

OUR qiblah

"Set up my image in the East: thou shalt buy thee an image which I will show thee, especial, not unlike the one thou knowest. And it shall be suddenly easy for thee to do this"

AL, III, 21

The This is the direction of sunrise, the birth of Light in Latin, Oriens This is, whose word derives EAST, EASTERN, and OTO. What this symbolizes heaven in Medieval Europe. For this reason the designers of that era maps usually put the East on top of her maps, the term of this Guidance.

Stores In Blue Masonry, preserving traces of ancient SOLAR CULT, the throne of Venerable Master is situated in the east, is always referred to simply as "EAST".

The Grand Lodge of the Masonic Jurisdiction is called BIG EAST.

Rituals In Lower Pentagram and Hexagram, Star Ruby and Star Saphira, Liber Pyramidos, the Gnostic Mass Thelemic Rituals and many others, Hermetic, etc., the magician starts turning Ritual This is for (or East), but this of Thelemic Rituals This is not necessarily the Compass. In the Gnostic Catholic Canon of the Mass (Liber XV), the This is defined as the "direction Boleskine". In a diary entry for October 1916 nine EV (unreleased), Crowley writes: "Shops, Campgrounds, Oasis, etc., Should always be oriented Boleskine". In Chapter 23 'MAGIC WITHOUT TEARS', he says, "remember that your" East ", the Mansion is your Kiblah Boleskine"

What is Kiblah, and why our This must be the mansion Boleskine?

The Arabic word Qiblah or qiblah, refers to the Holy Shrine of Islam. In the center of the lobby of the Grand Mosque in Mecca, there is a stone building called KA'ABAH (Cube) or Bayt-Ullah (House of God). It is said by tradition that the Ka'abah, or Kaaba was built by Ibrahim (Abraham) and Smail (Ishmael) his son, and the legendary founder of Arab race, is buried nearby. Built outside the eastern block of the Kaaba is the Hajar al-ASWAD, the Black Stone. That's what this black stone was given to Abraham by the Archangel Gabriel. Five times a day, devotees Summi Muslims turn to Mecca to worship (prayer).

The Muslims inside Mecca turn towards the Kaaba, and it is expected that every devotee at least make your life a pilgrimage to Mecca. The term Qiblah denotes not only the physical location of the Kaaba, but also, and more importantly, the DIRECTION for which a muslim (Islamist) around the face to pray. All Mosques are aligned with Kiblah. Kiblah The word derives from the Arabic root Kabala, which means being opposite. Their number 137 sum.

Kiblah, then, is the focal point of the current spell of a cult or religious system, the reservoir of magical energy that can be "used" by those who are devotees of its mysteries. Various religious systems include a similar concept. Christianity and Judaism have their Jerusalem or Mount Sinai; Hinduism, Mount Meru or Mount Kaidasa, Greeks, Mount Olympus or Onphalus in Delphos, etc. .. Thelema has Boleskine.

"Take the Stele of Revelation, put it in thy secret time ..... & Kiblah be thine forever"

AL, III, 10

In Thelemic system, the word refers to Kiblah stele Revelation, through which the Equinox of the Gods was revealed to our Prophet. The "image", "abstraction" or replica of the stele was originally placed in the house of the prophet, feudal property Boleskine and Abertarff, situated on the beach of South-East-LOCH NESS Scotland. The feud, which was home to Crowley at the time, is known simply as Boleskine, pronounced ESS-kim-Boll. Transliterated nykclwb (Hebrew) whose numerical value is 418.

"They worship thy name, foursquare, mystic, wonderful, the number of man and the name of thy house"

AL, II, 78

The Stele of Revelation Dawn of Light is the Thelemic, and as such, appropriately defines the "EAST" Thelemic. The current location of the Stele. Which was originally located in Boleskine is unknown.

