrids do not have the power of procreation. In theory this is true, but to a certain extent. Nature always finds a way to dye the perpetuation of the species. The Elohim did not put in their equations those "unknown factor and infinite", the pivot of all major changes, moves, failures, unexpected victories. The unpredictable occurred somewhere cloudy proto-history, thousands of years ago, certainly many thousands of years, when the Hellenes were not even dreamed of in the face of the earth: and the Egyptians, Chinese, and Akkadians or Assyrians, or any other ancient people that it saves memory, still belonged to an extremely distant future.

So the "gods" exclaimed frightened, "Behold, the man is become as one of us." The alarm, placed in the mouth of "Biblical Creator" (Genesis III -22) was misrepresented as it should be: "you see, the man has become like one of us, with the ability to procreate, reaching beyond the ability of schedule" .

Notice that the verse belongs to the chapter describing "the fall of Adam." And why this "fall"? It is said to have been motivated by "disobedience" in "in eating the forbidden fruit, or better, of Adam 'knowing' Eve" 18. As it turns out, the implications of the phrase are numerous and will be discussed in an appropriate place. Please note also that the phrase is put in the plural ("See the man has become like one of us") who speaks seems to address a group of other beings equal himself: "divine". And there's that unknown esoteric meaning of the "Forbidden Fruit." What, after all, should such a change in the biology of man, so that he could acquire the gift of procreation?

It's an easy answer. The Beni-ha-Elohim (Sons of Elohim) were the unconscious

Analisemos mais a fundo a questão da “Torre de Babel”. Sejam mais ousados, mais críticos:

Que poderia “Deus” temer de uma simples torre, erguida numa cidade de um povo primitivo? E como “deus” poderia desconhecer o obvio fato da impossibilidade da proeza de uma “torre”, construída de tijolos ou pedras, atingir os “céus” (Espaço Sideral?). Seria mesmo uma torre?

Será que existem pessoas que realmente acreditam nessa história? Será que acreditam realmente que com uma tal edificação os homens poderiam atingir a “morada de Ser Supremo”? Ridículo! É necessário ser muito fanático, muito crente, ou muito simplório para crer nesta

Here we open a parenthesis:

"In Genesis VI, we see that" god "decides to destroy man from the earth. And why this wrath against us? ^

Genesis reports that Beni-ha-Elohim looked at the "daughters of men and found attractive." They got out of their "heavenly heights" and maintained relations with them, and this union was born a race of giants called Nephlim. These descendants of the Beni-ha-Elohim and women land were the "heroes" of the past, men of renown. Here it is a question: if we consider the "Children of the Gods" (Beni-Elohim ha) as spiritual beings, how then could feel sexually attracted to the "Daughters of Men", which evidently possessed material bodies? And if the Sons of the Gods were not spiritual, then, this "god" and "gods" were also not spirits. Would be of flesh and blood and bones like us? And if it corresponds to the truth, then we contradict the idea that these "gods", including Yheve.

Following the above events, "The Lord" sent the flood upon the earth as punishment. But this punishment WAS NOT PERFORMED BECAUSE THE "SINS OF BENI-HA-ELOHIM" BUT THOSE MEN (?). And this should make us stop and think a bit. After all, were not the sons of gods who sought the "Daughters of Men"? I call attention to the fact that in the Bible, Elohim is the translation for "God" in the singular, what is wrong, because the correct translation of Elohim is "they gods" in the plural.

Now if there was transgression of orders "god", this was the Sons of God (or gods), and not of men and women on earth. The "Children of the Gods" is that they should be punished, not us. The incongruity is striking .. They commit sin and us is that we pay. In the book of Psalms it is said that "God" has taken its place in the "Court of Heaven to deliberate judgment among the" gods historia. A descrição da Torre de Babel e, a meu ver, uma grande alegoria. Mesmo nos afastados tempos da Babilônia, os sacerdotes sabiam que os planetas giravam no espaço infinito, e que possuíam a forma esferóide; e que um espaço sem fim atendia-se além da superfície da Terra. Somente com o evento do Catolicismo Romano é que este conhecimento foi escondido do povo: disso a morte de Galileu, e outros mais. Poderia “Deus” o Criador de Tudo, desconhecer estes fatos tão corriqueiros. Ou será a que famigerada Torre de Babel não era exatamente uma Torre, mas algo MUITO PARECIDO com uma Torre? O que poderia ser? O que pode, pelo amor de “Deus” levar os homens aos céus?

A resposta esta na ponta de nossas linguas. Apenas nossas mentes, condicionadas pela religião, pela crença, sei lá o que mais, não permite tal resposta. O condicionamento nos amarra, nos limita, nos constrange a não admiti-la claramente em nossas mentes conscientes – muito embora, lá no fundo de nosso inconsciente a saibamos perfeitamente. Suponho que se visitarmos o, ou se olharmos uma foto do, Cabo Kenneth (antigo Cabo Canaveral) onde está a base de lançamento de foguetes, veríamos a famosa TORRE DE BABEL. Como já dito por alguém: “o pior cego é aquele que não quer ver.”

Constatamos frequentes anacronias aparecendo através de nossa História. E nossos estudiosos jamais as explicaram convincentemente. Coisas estranhas aparecendo em lugares e tempos impróprios. Coisas nos lembrando objetos atuais. Vemos, mas... não queremos enxergar. Creio estarmos dando nomes diferentes às mesmas coisas. Por que a palavra escrita no Tora é torre? Simplesmente porque, na época em que foi escrito, não havia uma palavra mais adequada para descrever aquilo que eles viram. Mas claro: naqueles tempos não

“and concludes:” How long will ye judge unjustly, and ye shall take advantage of the wicked? 19Eu say ye gods, ye are all children of the Almighty. However, as men die, and as one of the princes, you will succumb. " Here the "Lord" thinks members of the Court of Heaven and condemns them to fall for their failures. This fall consists in passing from immortality to mortality, or decrease power, or both. Ma does not imply a fall in "heaven." Observe that he, the Lord, speaks to his peers and not to men. Nor is there any indication that a lack that fell in the "Sons of God", nor is it said that "gods" were these, much less their number. But we know that failure had committed those "gods". They had sided with the men as "Sir" had condemned the human race to extermination.

One of the oldest versions about the ruin of the Beni-ha-Elohim (angels?) Found in the First Book of Enoch. The text describes a "tour of inspection that Enoch is around the Earth" at the behest of "god." During this "journey", Enoch saw the Sons of God in its state of ruin, and learned its history. Here I would like to explain to me that "inspection tour" would be this. Does "God" requires that one or more of his men do "inspection" in his kingdom? Why "God" would use a mortal human being in this role? Again: where is the ubiquity of "God"? Again hit in the previous question: how could the "Sons of God" join the "Daughters of Men"? They had, by accident, sexual desires like us? If so, how can this be if they were "Sons of God" and it is to believe, the same substance as the Father? Or will this "god" is not quite what we were made to believe that?

"When the Sons of God came in to the daughters of men, they bore children to them." One more question stands: how can children born of mating "spiritual beings" with material beings.

It is important gravarmos reports because of them, we conclude that such! Sons of God "possessed material bodies needed existia o vocabulário deles a palavra para designar “FOGUETE”. E aqueles que o viram, confundiu-o com uma torre. A coisa mais parecida com um foguete, em sua base de andaimes, é uma torre em construção. A analogia é perfeita.

Não quero com isto afirmar que os hebreus viram estes foguetes em suas torres de lançamento. Não! Eles foram vistos por povos ainda mais antigos, que descreveram o evento com as palavras de seu diminuto vocabulário. A tradição oral e escrita foi, então, transmitida de cultura para cultura, até chegar aos hebreus. Estes antigos hebreus que registraram estas tradições não erraram. Apenas em suas mentes e, conseqüentemente no seu vocabulário, não existia a idéia e o vocábulo para foguete, e muito menos as palavras que descrevessem o vôo sideral, a não ser afirmar que os “homens” queriam atingir os céus, através a construção de “uma torre”.

Segundo Zacharias Sitchin (cientista, jornalista. Hoje consultor da NASA) o signo pictográfico sumério referindo-se aos “deuses”, era uma palavra dissilábica, DIN.GIR. O símbolo para GIR tinha a forma de um “foguete de duas secções” com estabilizadores. DIN, a primeira sílaba deste nome, significa “justo”, “puro”, “brilhante”.

Estas “histórias”, estes mitos, estas lendas, estas “coisas” estranhas, sempre apareceram ao longo das épocas e sob distintas etiquetas. A única diferença está em que as pessoas as têm interpretado com a linguagem usada em seus próprios tempos. Um foguete espacial pode, perfeitamente ser definido como uma alta torre pronta para “atingir os céus”, principalmente quando em seu “ninho” de andaimes, ou berço de lançamento, tal como vemos em fotos divulgadas pela NASA. Não querendo ser presunçoso, se este escrito for lido daqui há alguns anos, espero que os leitores não tomem as

In 1947, were found at Qumran (location situated near the Dead Sea) manuscripts dating from approximately 2000 years. These manuscripts are known as "The Dead Sea Scrolls." The translation of them, began to bring to light several interesting points, not only the Old Testament, as well as the Christian Gospels. Through them we obtained the certainty of the existence of the famous Essenes, as exploited by the "esoteric". The Essenes were a Jewish community (religious and political) still shrouded in mystery at various points, but that the Church of Rome has always tried to pretend it did not exist.

In one of these manuscripts, specifically found in Cave I, "the second column tells the miraculous Manuscript Noah (Noah)." Lamech, son of Methuselah, suspected his wife had deceived him with one of the fallen angels. The negative woman not convince him, and he asks his father, Methuselah, who travels to Paradise (Eden), and obtain confirmation of his own father Enoch (see "The Dead Sea Scrolls - G. palavras “ninho” e “berço” em seu sentido normal, isto é, “ninho” de pássaro, e “berço” de recém-nascidos.

Do acima dito, podemos agora ter idéia do porque a Cidade de Babylon (Babilonia) tinha este nome, isto é: Portal dos Deuses Solares ou Portal dos Céus. Pois ali existia uma base de lançamento, ou existira em épocas mais recuadas, ou melhor, alí os terrestre tentaram construir uma plataforma de lançamento. Somente que o tal “deus” ou “deuses” não o permitiram.