"But your site will be untouched throughout the centuries: though with fire and sword it be burnt down & shattered, yet an invisible house there standeth, and shall stand until the fall of the Great Equinox; when Hrumachis shall rise up and the double-wanded assume my throne and place. Another prophet shall arise, and bring new fever of heaven; another woman shall awake the lust & worship of the Snake, another soul of God and beast shall mingle in the globed priest; another sacrifice shall stain the tomb and another King will reign, and the blessing no longer be poured To Mystic Hawk-Headed Lord. "

The location Boleskine therefore represents the Omphalos or Power Center for Thelemites, and will continue as such for the duration of AEON OF HORUS, despite the physical presence of the Stele or the Mansion. Thus, the Lodges of OTO , "Houses of Worship" and Temples of the Gnostic Mass are "targeted" to Boleskine, and a replica of the Stele of Revelation will be on the most sacred point of the super-altar in the "Middle of each temple consecrated to perform the Gnostic Mass.

The Stele of Revelation is the stone funeral ANKH-af-na-Khonsu, a priest of Monthu who lived in Thebes during the XXVI Dynasty of Ancient Egypt. According to Crowley in "ACROSS THE GULF", Ankh-af-na-Khonsu was responsible for announcing the Aeon of Osiris, Aleister Crowley assumed the identity of the magical dead man Ankh-af-na-Khonsu as the living prophet of the Aeon of HORUS, the announcer of the Book of the Law and the Law of Thelema with the archaic energies of Ancient Egypt, renewed and transformed according to the cyclical evolution of the Aeons.

In the Christian Mass, the cross is placed above the altar. The cross is a symbol of death and resurrection, and the altar is the traditional place of sacrifice. In many of them there are relics of saints buried inside, this is an old Christian custom of celebrating Mass on the tombs of martyrs. The shape and dimensions of ablonga modern Christian altars are probably derived from the shape and dimensions of Egyptian sarcophagi. The shape of the altar also reminds those of ARK OF THE COVENANT, which contained the relics secret foundation of Judaism, and about which the feminine presence of God, The SHEKNAH, it is said, appeared.

In our Gnostic Mass, the Stele of Revelation is placed above the altar. A stele is a stone memorial Ankh-af-na-Khonsu who returned from the dead to preach the Law of Thelema, and the Altar contains the dimensions of a typical Egyptian sarcophagus. Also, the height of the Altar is precisely specified poegas 44: 44 is \ d, DAM, the Hebrew word for blood, saying the altar as the place of sacrifice. One of the differences between the Christian Gnostic Mass and the Mass is that the feminine presence of God still appears on the altar in the Gnostic Mass

Stating that the altar is not only the place of sacrifice, but the place of Communion.

A Estela Cruz and serve the same function within their systems. Both are placed above the altar / sarcophagus sacrificial, as the Omphalos was placed above the burial place of Python. Symbolically, the Cross and Estela serve as a reminder of the Covenant of Resurrection between the religion's founder, who returns to life after his burial, and the participants of the ritual. Let us remember that the Greek word "Estela (Stele)" means both "memorial" and "alliance". Magically, they both serve as "portals" between the visible and the invisible world of mortality for immortality.

Remember that stele has the additional meaning of "a block of stone", corresponding to the Cross Cubic Stone, the Black Stone of the Kaaba, and Stone alchemical immortality and "support" corresponding to the "Path Samekh" in Tree Life, which is attributed to TRUMP "Temperance" or "ART", which connects the Lunar Sphere YESOD with Solar Sphere of Tiphareth, and how the Cross intersect the path of Peh. The path of Peh being assigned to the asset "TOWER" or "House of God". Remember that the Kaaba is also called the Bayt-Ullah (House of God).

The ESTELA IN Temple of the Gnostic Mass is indeed the line through which we commune with the subtle energies of Thelemic current, crossing the visible world with the "invisible house" located in Boleskine. The correct orientation of the Stele with Kiblah Boleskine symbolizes alignment with the Thelemic current, and magically ensures a strong bond with these energies.

Boleskine located at 57 ° 16 'Latitude (North) and longitude 4 ° 30' West.