Como poderia Elias e Ezequiel (isto é, os escribas que receberam estes nomes) descreverem sobre suas fantásticas aventuras? Logicamente, as descreveram segundo a capacidade dos conhecimentos deles, e da linguagem da época e, além do mais, sob o prisma de crenças religiosas. Ezequiel não teria encontrado nada mais adequado do que denominar sua visão de uma nave espacial aterrando, como uma Carruagem de Fogo descendo dos céus entre nuvens e trovões (as descargas do foguetes retro-propulsores e o ruído deles). Como poderia Jonas descrever um submarino, não fosse através a imagens de uma baleira? Como os antigos poderiam descrever um mergulhador, se não fosse como um “deus” metade homem e metade peixe?

A cada dia que se passa, torna-se mais evidente para mim, e para um grande número de pessoas que, por inumeráveis milênios, a humanidade tem tomado gato por lebre, jamais questionando uma série de narrativas esdrúxulas constantes em textos sagrados, que nada têm em comum com os fatos realmente observados nas épocas em que foram escritos ou gravados.

As interpretações estapafúrdias das religiões ofendem nossa inteligência, nossa capacidade de observação e raciocínio.

Evidente está que a função destas

THE NAME OF GOD

We note that at the beginning of Genesis, the name designating "God" is Elohim. The form Jehovah (hwhy) only appears later, except in Exodus III, when Moses face to face with the "divinity" greater Judaism, asks: What is your name?

"And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel and say to them: The God of your fathers has sent me to you, and say to me, what is your name? What shall I say to them? And God said unto Moses, I AM (Heheieh) sent me to you ".20 Ai bíblica the translation is wrong. It says something that in fact God never spoke. "I am what I am."

How could He have given this answer in Hebrew 'DOES NOT EXIST IN THE WORD BE INDICATIVE OF THIS? Trapped in their own tradition that sought the certainty of "I am", the translators can not understand a God who reveals himself in a language where you can not simply say that it never is. What is in the Bible original HEHEYEH EHEYEH ASHER (I WILL BE WHAT I WILL BE).

Notice, also, that Moses says verbatim: "The God of your fathers. not our parents. as afirmativas dogmáticas é nos desviar da verdade, de nos manter presos à ignorância e nos submeter àquela "Elite" tão bem descrita por Benjamim Disraeli como "figuras que não podem ser vislumbradas por aqueles cujos olhos não conseguem penetrar nos bastidores. Bastidores. Eis a palavra chave. Entretanto, a despeito de toda armação contra nós, alguns olhos conseguiram penetrar nos bastidores da História e viram...

Algo muito sério aconteceu no passado da humanidade, logo após o aparecimento do homo-sapiens. E o acontecimento tem sido oculto durante todos estes milênios.

Aconteceu, entretanto, que os "deuses" deixaram uma brecha em seu sistema defensivo. Uma pequena falha, mediante a qual o observador mais atento consegue penetrar, como verificaremos mais à frente, por detrás dos bastidores, além da Torre de Babel. Mas a maior parte da raça humana perdeu sua antiga sabedoria e embrenhou-se por caminhos que não a levam a parte alguma. Porém, independente disso ela continua a ser a herdeira de um Grande Poder, de uma Ciência e Tecnologia que um dia virá a ser recuperada. Seus primeiros passos já foram dados nesta direção. Assim espero.

Tudo isto tem sido oculto de nós. Acontecimentos ligados à nossa criação e evolução. De uma maneira ou de outra, os "deuses" tentaram fazer-nos esquecer do que somos. Verificou-se um acidente no plano inicial de "nosso criadores". Os rumos de nossa evolução seguiram linhas não previstas por eles. Eles não queriam que nós nos tornássemos o que somos, ou aquilo que seremos futuramente, isto é: seres autônomos e dotados de infinitas possibilidades, entre as quais aquela de suplantá-los. Estas possibilidades os assustam profundamente. A natureza de auto-conservação, de auto-superação, as would be expected because, according to the Bible, Moses was Jewish. What, we have already seen, it corresponds to the truth. Moses was not referred to our fathers, because his parents were not Jewish but Egyptian and, as such, had not the God of Israel as their God.

The "story" of creation is too sophisticated to have been created by Jews, a people who lived in slavery for centuries. Even though we know that Moses was an Egyptian initiate and therefore heir to a tradition of science and high grade. This Science received from civilizations far older and more evolved than we might suppose. All this about the name of God seems very confusing.

What is the name of God, anyway?

Elohim?, Jehovah or Eheieh?

We thus have three name to one entity. That is until now, because there are many others. How can this be? Attention is drawn to the fact that here are not tallied the other "names" of God existing in the Old Testament, and many of which are used in the Qabalah, as Adonai, Shaddai, Ahi, Al, etc..

I can not accept that all these "names" are indifferently translated as "God", which is not a name.

Analyzing the original Hebrew, each of these names mean different beings or, who knows, different energies. Here is something very veiled.

Also, do not agree to accept the complex "explanations" theological as much as those of the Roman priests of Protestant pastors. They talk, talk and talk, and end call for faith that is clear to us, even they have. After all they say nothing concrete, and are lost in conjectures, and get lost in his own words, confusing apples with pears

Warn readers - especially Protestants - who never find in their Bibles, these names mentioned above, because the "translators" and "adapters" Bible Protestant and Catholic decided, on their own, using the Nossas possibilidades são tão imensas que poderemos, em curto espaço de tempo, supera-los. Eis o motivo do grande temor que têm por nós.

Mas, afinal, quem são eles?

Eles são os “deuses”. Aqueles que nos criaram para servi-los eternamente numa escravidão atroz. Os “Antigos” vindo das estrelas, segundo as palavras de H.P.Lovecraft.17 word God (which is a generic noun) to replace all those names of deity appearing in the original text. No wonder the Jews laugh at our beliefs. I can not, overcome with pious faith, just close your eyes to the fact, as if he did not exist. If God, as they claim, has given us the ability to reason and intelligence, we must do justice to this gift. It does not seem logical the concept of a "god" who, having created intelligent beings, punish them severely for using this intelligence.

The questions now arise: Why so many name assigned to a single deity? Why did Moses, presumably one "inspired" to write the Genesis - considering this as true - define "God", the Supreme Godhead and Single System Monotheist, under various "names"? The hypothesis of having multiple "gods" that hurts frontally monotheism. But the question rises constantly and sane, no one can wriggle out of it like there.

Claim certain currents of thought within himself esotericism, Moses changed the original message, conveyed to him in secret sanctuaries of Egypt, taking his teachings any word that would indicate, one way or another, the truth. According to others, the work of Moses constituted the sublimation tangible truths regarding the cosmic reality of man. In part I do not agree with this.

Moses (or whoever wrote the text of the Old Testament) did not try to cover up the real facts. Quite the contrary. Were "others" who so acted.

In Genesis I - 26, we read: "And God said (Elohim), let us make man in our image and likeness." In Genesis I - 27: "And God (Elohim) created man in his own image, in the image of God created. Then comes this wonder without any rodeo: "Penis and Vagina created them." The original Hebrew speaks Zakar and Ngebah, being respectively the male and female sex organs. The terms "male" and "female" appeared only in the Greek version, "Septuagint", in the second century before the Christian era the Christian era.

Then comes: "And blessed them and said to them, God (Elohim):" Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth. " Look good this divine determination.

The biblical narrative becomes even more confusing at Cap II: "Adam was only to God (Elohim) to give him a companion made from his rib." Regarding the "rib", more later. Listen for the fact that in verses 26 and 27, God creates man a singular being.

However, in the following verses it creates "male and female" (a plural being - androgynous). Ahead everything is contradicted when it is said that Adam "was only". How then God commands man to be fruitful and multiply to fill the earth, even if there was a woman? "

Be the Roman Catholic, Orthodox, Protestant, spiritualist, etc., All LEM the Bible. However, very few details are those who observe that conflicting text, for example, noted above.

The translational strategy has avoided for many centuries, that though he had sight detail between Roman Catholics and other non-Catholic Christian Roman chains. And in fulfilling this "maneuver", the Church of Rome has always encouraged not to read the biblical texts. More sharply the Pentateuch, because I knew the danger he was to be unmasked. Other Christians have followed suit, including spiritualists, who say they are possessors of open minds.

On the first page of Genesis (I.Ch.) is written B'RASHITH Bara ALoHIM Ath Hasha Maim VaATh Ha Aretz - "In the beginning Elohim created the heavens and the earth."

The name Elohim, which translates to "They Deities or Gods (as)," is the Vulgate

Para aquele que sabe

é uma revelação. Todas
as coisas mudam e, no
entanto, permanecem.

Existem evidências bastante fortes da sobrevivência de alguns elementos politeístas hebraicos nos Exateuco, onde fontes Elohistas consistentemente usam o plural ELOHIM, Senhores (a fonte Elohistica é datada, aproximadamente, no ano 800 a.C.).

Em Gênesis 3:5, a “serpente diz claramente à Eva que ela e Adão tornar-se-ão “Como os DEUSES”, se comerem “O Fruto Proibido”.

O “deus bíblico” usa o pronome “nós”, que é mais que uma mera convenção. Aparece no Pentateuco, e em escritos mais antigos, como “O Deus das Hostes” assessorado por um “Conselho Divino”, um “sod”. O “sod” está claramente implicado em I Reis 29:19 e Isaías 6. A “Corte Celestial” sempre é chamada de Beni ha Elohim, “Filhos dos Deuses”, comparável aos ‘Filhos de Deus’ na religião canaanita.

“A idéia do Homem ter sido criado para ser um escravo dos ‘deuses’ não chocava em nada aos povos antigos, como sendo uma idéia pecuniar. Nos translated simply as "God."

The name Elohim, appears in Genesis since I Cap, vs.1 until Vs 3 Vs 4 but found the name YHVH (wrongly translated as Jehovah or leveh. There is no translation for that four-letter name, ie the TETRAGRAMMTON. Correct pronunciation is a secret guarded by the High Priests. Only once a year the High Priest in the Holy of Holies penetrated and pronounced the name before the Holy Ark.

This "name" (actually not a name but a formula more) comes, sometimes alone, but is also found along with the name Elohim. Thereafter Genesis refers to "God", sometimes as Elohim, YHWH Elohim other and others just as YHVH, as can be seen in Genesis IV, 26 21. (We used to search for "The Law of Moses and Haftorahs, translation and commentary of Rabbi Meir Melamed Masliah, guiding the Departamento Brazilian Israelite Religious Center" Bene Herzi - Rio de Janeiro). Now, the name by which the Divinity itself identified to Moses is quite clear in the text: Eheyeh asher Eheyeh - WILL BE WHAT I WILL BE. NEM nor YHWH Elohim.

We know in advance that the word Elohim is a plural formed from the masculine feminine singular ALH, ALOH, joining IM to the noun. Since IM is usually an ending of the masculine plural, and here connected to a feminine noun, it gives to the word Elohim the sense of a female potency united to a masculine idea, and therefore able to produce offspring. A more correct translation would, in this case, Deities.

These deities were the creators of Adam, be considered a single, the first man. But in apparent contradiction to both a male and a female were created simultaneously, as if he (Adam) was two and, however, Eve has not yet been created (?). The creation of Eve occurs only in Genesis Chapter II: "ELOHIM SAID MORE: NOT GOOD THAT THE MAN IS ONLY: FAR TO YOU ONE HELP meet for him.". See that this happens only, as already said in Can II vs 18 of Genesis:

como sendo uma raça peculiar. Nos tempos bíblicos, a deidade era “senhor”, “rei”, “governante”, “dono”, etc. O termo normalmente traduzido como “adoração” era, de fato, AVOD (trabalho). O homem antigo bíblico não ‘adorava’ seu ‘deus’ – TRABALHAVA para ele” (Zecharia Sitchin).

Necessário ressaltar que os Elohim não criaram os hominídeos habitantes da Terra. Foi o atual homem que eles criaram. Os antigos hominídeos já se encontravam na Terra quando os Elohim aqui chegaram. Através seus conhecimentos de engenharia celular, ele manipularam o código genético do homem primitivo (tal como hoje já começamos a fazer), para que este pudesse servir às necessidades deles (os deuses), isto é, para que os homens, assim criados, se tornassem hábeis trabalhadores.

Fontes Esotéricas nos informam que as “Inteligências Demiúrgicas”, ou criaram uma mutação em laboratório, ou tomaram proveito de mutações ocorrendo na Natureza, acelerando-as para produzir uma raça de seres com capacidade cerebral maior. De qualquer modo, esta intervenção não foi feita arbitrariamente em um momento qualquer da História da raça. Ela foi planejada, acompanhando o homem através sua ‘vagarosa’ marcha evolutiva. Os “deuses” tinham, a seu dispor, o tempo necessário. Mas nos é totalmente impossível de determinar a época destes feitos. Exceto terem sido elaborados por seres conhecedores da técnica necessária para a realização da façanha.

Também necessitamos ressaltar, que muito da subsequente evolução humana, pode ter sido conseguida através a união sexual dos “Demiúrgos” em forma humana e mulheres da raça Homo Sapiens. Esta estranha afirmativa está registrada em antigas tradições, principalmente em Gênesis, Cap. 6 vs 1- 4.

Embora os Elohim dispusessem de already said, in Cap II, vs. 10 of Genesis, much after being formed Adam from the dust of the earth (male and female, as stated in Chapters. Earlier), and you have been ordered to join (?) and multiply. With who?? Who was Adam? For me and others a generic term. Not an individual being. Adam means "earthling". It derives from the root Adamah, the earth, to the planet, not earth (clay) and would have us believe. Moreover transpires a simple play on words, since DAM means blood.

'The previous verses, also showing an incongruity patent, going into shock with several other later. Specifically, the Vs 18, 21, 22, and 23 of Chapter II. Vs 23 in this Chapter II, there is a passage quite intriguing. Comment it quickly: "And Elohim said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness." Who are WE. Because Genesis, admitting to be a book describing the creation of the universe and of man only by a "god" only uses this name as "God" the word Elohim - plural, and uses the verb and plural pronouns? Who is driving this one "god" to the command "do"? Who, again, these were We, in whose image and likeness (plural) were created?

Very seek to explain the use of the pronoun and verb plural through the theory "pluraris majestatis". But the practice of using this plural "majestic" is very recent. Moses (an Egyptian) or whoever wrote the Genesis, never would use a phrase so pompous. Everything indicates announcing a decision emanating from a dictatorial "Assembly of the Gods." The phrase reinforces what has been said and confirmed by modern scholars: wherever they appear beings (human or otherwise) of a superior civilization, members of the most primitive cultures to elevate the category of "gods". Man was not created to worship the "gods" but to work for "them".

At this point in time, another question arises: these we only created man? And the woman? Did not written that Elohim created grandes poderes e conhecimentos técnicos em todos os ramos da Ciência, não puderam evitar, ou prever, que o homem adquirisse a dádiva de também CRIAR vida, a partir da união sexual, e da auto superação. Acertadamente, os Elohim, julgaram que raças híbridas não tivessem o poder da procriação. Em teoria isto é verdade, mas até certo ponto. A Natureza sempre encontra um meio de tingir a perpetuação das espécies. Os Elohim não colocaram em suas equações aqueles “fator desconhecido e infinito”, o pivot de todas as grande mudanças, lances, fracassos, vitórias inesperadas. O imprevisível ocorreu em algum ponto nebuloso da proto-história, há milhares de anos, certamente muitos milhares de anos, quando os helenos nem eram sonhados na face da Terra; e os Egípcios, chineses, ou assírios e acadianos, ou qualquer outro povo antigo de que se guarda memória, ainda pertenciam a um futuro muitíssimo distante.

Então os “deuses” exclamaram assustados: “Vejam, o homem se tornou como um de nós”. O alarme, colocado na boca do “Criador Bíblico” (Gênesis III –22) foi deturpado, pois deveria ser: “vejam, o homem tornou-se como um de nós, com a capacidade de procriar, atingindo a capacidade além do previsto”.

Repare-se que o versículo pertence ao Capítulo descrevendo “a queda de Adão”. E por que desta “queda”? É dito ter sido motivada pela “desobediência” em “em comer do fruto proibido, ou melhor, de Adão ‘conhecer’ Eva” 18. Como se vê, as implicações da frase são inúmeras, e serão discutidas em local adequado. Atente-se também que a frase está colocada no plural (“vejam o homem tornou-se como um de nós”) Quem fala parece se dirigir a um grupo de outros seres iguais ele mesmo: “divinos”. E não há esoterista que desconheça o significado do “Fruto Proibido”.

A que, afinal, devemos tal mudança man in his image and likeness, the image of Elohim He created him; male and female created? The phrase seems to indicate that Elohim created originally an androgynous being. Later Elohim says fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth. But how could a man, and only in the newly created Eden fruitful and replenish the earth if not androgynous. Remember that Eve, by this time, had not yet been created. That the question arises: "How could Adam was created in the image of Elohim, male and female, unless the Elohim were male and female also?

Returning the name Elohim already seen give a female power connected to a masculine idea. Elohim was a hermaphrodite. No one can deny that this is the idea conveyed by the text. Or Elohim was, or is to be a hermaphrodite, or there was a single "God", but several: males and females. In fact the two statements are correct. Elohim was, or is, in fact a hermaphrodite. The Elohim were several "gods", which might or not be hermaphrodites. This is made explicit when, in Genesis (III, 22), "God proclaims fearful:" And God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us. " (Since then, this "god" demand for all forms destgruir man. Why? ").

Before anyone give me the concept of "Trinity" to justify all this plural (we, do, etc.) contained in the text, esclreço that the concept of the Trinity exists only in the New Testament, that is, centuries after the writing of the Genesis. And, anyway, for influence, as you all know (or pretend not to know), the polytheistic religions that have had great influence on Christianity during its growth. Affirms the Church of Rome: "The Trinity is the term used to define the central doctrine of the Christian religion ..." So, in the words of the Athanasian Creed: 'The Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God; and yet they are not three Gods, but one God "(The Catholic Encyclopedia). The word Trinity was never recorded in the

A que, afinal, devemos tal mudança na biologia do homem, para que ele pudesse adquirir o dom da procriação?

É uma resposta fácil. Os Beni-ha-Elohim (Filhos de Elohim) foram os inconscientes agentes do maravilhoso incidente quando, inadvertidamente, “uniram-se às filhas dos homens”.

Aqui abrimos um parêntesis:

“Em Gênesis VI, vemos que “deus” decide fazer desaparecer o homem da face da Terra. E por que esta ira contra nós?”^

O Gênesis relata que os Beni-ha-Elohim olharam as “filhas dos homens e as acharam atraentes”. Desceram de suas “alturas celestiais” e mantiveram relações com elas e, dessa união nasceu uma raça de gigantes chamados Nephlim. Estes descendentes dos Beni-ha-Elohim e das mulheres terrestres foram os “heróis” do passado, homens de renome. Aqui cabe uma pergunta: se considerarmos os “Filhos dos Deuses” (Beni-ha Elohim) como seres espirituais, como, então poderiam sentir-se sexualmente atraídos pelas “Filhas dos Homens”, as quais evidentemente possuíam corpos materiais? E se os Filhos dos Deuses não eram espirituais, então, este “deus” e “deuses” também não eram espíritos. Seriam de carne e sangue e ossos como nós? E se isto corresponde à verdade, então, contradiz a idéia que temos desses “deuses”, inclusive Yheve.

Seguindo os eventos acima, “O Senhor” enviou o Dilúvio sobre a Terra como forma de castigo. Mas esta punição NÃO FOI EXECUTADA POR CAUSA DOS “PECADOS DOS BENI-HA-ELOHIM”, MAS AQUELES DOS HOMENS (?). E isto deve nos fazer parar e pensar um pouco. Afinal, não foram os Filhos dos Deuses que procuraram as “Filhas dos Homens”? Chamo a atenção para o fato de que na Bíblia, a tradução para Elohim é “deus”, no singular; o que está errado, pois a tradução correta para word trinity was never recorded in the Pentateuch, and found no place in the theology of the Church of Rome but already in the fourth century. So it's a recent'm in.. But not all Christians admit the Holy Trinity. Various branches of Protestantism to repel as idolatry. I would also add homosexuality, because where is the female part? Thus, successively, the biblical text displays their inconsistencies. But there are people who do not support the discussion of these salutary glaring contradictions. Truths molest the complacency, blind faith, and the stupidity of many who passively swallow everything that is considered "sacred", coming from men or churches said infallible. This happens not only religious: the esoteric as well. Not nurturing, however, pretend to write for them. Aptly said a sage: "In order to flar about the truth, it is necessary to expose untruths that man accepted as if they were true."

The time and human progress, even if slowly dragging, will destroy, gradually everything that does not actually foundation. Thus, as in the past, so now, how many things we have accepted and practiced that will be recognized as ridiculous in the future?

But let us stop a little. Could it be that the biblical narratives are untrue? Or is that the error is in us, consisting in the way of how we interpret them? Certainly, I am not taking into account the deliberate misrepresentations made over the centuries most of the sacred texts. Unfortunately, we have to live with all political and religious machinations. But much remained intact, escaping the distorters. It would be almost impossible, and would take a lot of our time, speak about all intruders from the past and present, related to the movements of fraud. As science goes, and that new discoveries

Elohim é “eles os deuses”, no plural.

Ora, se houve transgressão das ordens de “deus”, esta foi dos Filhos de Deus (ou deuses), e não dos homens e mulheres da Terra. Os “Filhos dos Deuses” é que deveriam ser punidos, não nós. A incongruência é marcante.. Eles cometem pecado e nós é que pagamos.

No livro dos Salmos é dito que “deus” tomou seu lugar na “Corte do Céu para deliberar julgamento entre os “deuses”, e conclui: “Até quando julgareis injustamente e tomareis partido dos ímpios?19Eu digo sois deuses, sois todos filhos do Altíssimo. Todavia, como os homens morrereis e, como qualquer dos príncipes, haveis de sucumbir”. Aqui o “Senhor” julga os membros da Corte do Céu e os condena à queda por suas falhas. Esta queda consistindo na passagem da imortalidade à mortalidade, ou queda de poder, ou ambas as coisas. Ma não implica uma queda dos “céus”. Observem que ele, o Senhor, dirige-se a seus pares e não aos homens. Também não existe qualquer indicação qual a falta em que caíram os “Filhos de Deus”, e nem é dito que “deuses” eram estes, e muito menos o número deles. Mas nós sabemos que falha haviam cometido aqueles “deuses”. Eles tinham tomado partido dos homens, pois o “senhor” havia condenado a raça humana ao extermínio.

Uma das mais antigas versões a respeito da ruína dos Beni-ha-Elohim (anjos?) encontramos no Primeiro Livro de Enoque. No texto , é descrita uma “viagem de inspeção que Enoque faz em torno da Terra”, a mando de “deus”. Durante esta “viagem”, Enoque viu os Filhos de Deus em seu estado de ruína, e aprendeu sua história.

Aqui eu gostaria que me explicassem que “viagem de inspeção” seria esta. Será que “deus” necessita que um ou mais de seus comandados façam “inspeção” em seu reino? Por que “deus” usaria um ser humano mortal nesta função? Outra vez:

are made, ignorance crumbles; fanaticism relents, and the mysteries tend to disappear. Until yesterday, the astronomers were unanimous in their claims that there was no water on the moon. Today we know that the statement was false.

Yet still exist those seeking to hide light, intended to maintain the mystifications through despotism Mystic, exercise great power dirty "life." I refer here to the "tion", the "Theosophists", the priests, the pastors, the "gurus", and all existing anti-human ilk. Above, I considered that perhaps the Biblical narratives are to the truth, and the whole problem resides in the interpretation of these narratives.

As a boy I liked folear books mue father, especially those containing drawings schemes radio. Was fascinated by those "lines" and those numbers, letters, etc.. A mystery, a spell. I could never guess that it was a technical showing, in detail, how to build a radio transmitting device. When my father claimed to be a radio that I looked confusing to the radio room and the diagrams in front of me, without seeing any relationship between the two. Maybe the same problem, keeping the proper proportions, happen with sacred texts, and especially with the circles and pentacles, traits, sacred names and pictures used in Magic. Perhaps we are seeing these things wrong. The account of the sacred texts may be describing facts or things, or events, that our ancestors received from someone (or somewhere) but, over time, lost its real meaning in hands less prepared to understand them properly and that, therefore, the reports turned into religious and magic symbols. It also emerged the idea that only "Initiated", or demi-gods, or gods (in short: special creatures) could handle them properly. In Magic the idea is much more striking.

When I began my study of the Enochian system of Magic, I encountered several "schemes magic" and the coded language called Enochian. This language possessing humano mortal nesta língua? Outra vez, onde está a onipresença de “deus”?

Mais uma vez bato na pergunta anterior: como puderam os “Filhos de Deus” unirem-se às “Filhas dos Homens”? Tinham eles, por acaso, desejos sexuais como nós? Se afirmativo, como pode ser isto se eles eram “Filhos de Deus” e, é de se acreditar, da mesma substância do Pai? Ou será que tal “deus” não é bem aquilo que nos fizeram crer que fosse?

“Quando os Filhos de Deus possuíram as Filhas dos Homens, estas lhes deram filhos”. Mais uma questão ergue-se: como podem nascer filhos do acasalamento de “seres espirituais” com seres materiais.

É importantíssimo gravarmos os relatos, pois deles, concluiremos que os tais “Filhos de Deus” possuíam corpos materiais, necessitavam de contato físico (sexual) para gerar filhos, o que os torna iguais a nós. Daí em diante passamos a meditar seriamente na “estória” de Espírito Santo e Maria.

called Enochian. This language possessing a perfect structure. Who created (or invented) that language? Dr. Dee22 claimed to have received it from "Angels". Without being philologist ... I am personally convinced that we have the fragmentary pieces of a language much older than Sanskrit "(I.Regardie). The scheme that caught my attention (called Sigils of Governors of the Thirty Aethyrs) is shown on page 46 of this study. Appears with a radio system. The similarity is too great to be coincidence. We have examples of this in various magical texts, and other both considered sacred.

Personally, these figures, these risks, these secrets are not schemes of a radio transmitting device, or any other type of electronic device, but a circuit diagram of the human brain itself. It's a pretty bold assumption, but it's the only one I have, because from experience, I had the confirmation that the system works.

The RIB ADAM (ADAM)

In Chapter II - 18 (Genesis), we find the "story" of the creation of Eve (HVV): "And the Lord said: It is not good that man should be alone: I will make him a helper you must be adequate. " The original is "A companion in front of him." (The phrase "before him" may indicate a change in position of copulation, which in times of primates was carried out "in the back" like all animals, except homem. Mas can also mean the end of androgenismo.) Which totally changes the meaning of the phrase translated in the Vulgate. The Vs 21 and 22 of the same chapter II, relate how Eve was created: "So the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall on one man, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. And the rib, which God had taken from man turned on a woman, brought her (from where?) (The parentheses are mine). At this point my questions increase, because as previously observed (Vs I.Ch. 22:27), the Lord God had created man and woman, or at least a being with both sexes. But why on d `Water God used the rib from Adam to make Eve it? Could not have done it the same way as Adam created? Why the difference between the processes of creation? And what is the need to make Adam fall into "deep sleep", to revoke the rib? Adam would sleep a type of anesthesia applied to the patient during the "divine surgery"? The God would need this feature? If the contact is actually about "Ze Arigo," then he (or "spirits" that meet), a technique has much improved than that of "God". That is, performs surgical operations without pain and bleeding.

However, it happens that the word "You" means both "rib" and "origin of life". And we all know that the origin of life is the sperm containing the genetic unit. The name Eve also means "life." According to Langbein, the passage about the creation of Eve should be translated as follows: "The gods used the origin of life (Ti, or sperm) from Adam to create Eve." This means that, then extract the sperm from the body of Adam, Elohim (gods) incorporated it to other cells, perhaps primates. Thus, Eve was created "in vitro", by simple and direct genetic manipulation, the same way that the test tube babies today. Or artificially fertilized the egg of some "goddess", ie a female of his own race. This "goddess" was the mother of mankind, as Eve is called in the Bible - The Mother of Humanity. She is represented in mother of humanity. She is represented in other traditions by various names: Isis, Astarte, Gea, Nuit, Kali, etc..

On the other hand we have kabalistically "Eva" is a part of the name YHVH (Iod He Vau He) thus: IOD (HVH = Eve). Of course the Iod represents here the sperm.

Do not judge, or a materialist atheist. I'm not! My idea of God overcomes all the limitations that men foolishly attach to the Cosmic Divinity. For me, the "god" of religion is nothing more than a scam. The True God is above and beyond that they present and worshiping with all the paraphernalia ridiculous that we know. I do not believe in "god" of the Churches. This "god" does not exist.

To me this whole smorgasbord described in the Bible and other sacred texts scattered over the face of the earth, it is as distant events in time, the first to record them already had received the truncated and "adorned" by the spirit of superstition and foolishly misplaced beliefs. They can be at most metaphors.

It is my opinion that those "higher beings" (which were not gods) creators of man, there were very up this planet (although some have been here), and Science who gave us was partly forgotten, and the good inherent powers man received them also was misrepresented in religions, which, in turn, became a debased form of "Original Religion".

Not conceive of God, the Supreme Intelligence, the Perfection, the Great Creator, has given rise to so many paradoxes and so many mistakes. Likewise do not understand Him giving the origins beings with negative attributes. I can not admit the idea of an Adam, who saw God face to face, made in the image and likeness of this God, have eaten at the first temptation of the "Forbidden Fruit", to which God himself had called attention wickedly arousing their interest. A fruit that, as the "God" commanded Adam to this, should be EATEN that man (Adam) grow and multiply on the earth. Yes, why "God" commanded the man to grow and multiply. And how he wanted "it" for it to be if man had not "eaten" the "fruit" of the Tree? How could the Supreme Creator, oniciente not know that the man disobey the first chance? Does everything was solely a comedy? How could it be that God, the omnipresent and oniciente, unaware that some "angels" try to subvert the Divine Realm? Does the omnipresence of God is a fable? And He does not have this omnipresence and omniscience, how could God?

The Bible shows many inconsistencies that shocks most rudimentary intelligence, such as worshipping a god commanding the rape of virgins and sacrifice of innocent children. This perverse God could never be the father of the gentle Jesus. A god giving preference to the odor of burning flesh offered by Abel, the delicate scent of the fruit of the land, offered by Cain, could not be a god, or a spirit immaculate.

In an interesting passage of the Flood account, we find: "Noah built an altar to the Lord, and took of every clean animal and clean bird and offered burnt offerings on the altar. The Lord breathed in the sweet smell and he said to himself. I do not ever curse the ground because of man ... "After all, that God would be this that makes bribing the offering of a mortal? What God is this that "breathes" and like the smell of blood and burnt flesh? It seems like any being, delighting before a barbecue. No! For me this is not the Supreme God, the Creator of the Universe, the Pure Spirit, but some human being like us, or at most, would be a demon, one of those invented by religions.

THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS

In 1947, we found the famous Dead Sea Scrolls at Qumran (site located in a desert region, next to the Dead Sea). These manuscripts are dated to approximately 2000 years. The documents are now known as "The Dead Sea Scrolls", and are stored in the Museum of the Book in Jerusalem. The translation of these manuscripts begin to bring to light several interesting points, not only referring to the Old Testament but also the New. Through them confirmed the existence of the Essenes - Jewish fraternities antiquíssima one shrouded in mystery, constantly cited by esoteric of all ages, just not sure if he had of their existence.

As mentioned in another chapter in one of these documents, specifically found in Cave I, "the second column tells a story rather unusual: Lamech, suspected his wife had deceived him with one of the fallen angels (impregnating). The negative woman unconvincing Lamech, and this asks the father, Methuselah, who travels to paradise (Eden), and obtain confirmation of his father Enoch (who was taken to heaven in a "chariot of fire").

Let's look at the text:

Behold, then I thought in my heart that conception (was) if the Guardians and the Saints ... and the Giants ... and my heart was troubled within me because of this child. Ent / when I, Lamech, approached me without delay Betenós [my wife] and said to him: ... the Most High, the Great Lord, the King of all worlds and the ruler of the Sons of Heaven, till thou me contes all things true, if ... Tell me [this truth], and do not lie ... by King of all worlds until you contes me the truth and not lie. "

"So Betenós, my wife told me earnestly [and] .. said: O my brother, O my lord, remember my pleasure ... lying together and my soul inside your body. [And I say] all things of truth. "

"My heart was troubled within me too, and quazndo Betenós, my wife saw that the expression of my face changed ... then she mastered her anger and spoke to me and said, O my lord, my brother remember my pleasure! I swear by the Holy Great, the King of [Heaven] .. this seed is yours and that [this] concept comes from you. This fruit was planted by you ... and not by some stranger or Guardian or Son of Heaven .. [Why] the expression of your face became well and became discouraged, and your spirit is so interwoven ... I speak the truth. "

"Then I, Lamech, Methuselah ran to my father, and [I told him] all these things. [And that was asked Enoch] his father, for surely it would know all things. For he was loved and shared the fate [angels] who taught him everything. And while Methuselah heard [my words he was] Enoch his father to learn the truth about his all things ... his will. "

truth about him all things ... his will. "

The first part of the text describes clearly a marital discussion, where mistrust of infidelity is the central theme. However, because I know the type of surprise distrust of Lamech. He does not suspect that his wife has betrayed him with a mere mortal, BUT WITH A GUARDIAN ANGEL OR (MESSENGER).

This, at least, amazes us. Indicates that such "angels" or "Guardians" were material beings with bodies and sexual desire for women taken from the earth, and that they not infrequently indulged their passion for. This is evident in the text. Atravéz him, it appears that it would be common for a woman to copulate with some "angel". Incredible! Not surprising because the Church considered the Book of Enoch as a banned book, "apocryphal", as they say. The term "apocrypha" is used by the Church in order to fake, when in reality, the term means "SECRET"

What causes most haunting, off suspicion of betrayal by the woman Metenós with an "angel", is that Lamech asks his father Methuselah, THAT GO TO PARADISE (Eden) talk to Enoch. This is exactly what is in the text.

Many questions, then, occurs in about this Paradise. Would be geographically located somewhere on the surface of the Earth, which could "travel" we travel, for example, to Sao Paulo? So far for me (and many others), Eden or Paradise (or Heaven) consisted of a place located in another plane of existence (Spiritual). Where the Angels, Archangels, and Holy Souls had existence. Everything indicated a local "spiritual", where only those entries have (according to religious belief) who died without sin. Whether this location call up Eden, Paradise, Shangri-La, Duat, Valhalla, etc.. Also watch out for the annoying fact that Enoch was "living" among "angels" or "guardian", sharing with them at their destination. Further: had "knowledge" of all things, that is, what did these angels and guardians.

In another passage of the 1] Book of Enoch is said that he performed "inspection trips around the Earth, suggesting he occupying the position of" inspector "directly connected to the Lord God. And this "god" insisted on receiving reports from his reign, like a king or a common ruler. This can only conclude that such a paradise described in the Bible refers to something else, is not spoken of Heaven religions. And that "God" employed "inspectors" (or spies) even among land, to know the situation of the kingdom.

Lamech speaks of "angels" as "guardians of heaven." Here stands an interesting question: what sort of guardians "angelic" were the ones who roamed the cities of antiquity and, often, conquered women from men? Here is something very intriguing.

Vimanas

Tradition is not only in Hebrew we find references to the singular "gods" and their adventures on Earth. In other antiquísimos texts and documents forming the Tradition of the Peoples East, particularly in India, there are scary stories. There arise reference to the abduction of women by the "gods". In India the "gods" used the Vimana, for these feats. They were as "playboys" of the time in their luxurious winged cars (Vimanas).

According to experts in the field, Vimanas were "carriages" flying, used by "gods" and heroes in travel and in battles. Vimanas are part of ancient legends hindustanicas, common on the banks of the Ganges, as the legends of Thor and his magical hammer are the Nordic countries.

More recently is that, in Europe through various scholars of the subject (experts in Sanskrit), Vimanas began to occupy a prominent place in these studies.

Previously, researchers have found that they not offered due importance. Took these "coaches" as mere imaginative fantasies common to all people still living in childhood.

However, if these "legends" related to "aircraft" piloted by the heroes of the Ramayana, the Mahabharata and the Puranas, it caught the attention of researchers from the XIX century, the situation changed shortly after the end of World War II .

Note that in the Hindu Tradition, Vimanas appear several times in the scenario of a devastating war, occurred for thousands of centuries in the Gangetic region. We were very surprised at the detail with which they are described, and the feats performed by one of the combatants, name Cukra. Aboard his Vimana she casts on an enemy city, a projectile CONTAINING THE POWERS OF

THE UNIVERSE.: "A flash like ten thousand suns." This is a description that evoked nothing to scholars of the nineteenth century, but then awakens sinister thoughts in our time, because we keep on remembering recent events that occurred at the end of the Second World War: the specter of nuclear explosion in Hiroshima and Nagasaki. The image comes to mind with all its horror, and also reminds us of the terrible occurrence in Sodom and Gomorrah, when Yaveh tried to destroy the human race, at least part of it, without success. Let us now see the translation of Dronaparva and we compare with the reports of the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, and then, with the explosion of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

"We saw something in the sky like a cloud scarlet, like the flames of a burning fire. This mass emerged a huge Vimana painted black which launched numerous flaming projectiles; noise it made when approaching the ground at an amazing speed, launching the mouth of numerous weapons glittering like gold, thousands of lightning accompanied by violent explosions and hundreds of wheels fire. It was a grisly scene, during which thousands of fallen soldiers killed by the explosions. The army was in disarray chased by horrible Vimana to be totally annihilated "

I think have seen these scenes a few years ago, when the cities of Iraq, especially Baghdad were bombed by airplanes (black) U.S. Air Force. Likewise missiles were launched on Baghdad. Terrible weapons, such as those described in Dronaparva were used by both sides.

Blavatsky says that the Mahabharata war between the states Suryavansas (sun worshipers) and Indavansas (worshipers of the Moon), a conflict of great esoteric meaning, and in my opinion describing a battle for possession of the Earth between two factions of beings coming space. Or (who knows?) The clash between the armies and those remaining Atlantean Empire of Rama, the great rival of Atlantida.

"And the gods in cars transported in clouds came to see the show."

"Brilliant in its splendor Adityas, Maruts in mobile car (Book I, Cap4).

"Yudihisthir convened an assembly to proclaim his supremacy over all the kings of Bharatha (India)"

"Bright immortal dresses sunlight crossed the sky."

"And his dazzling running vimanas clouds rested on the high towers."

Compare now these descriptions with the following texts taken from the Bible.

"I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him" (I Kings 22, 19)

"So Yaveh descended to see the city and the tower, which the children of men build (whose top reaches to heaven) - the brackets are our

"And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah and all the land of the plain, and saw that the land rose as fumarada smoke of a furnace" (Genesis 19 -28)

Only one difference: the sacred texts of India are clearer than those of the Old Testament, this is because the Hindu texts were kept in full, and they had no intervention "other hands"

Take, for example, the following taken from the tradition of India: "In the terrible battle those darts O King, as the very sun's rays at a time covered all quadrants around, the sky and the troops. Numerous iron balls also, O King, later appeared as shining lights in the firmament. Shataghni, some equipped with four others with two wheels, and numerous clubs and discs with razor-sharp edges and shining like the sun appeared there too "

The description suggests a fleet of spaceships and flak.

I advise readers to read some books on the subject in order to reach personal conclusions. At the end I present a list of interesting titles.

In an excerpt from the "Mahabharata" we read:

"The corpses were so burned
could not be recognized.
The hair and nails cíaíram

.....
.....

The birds became white
... After hours
All foods were infected
... to escape from this fire soldiers threw themselves in streams to wash your body and your equipment.

From all corners of the earth we hear references to strange occurrences, suggesting disasters and terrible wars in the distant past. But not all speak of war or disaster. In Tibet, some of these references are more recent.

In 1945, a professor of ethnology acquired a curious piece of India. It was a convex disc made of foreign material. The center of this disk had a drawing of a star (or sol) with twelve spokes, which appeared two tracks extending to the edge in a spiral from left to right. In one of those bands saw himself portrayed various symbols and figures of animals. The most intriguing of this object is that he lost or gained weight over a period of three hours.

The album went on to be known as the "Disk Lolladf.Sendo subjected to various tests, confirmed these anomalous characteristics.

A professor at the University of Oxford (Dr. Karl Robin-Evans) deepened the study of the disc. And because of his research became the first white man to know and have access to legendary Dzopa people, who lived among the highest mountains northwest of Tibet. And thus discovered the source disk

The tradition Dzopa account that they are descended from beings who came from the stars, and accidentally stayed on Earth in the year 1077 of our era. An enormous starship coming from Sirius, suffered a crash, crashing into the mountains of Tibet.

The Disk Lolladof

Many of the crew of this ship died, but others survived. The latter had great difficulties to adapt to new conditions of life. It is said that adaptation is due to the help of earthlings. Gaining confidence that people, Dr. Evans was taken to the "palace" where resided the leader of the people. It was a huge structure. A mile long seventy feet high. To penetrate the palace is that Dr. Evans, stupefied, be realized within a large metal structure shaped cigar. The palace was the remains of the mother ship to transport the aliens. This is just a summary of what happened. There are several books dealing with the subject in depth (see "Sun Gods in Exile"). There is more knowledge that practically was withheld from the public. And today has been "disproved" by those in power. On the page we display the photo disc. Let us return, however, to the Hebrews, precisely the famous "Noah's Ark", built to this biblical character was saved along with his family, the "Flood". And God said to Noah: "Now is the end of all flesh, I decided, for the earth is filled with violence because of men, and I'll disappear from the Earth. Bring the ark ...: for the length of the ark 300 cubits, its width to 50 cubits in its height 30 cubits .. all that lives, of all that is flesh shalt thou bring into the ark two of every kind, a male and a female, to keep them alive with you. " ... "And I will disappear from the soil all beings who did." This sentence seems to imply that Noah and his family would not have been made by God, nor the animals brought by Noah Noah would be different from the rest of the men?

. But let us note that there are several contradictions.

1) If God decided to have reached the end of all flesh on earth, why, then, "warned" about Noah's Flood, and he built the ark to save himself with his family (His Noah), and couples all existing animals? After all, God wanted or not the end of all flesh on earth?

2) Note also, and with care, God says: "And I will disappear from the soil all beings who did."

3) Further, God commands Noah, "Be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth."

Very strange this command of God, even though we have already seen elsewhere (Genesis). After all, God did not want to exterminate "all flesh from the earth"? Did Noah was not meat? Or will their biological constitution had to be different from ours? Our? No! If so we would not be here. The Bible, are the descendants of Noah, the Flood survivors. Because, logically, stated in the Bible, ourselves survivors of the cataclysm (the Flood). We can also conclude that we are not made that "flesh" which God wanted to rid the earth.

On the other hand, how can God withdraw his "divine decision?" What he went back on his determination to "extinguish all flesh on the earth" is clear: After being saved Noah's Flood, and built an altar to thank "god "for his salvation and his relatives, he offers sacrifice of various animals (which couple sacrifice of various animals (which couple was sacrificed?). And the following happens: "The Lord breathed the pleasant odor and said to himself: I never curse the earth because of man ..."

Repented "god" of their violence against men? Or that there were more men on earth, for it to be cursed and, therefore, the flood had hit the purposes of "God"? Noah was not a man land? Or did Noah and his family from a different race? All this is very strange because it reveals a "god" features quite contradictory, which, for me, it is a great absurdity. Or will this character was not God? And he was so fond of burned flesh and blood?

Now let us see the features of this ark (boat) We know that a cubit equals 45 cm. So this gives us a length for the Ark of $45\text{cm} \times 300 = 135\text{m}$, width $50 \times 45 = 22\text{m}$, its height $30 \times 45 = 13.5\text{ m}$, This gives us a cube of $135 \times 22 \times 13 = 38,610\text{ m}^3$. Is this a sufficient volume to contain all the pairs of animals on Earth? Notice that here we do not include the volume of food needed for these animals and to humans on board for 150 days, time that lasted the Flood. Just as a comment, we could imagine how much per day, eat two elephants. Unfortunately to believe this "story". Or she is told badly or is pure fabrication. In fact, it comes to an event so far away in time, few details have come down to us, or were carefully veiled.

Another puzzle is that both Noah as their family members were representatives of the Semitic race (white). How, then, came the other races? Whence came the blacks and yellows? How did the people of Australia, and the Indians of the Americas?

My deduction is that the Ark really existed. But not the way it is in the Bible. There is only one explanation for this "story". The Ark was a type of vessel (not made of wood), within which Noah, his family (or buddies) escaped a disaster caused by the "gods", ie: the lords of the Weave. And this "Ark" fugitives took specimens of all animals, but in test tubes, ie took carefully preserved, fertilized eggs, the same way that today is already done with human embryos. Nothing more than that. The tradition came to us in the form of "story of Noah's ark."

Another detail to draw attention is the available time for Noah to build the ark. Seven days. How could four men and four women (Noah and his sons Shem, Can Jefe and his wife and the wives of his sons) to build a ship the size of Noah in seven days (remember that "God" created the world in "seven days"). Of course, the feat is impossible. Likewise the feat of Jonah swallowed by the whale (or fish of the same), tells the same "story" but differently. Only Jonah gives us a description of a submarine, in which one character retreats to be saved from your enemies.

Some legends also say that one of the tribes of Israel - the famous Lost Tribe of Israel - emigrated to the Americas in boats underwater.

These events, of course, there were thousands of centuries before the Hebrews appear on earth. They just compiled in supposedly sacred texts, oral traditions (and perhaps some written) provided to them, the same way that the people of the Peninsula Hindustani, Tibet, China, Greece, etc., having similar tales to those of Jews. Are not only the biblical texts relating the Flood. There are several other traditions telling them "events".

Probably the same way that Dzopas arrived on Earth, the "story" of Noah can hide similar fact.

Could this be the whale that swallowed Jonah?

INCREDIBLE DISCOVERIES OF THE PAST

When a group of archaeologists were digging a tomb near Saqqara (Egypt) in 1891, found a small object made of sycamore, resembling the shape of a bird. The object as the rest of the contents of this burial chamber dating from 200 BC. Very little attention was given to the object in question until 80 years after its discovery. Several years after Santos Dumond having performed his historic flight, and enter the era of modern aviation, the new generation of archaeologists realized that the artifact was strangely resembled an airplane. The appearance was so extraordinary that a group of experts in aeronautics gathered in the following years to study and discuss this hypothesis. Your tests and studies have revealed that the object (over 90 cm) had a perfect aerodynamics. In fact, an aeronautical engineer noticed a striking similarity between the object and Saqqara current oblique plane wings that NASA planned to build. And when the little relic was subjected to rigorous testing - an experience in a wind tunnel - it rose into the air with ease and grace of a modern glider. Researchers and technicians the conclusion was unanimous: the object built two thousand years ago, was a model airplane. This object is in the Egyptian Museum of Antiquity under the number 6347. On page 49 of "Vimana" by David Hatcher Childress, is a photograph of the object in question.

is a photograph of the object in question.

It is tempting to dismiss the Saqqara artifact as an oddity, a single piece wrongly placed in incomplete mosaic of history. However, it is also difficult to show that such an object has been done naively by the ancient Egyptians. Also exist in other cultures (Plus, Azteca, etc.) similar items found by archaeologists.

Currently, using refined instruments to explore the past, archaeologists have identified a large number of traces emerging as unlikely in its primitive contexts such as, for example, the time of the cave men using headphones on.

The Egyptians of antiquity possessed a great knowledge of the Natural Laws of Numbers, among many other things. Only recently been discovered, with the help of the electron microscope that the sperm is formed of a "head" and a long tail consisting of nine spirals. It bears a center composed of nine (or multiples of nine) tubes, and these tubes direct the entire process of cell division alive, a division that is in fact a multiplication.

It is the action of the sperm that causes immediate contraction of the egg after penetration and the formation of a membrane englobarizante, thus preventing access to any other sperm, an imperceptible instant, immediately followed by the division of the cell into two new cells, which also fall in turn. Well: this process of splitting pairs is the basis of all mathematics Pharaonic, as confirmed by the famous lines below:

"I'MA it becomes TWO.
I am Two that transforms into FOUR
I'm FOUR that becomes EIGHT
After this I Am A

It may be coincidence, the above words describe also the way the Kabbalists describe the succession of the Sephiroth on the Tree of Life.

Indeed, the technical sophistication of certain ancient relics is so expressive that only recently have we begun to understand its purpose, because now we have examples in our daily lives.

Consider some of these findings.

Electric batteries dating from 100. C. - More than eighteen centuries before Benjamin Franklin receive credit for the discovery of electricity

A map of 1513, correctly drawing the line of the back of Antática before it is covered by ice, that is, for more than 6000 years. The details of this map (Map Pires Reis) were not observed except in 1949 when electronic investigations were conducted through the ice covering the continent. The important of this finding is that the map Pires Reis could only have been done by someone who was located in the space outside the Earth.

In the 80s it was discovered in the United States (Antelope Springs) marks shod feet, smashing one trilobite (a small animal existing on earth has approximately 500 million years). Perhaps this is the most striking evidence of the presence of extra-terrestrial - the "gods" - on our planet, or the existence of a high civilization in the proto-historic times.

By esoteric side we have the words of Annie Besant, Blavatsky's successor: "Extra-terrestrial came from Planet Venus (The Green) to teach the first inhabitants of the earth, and" landed "in the region of the Gobi Desert.

Here the narrative, somewhat poetic, how it happened: "So the resounding noise of his rapid descent from the heights

unfathomable, wrapped in radiant flames

unfathomable, wrapped in radiant flames that fill the empyrean long tongues of fire, throws himself through the celestial spaces CAR SONS OF FIRE, the Lords of Flame ... and he stops, plan on the White Island which lies smiling on the bosom of the Gobi Sea, green and radiant in their mass flowering of a thousand colors and rare fragrances, the loveliest Jewelry offered by Earth to welcome their king, Lo, Sanat Kumara. The descent of these beings in so Gobi Sea (now the Gobi Desert - Asia) reminds us of another fact - this very recent - linked to this region of the globe: the great enigma of the Siberian explosion.

For nearly ninety years happened in Siberia something unprecedented - an explosion unlike any other that the earth had witnessed, and the mystery continues today "insoluble", at least that's said by "Science Journal".

Here's how to describe what happened John Baxter and Thomas Atkins ("Selection of Read's Digest" - Volume XIV, No. 85 - June 1978.): "On the morning of June 30, 1908, caravans crossing the Gobi desert hold up and come frightened the fireball which presents a risk of fire in the sky and disappears on the Mongolian border. Dipping in denser layers of air, she fulge to 2,800 degrees centigrade.

In central Russia a deafening terrorizes the inhabitants of some villages. Then the 7:17 pm, the Central Siberian Plateau, near the Tunguska River - a region barren subarctic - shudders under the impact of a cataclysmic explosion. Standing as violent detonation that the seismic center of Irkutsk, about 900 miles south, records earthquake tremors proportions. Seismographs are also activated in Saint Petersburg (3500 km west), Jena, Germany (5,200 km), and even in Washington, DC, and Java.

Instantly, a huge pillar of fire reached such a height that it becomes visible to Siberian astonished in various cities hundreds of miles. Then the air is turbulent by high-sounding a series of crashes, listen to more than 900 kilometers.

While a blinding pillar of fire rises into the sky, a searing thermal scans the taiga.

(Northern forest) burning up the tall conifers and setting fires that will last several days.

Trees are dragged, destroyed huts, men and animals scattered like dust grains when the torrid scorching breath of air is followed by three shock waves in rapid succession.

The destruction of the shock continues to show us that something new had happened that day.

A newspaper Irkutsk narrates that one morning in June, a village about 650 km North, peasants had seen a body glow with a blue light whitish, too dazzling to behold the naked eye. The body moved in downward direction for 10 minutes. Had the tube shape, that is, it was cylindrical. Once dropped, formaou up a huge cloud of black smoke. There was a burst like a cannon, and all the buildings shook and a jagged tongue of flame burst through the cloud.

In 1945, U.S. nuclear bomb was dropped on Hiroshima. Aleksander Kazantsev, technologist and researcher was during the Second World War, chief engineer of a complex defense, and was among the Russian scientists who evaluated the data of the city destroyed by the atomic bomb in 1945, and visited in scientific research.

The trip had the character of a grim vaguely remembered dream: visions strangely familiar phenomena he had witnessed before. In many ways, Hiroshima resembled photographs of Tunguska explosion.

An atomic bomb in 1908? Unbelievable. But Kazantsev had an explanation: "a spaceship, presumably from Mars, had chosen the 23 northern Siberia to descend on Earth." But the ship had to runaway bursting in air. Kazantsev presented this theory in 1946.

But it could be that what has happened in Tunguska represents something even more amazing: the explosion of a nuclear device

"interplanetary". That is the original name

'inter temporal'. That is, the enemies' space 'Lords of Flame' released the artifact against those who went down there for thousands of years ago, hoping to hit them when they were installed, centuries ahead. But something went wrong, and inter temporal bomb exploded at the present time, thousands of years overdue.

"Miscalculation? Error targeting? Crazy despair of the cast? And other issues, of course, we will never have answers. And "thank god", it has exploded in a desolate region.

As far as new scientists can manifest the truth is: we do not know how much of wisdom and historical knowledge accumulated by men, was lost in wars, natural disasters or deliberate concealment directed by agents of the Weave.

Gustav Jung, as well known for his research in the field of the human mind, speaks in what might be called the starting point of extraterrestrial involvement with regard to the origins of the human species. According to their research, "UFOs, also other symbols, are part of the collective unconscious. This fantastic thirst for human information emerges today as cultures and in all corners of the earth as something innate, genetic memory which pass from generation to generation. "

In this extensive archive of memories, gains notoriety the thesis of extra-terrestrial origins of the human race, or the interference of beings from space. Too many historians and researchers are currently changing their views of orthodoxy. They say, among other things, there is very strong evidence of the massive presence of "visitors" from other worlds.

Each time I am convinced that man is not the result of an evolution of the Earth narrowly from primates. In my thinking, and many other isolated anonymous spontaneous, that would have occurred for thousands of centuries, a migration of three different planets, not necessarily in our solar system (perhaps Sirius). who chose Earth because our planet them presented conditions for colonization and exploration of various materials on the way out on their home planets.

Most of Enoch

In Cap.X, vs. 13 of the Book of Enoch, is: "The Lord said to Gabriel (presumably one 'angel' who sided with" God "):" It hardens the wicked, to the reprobates, to the children of fornication; exterminate these sons of the Watchers (Guardians or Angels. Again confirming the union 'illegal' of the Daughters of Men with the Sons of God) incites them against each other. To perish with their own hands since his days will not be complete. "

This is an order somewhat excuse for "god." Notice that "he" uses a stratagem employed by politicians, ie, "he" does not get directly involved in the "fight". Guardian sends an ally to incite his enemies fight each other (it seems to me that the ruse worked until today). And Gabriel, an "angel" a celestial being, bows before the Machiavellian plan. Ahead (Cap.XIV, Vs 2:03) we have the word of the Lord, addressing the "fallen angels": "because forsaken the holy heights of heaven your eternal home to ..." is a call to that the 'rebels' to fight back and not for men. Vs these again have confirmation of the nature of the Beni-ha-Elohim, and once again, we ask: how is it that 'celestial spirits', possessed of holiness and eternal life (eternal in relation to land. Such eternity is relative and is due to temporal paradoxes created by space travel at high speeds, as everyone knows), unite with Earth women, who are flesh, bone and blood, giving up heaven?

According to Ernesto Bono, most of the "Book of Enoch" is totally distorted or added. Note the description of these "giants" in the Book, considered demons by the "Holy Scriptures." To me it does not seem so terrible as they want us to believe.

"After a while, my son Methuselah took a wife for his son Lamech. This became pregnant and put on the world a child whose flesh was white as snow, and as red as a rose; whose hairs were white like wool, and long and the eyes of all beauty. Had barely opened his eyes and flooded with light throughout the house, as if he were the brightness of the Sun "and barely out of the hands of the midwife opened his mouth telling the wonders of the Lord. Then Lamech, in amazement, went to Methuselah and announced to him that he had had a son "that was unlike other children. There is a man, he said, is an angel from heaven, for sure, is not of our species (the bolds are mine). He continues: "Her eyes are bright as the sun's rays, your figure is lit, does not seem to be my son, but a guardian" (idem) And now, my father, I beseech you that you will find Enoch, my grandfather and ask him seriously, because he lives with the angels. " (Book of Enoch - Chapter MIC vs. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6).

A description of the boy's father and the apprehensions, remind me of a recent science fiction film titled "THE VILLAGE OF THE DAMNED." The film shows how a group of women living in a village in the English countryside, appear pregnant after a mysterious isolation flanks. Nine months after the child is born: all white hair and bright blue eyes, and possessed of an intellect far above normal, even with the power of telepathy.

According to Besant, "The Book of Enoch" marks the Hyperborean race as a descendant of "intelligences coming from outside." and describes one of these beings.

"Tradition says, in effect, that the Hyperborean continent suffered in a particular historical moment, an abrupt cooling, connected to an unprecedented catastrophe."

It should be stated that there is a common point between all these disasters, according to the traditions of many people, destroyed several proto-historic civilizations.

Regarding the catastrophe that destroyed Atlantis have the narrative of Annie Besant:

"So were the words of condemnation pronounced by the Head of the Hierarchy, and, as he tells us the" hidden comment ":"

The High King of luminous face, the Emperor sent word to his brothers heads: Prepare ye, Arise. O my subjects, and atravessai the country while it is still dry.

The 'Scourge of the Four Great Ones' warned his people and there were many who escaped. Its the kings gathered their vimanas (spacecraft) and led us to the countries of iron and metals. "

Explosions of gases, floods and earthquakes destroyed Ruta and Daitya, the huge island of Atlantis, which had been left by the disaster to 200,000. C., but the Island Poseidonis survived as the only remnant of the huge continent of Atlantis. These islands were destroyed in 75,025 BC, the Poseidonis survived until 9564. C., when it was also immersed in the ocean "(Annie Besant -" L'Homme d'or Il Va ", pag.146

Ernesto Bono tells us that Capt. CIV the "Book of Enoch" should be authentic continuation of vs. 10 and 11 of Chapter VII.

Vs in 3:06, Lamech himself states that the "child" born of a woman is not of terrestrial species, and asks his father Methuselah to go to his grandfather, Enoch, ask for explanations (that is, who was, after all that child? Interestingly Lamech ask your grandfather "explanations" about the birth of the child) as Enoch lived with the angels. This is a highly unusual statement. Strange. Everything suggests that Enoch lived somewhere (Eden) with the Guardians and the rest of the Celestial Court. Would this place, as I asked earlier, a huge mother ship or orbital platform, or an extra base land located somewhere on Earth?

The condition of Enoch, before this "heavenly court", makes us also think of his position against their fellow humans. Was he a race traitor? A developer? Or a spy ally to men deployed in own grounds of Jehovah Elohim allies?

Ernesto Bono adds, "Thus, then, these would-be 'vigilant' or ancient astronauts, contrary to the Demiurge, transmitted to the daughters of Earth and human descent divine seed, who embellished the race, and forced the human who became a Hero. " This story reminds us of the legend of Prometheus and of course Lucifer.

For the description of the child born of woman Lamech, we see that these "giants" were not as dire as painted in "canonical" books. The idea of the church is exactly say they are "Fallen Angels", or rather, the "hell" of invented tradition for her.

As for the teachings given to men by alleged "Fallen Angels" of the Roman Church, R. stress Charroux: "you can not teach what you do not learn, if experienced, or not met, it is impossible to admit that in heaven, the angels have been able to learn the manufacture of war materials, the manufacture of gimmicks, props and shops , the art of painting the eyelids. " And brought to an Earth innocent and pure contamination ass? (This story of the corruption of mankind would not have been added by ancient Jewish scribes or even as many Christians?

And Charroux continues: "Honestly it's hard not to recognize that these" angels "have their own thoughts and experiences typically human, absolutely inconceivable and irreconcilable as an (alleged) divine nature."

"If we accept the narrative of the Book of Enoch (and other more) within a rationality, we are faced with a clear colonization of the planet by aliens coming from another orb conqueror, or of being forced to emigrate."

In reality, we realize that the teachings of the "fallen angels" (we can now replace the word 'fallen' by 'allies') directioned up towards humans defend themselves from the Demiurge and his allies (the so-called angels "unfallen ").

Thus, "fallen angels" were nothing more (or are) a pleiade Elohim, Nephilim and Benihah-Elohim revolted against the commands of his superiors hierarquicos who desired the destruction of men. What most attracts attention is that this silent war against the land located in the problem that we have achieved the ability to procreate. This was the great sin.

Note that the psychological and emotional harm imposed on us through the, so called, "Original Sin", achieves a degree improbable vision Roman Catholic. The wicked fear instilled in humans regarding the use of "sexual power", in all its expressions, culminates in the thought that every human being has his own sexual member, and "shame" he feels it.

What happened is that we are genetically programmed to work in our home ("to serve the Lord," as evangelicals). But constant unions between the races (the Children of God, the Guardians, and the Daughters of Men - course also Daughters of God and Children of Men) inserted in human genetics a factor generating a mutation unanticipated by the Elohim, creating this amazing and unpredictable race called man who dared to eat the "Forbidden Fruit." That the wrath of the Lord against the fallen angels and their offspring, the Men.

From this point of view, everything becomes clear. "One factor infinite and unknown" interfered in the plans of settlers coming from the stars, arousing the fury of some of them, the "gods", especially the Supreme Chief of the Assembly of the Gods, the Demiurge, but known as Jehovah. That our "expulsion" of the "paradise" (Eden), a metaphor for the base of aliens,

It was necessary that the "gods" do something to undo, or at least minimize, the effect produced by what happened, of course, affect the "status quo" Lords of Heaven was necessary to nip it in the root: prevent us to become what we are, and what we will be in the future, that is, self-conscious beings, capable of procreating, and endowed with endless possibilities, among which we can overcome the "gods" in many respects very special. These possibilities frightened them greatly. Self-preservation has led them to try to destroy us. However, another factor not inserted them into the equation, interjected: ie, various extra-terrestrials were placed beside the man. And attempts to destroy us radically failed for several consecutive times throughout history.

Before the Flood, Noah is told, not by "God", but by Elohim allies, giving them instructions to build the ark and saving other beings on earth.

In Sodom and Gomorrah, where focused much of human endurance, among men, Nephilim, Beni-ha-Elohim and various Elohim, the "lords" sought to eliminate all so violent and radical using for this, nuclear weapons very powerful, similar to those described in the Puranas, the Mahabharata, and other texts of the Tradition of India and other texts of the tradition of man.

Similarly to what happened with Noah and Lot, the Commander in Chief of the rebels, warned by their spies, escape, and with it much of its allies, symbolized here by the "family" of Lot. Another major rebel leader was Nimrod, the "builder of the Tower of Babel," ie, the designer of the ships that would be the main base of the "masters." He was a descendant of Noah appears like an identification between the Tower and the ark.

Given the successive failures, the "masters" began conceal their predatory acts. Finally found a more effective way to dominate us without exposing themselves, or be located by future generations: A BIG PLOT created in hiding the reality of our origin and destination. Created religions, and along with these, the dogmas and prohibitions, hypnotizing people and hiding the original truths. Took centuries this company.

Past centuries, some of the "masters" returned to their home planets. Others remained here, trying to absolute dominion over mankind. But have partly failed in this aim. Men always get in one way or another, and aided by the gods allies who were here, undo the plans of "Masters of the World." But the repeated attempts of our enemies to destroy us, has caused a lot of pain, hunger and wars, and reaching the current chaotic state of the world.

Going into this last part of our study, we will make a few comments about human evolution.

Is said to follow a spiral of evolution. This is true. It is also said that evolution is slow, and that nature does not make leaps. This may be true. However this rule was not followed by the man in his evolution, despite the protests of the learned gentlemen of Science Journal. It is undeniable, too, that the being called man, jumped from his animalistic condition for very early stage in relatively short time, which is not explained until now.

"Initially it was believed that the man appeared on the earth some 500,000 years ago in Asia (others claim it was in Africa). This "certainty" was abandoned when discovered on the African continent showed a transition from apes to hominids, there are 14 million years. Eleven million years later came the first to be worthy of such people to be classified as Homo. Other findings showed that "Australopithecus" there arose two million years. It took over a million years to Homo erectus arose. Then, after over 900,000 years comes the Primitive Man, which was called Neanderthal (their fossil remains have been found in Neanderthal).

Then, without knowing how, suddenly appears Homo Sapiens, Cro-Magnon, and makes the Neanderthals disappear from the planet's surface.

"The mystery of the appearance of Cro-Magnon complicates everything. Since several traces of modern man were discovered in such places as Steinheim and Montmaria, shows that the Cro-Magnon originated from a very early sapiens living in Central Asia and North Africa for 250,000 samples before the Cro-Magnon. "

"The emergence of the Modern Man a mere 700,000 years before Homo Erectus and about 200,000 years before Neanderthal becomes unthinkable."

Eminent authority on the subject, the Prf. Theodosius Dobzhansky, was intrigued by the fact that this development has happened at a time when the Earth passed through an age of ice, period not conducive to an evolutionary progression.

How this happened has not been determined. It is said that nature does not make leaps. But it was also observed that it follows its normal course until the moment at which any factor interferes with this new course. To me this factor was the intrusion of extra-terrestrials in this "natural course". That the great enigmas we face in our history, and are "forgotten" or "away", as if there were, by Doctors of Science Journal. But it turns out that they exist, and jump to our eyes every time we stop to think.

On the religious side of the thing becomes even more complicated.

It is said that "God" created Adam and Eve What this couple were born, initially, two sons, Cain and Abel. At one point the "history" of this couple happens a crime, the first murder (actually a fratricide). Cain kills Abel and escapes. Thus, terrestrial humanity, at the time of creation, is reduced to three individuals: Adam, Eve and Cain. But, we are told that Cain, by murdering his brother, flees to the land of Nod and there marries. WITH WHOM??

The Bible only says that Cain quickly cohabited with his wife and she conceived a son, Enoch. Note that this Enoch, son of Cain, the murderer, is the same that was brought to the "heavens" in a chariot of fire.

The Bible also says that the "Lord" said, "that whoever kills Cain shall be avenged sevenfold. He put a "sign" on Cain so that death will not hurt anyone found him. But who could find Cain, only THREE PEOPLE EXISTED IN THE WORLD: Adam, EVA, AND CAIN OWN?

According to Curtis Basil, "Cain, after murdering his brother Abel, flees to the land of Nod, on the east side of Eden, to marry a foreign woman the tribe composed only by him and his parents, modeled in clay by hands of "Lord." (This makes us think that another tribe was not taken by "Lord", of course.)

In continuation Basil Curtis explains: "Adam and Eve are classic example of this intrusion of alien beings in the odyssey of Creation.

Made these comments, let us return to the central issue.

As stated earlier, some of the "ladies" returned to their home planets. Others stayed here, including those allied men. The latter, in order to work more safely executed a plan: set up "secret groups" where, more protected, could transmit to humans, unaffected by Trama, all knowledge necessary for quick and effective material evolution, scientific and spiritual humanity, preparing it for future attacks of "gentlemen" preparing it for future attacks of "gentlemen". The plan was organized and initiated at various points of the earth almost inaccessible to "Gentlemen" remaining on Earth. Thus were born the Secret Orders and Fraternities old, and, of these, the modern, although some of them have lost by enemy infiltration over time, the very meaning of their missions.

Moreover, our allies knew that, in fact, they were not immortal (as far as they were not the "Lords"), and could not, therefore, remain personal and indefinitely "assisting" the men in the fight against their enemies. They had to prepare some men chosen to carry the plan forward to when they were no longer here, at least in material form.

To organize these "Centers of Wisdom and Knowledge", chosen men among the fittest. In this way the knowledge was kept secret from generation to generation until today. Unfortunately, many of these organizations have been infiltrated by agents of the Weave, which is also in the possession of Great Knowledge and intelligence hatched a counterattack: created religious beliefs, superstitions, dogmas, stores "black", and began to misrepresent the teachings of our allies. I draw readers' attention to the fact that "Black Lodges" mentioned here have nothing to do with the "Black Fraternity". Black Fraternity is one of the three fraternities on Earth, directed to Human Evolution. The three are: Black Fraternity, Fraternity Yellow and White Brotherhood.

This war "hidden" develops today. The knowledge of "gentlemen" and our allies, cover a huge range, with respect to the Real Science.

"But it was not enough for preserving the Knowledge of Lords was also NECESSARY disseminate among all who were able, and were not under the control of the Weave. This was, and is, the role of Secret Orders and Fraternities, arising from these three fraternities that have existence since those remote times.

The legends about the centers that community are numerous. I advise readers to study them with great attention and care, in order to "separate the wheat from the chaff." The teachings that guided the Egyptian Hierophant (which came Moses), drove the Druids, the Gnostics, the Druze, yogas, and all that, to a certain degree of human history, had in their hands the True Keys of our evolution, arising one of these three Fraternity.

Unfortunately, the human spirit is done in such a way that appeared opposites `` the Great Brotherhood ". And that paved the path for their own benefit, forgotten the black shadow of the Weave and of course linking to it.

So the Royal Schools of Initiation lurk in places impenetrable to the common man, awaiting those truly worthy of receiving his teachings. "It is necessary that the mechanism of this education is operated by qualified persons endowed with the power and energy required.

On the other hand, there are legends that mention "Shemsu Hoor" (Companions of the God Horus): Settlers from outer space, which would be the first founders of the Centers Initiation thus giving additional aid to humans. But there are also those who returned to join the enemy columns of man. This is a matter to be developed in other more extensive work.

Unfortunately Christianity, Christianity is not original, but he called the Roman, was one of these centers more infiltrated by Trama. Poor West ... has, for centuries, given his soul to a terrible "god." And this "god" exterminator loves the gases polluted the great metropolies and more than anything great metropolises, and more than anything, the smell of blood and burnt flesh of millions of human beings slaughtered in wars spreading across the planet.

I think it gave a faint idea of the keys and the sources of our misery.

"If you want to be part of a sufferers and dreamers, the only thing you have to do is to religiously follow the" Commandments "and the various dogmas of organized religions in the world ... STOP AND THINK.

As stated by a current English historian, Eric Hobsbawm, "History moves so quickly that it is difficult to say that while things will move in ten years. More than being happy and sad, I think I would have reason to be worried at the end of the century. Because there is a feeling of uncertainty about what will happen in the future. "

But if you want to wake up, then, O Brother, shake this dust that thousands of years ago you suffocate, blind and confuse your spirit free and sovereign. "Watch carefully this dark shadow creeping into our lives." So you want to run away from those who save by proxy, because behind these is THE SHADOW OF THE TOWER OF BABEL.
