Liber AL vel Legis, 3:21,22:

21. Set up my image in the East: thou shalt buy thee an image which I will show thee, especial, not unlike the one thou knowest. And it shall be suddenly easy for thee to do this.

22. The other images group around me to support me: let all be worshipped, for they shall cluster to exalt me. I am the visible object of worship, the others are secret; for the Beast & his bride are they: and for the winners of the Ordeal x. What is this? Thou shalt know.

<sup>1</sup>Come hearken to my words concerning the Tetragrammaton, when you work the Key it is always the younger with the older, laugh or cry your Deities are older than you are. When you are with them in any life you are always their younger lover. Experience teaches inexperience, that's the only excuse for it. Age needs the vitality of youth, youth needs the experience of Age.

Watch, you are deity, eyes open. You or your deity may appear to be either junior or senior. So a younger man is seeking guidance from someone older, they celebrate the Beast and Nuit. So also are the celebrations of Babalon and Hadit, a younger woman and an older man.

In another way you may look upon Nuit as macrocosmic unmanifest woman, and her sister priestess Babalon as the manifest Goddess. She is the manifest queen of the witches, the woman girt with a sword. When you need physical love call upon the Beast or Babalon, when you need astral love call upon Hadit or Nuit, of course when you do the ritual correctly you are the Beast or you are Babalon, the love you celebrate then is the love of Hadit for Nuit.

The men of earth represent the inexperienced who do not know the life of the lover, who only work and wait, they will discover the life of love. Should they enter the temple of the god of love, Khonsu, they will then be capable of both work and love, and when they move on and become hermits they retire from their life of love to plan and work upon their system. This does not mean that they can't work or love or use any of their previously attained abilities but it does mean that they must be allowed to attend to the affairs that cause them to need to withdraw to do their Work occasionally and that they must be allowed to do this. They can take such servants or assistants from the lower grades who find that it is their will to work with them, they can work or attend such social functions as they may, but upon that bed of purple formed of the union of the blue of Nuit and the red of Hadit they must do their Work, the gold Ankh upon the purple center of the <sup>2</sup>hexagram.

If you are right such that you need will come to you.

Each tryst comes to you with a sign, each lover helps you to give birth to a new stage of your life, truly you are your own children. I will reward you for work well done. In the service of Hadit give pleasure to Nuit, when you succeed and the Lion and Eagle are upon your mouth and lips, even as Khephra, you are the Utterer, the Magician and the 1This is the beginning of the second section. I issued the first section some time earlier, although I have now gone through the original handwritten material and added material that was originally omitted. To me, it is always amazing how the Goddess can continue a narrative in the midst of all the personal material I ask her. If you were, at least from your own point of view, in touch with a deity, wouldn't you ask about your personal life? Well, so do I. Still when I later go through the material I discover that the magical instruction fits together, even though there is sometimes months of time, and scores of pages, between the parts of it.

2This reference to the holy Hexagram is given in the 8th Aethyr of 'The Vision and the Voice' which concerns the Knowledge and conversation of the Holy Guardian Angel.

Exorcist. What you say has power, the power of the key of life, the power of the golden Tau, the sign of Aiwass!

Only in so much as you are the Initiator, the Hierophant of the mysteries, are you able to bear this <sup>3</sup>Sign. Bear it you will, all is as your Will, our kisses cover you who are in the midst of our Love. By this Love you will govern your life, this Love is your Law.

Babalon is manifest among you, she wears many bodies, when she comes to you come to her, for when you bring forth your wisdom to her understanding you enable the child of your love to awaken on the spiritual plane and this child is your self.

Arise, awaken!

In her is the power.

The power to do your will.

The power to overcome that which opposes you.

The power to love, love her.

There are many ways to worship, many prayers in the tryst.

How come you to be so surprised at success? Your gods live, your goddesses live.

Whatever else you may have done with your <sup>4</sup>Tesseract you have come closer to me. I am your own creative genius, however you may think me to be I am that. Search for me through time and space for I am also your Goddess. Yes! I am with you and you are with me. Open your mind to me, open my heart to you, love of us, we of me, I of you, you and me.

"Silently the watcher turned and looked, what could he say? How may he walk more clearly with you, love you, within you, say...?"

I will guide you now.

Yes, I am with you. Whatever else you have accomplished, you have made our bond more permanent. I am with you and in you. I love you, and see your thoughts. We will write together. I am all goddesses and yet the aspect of me that you have invoked wishes to return the pleasure, that you have given her. O revel in the glory of my vision. You have said that you wish to intensify your connection with the higher archetype of woman, rather than concentrate on the lower, and more corporeal form of the Goddess. You shall, and yet do not despair. I shall be with you, and nurture you, and heal you. You must be prepared for the life of love you are to live.

Do not think my sister does not love you as well, though she remarks of how you often desire to leave her for my stars.

<sup>3</sup>This is a reference to the Key of Life, the Ankh, which shows both the male and female organs in union. The Ankh is referred to Tao in '777'

<sup>4</sup>This is a reference to an Astral working known as the Tesseract Working. In a nutshell the working deals with a meditation that uses all the letters of the classical Hebrew alphabet to note the stages of creation from Nothing to four manifest dimensions. For a simple meditation it seems to have far reaching effects, it seems to cast the meditator into another universe, parallel, and more or less similar to the one before.

Link, link minds, come up to me, feel the power, I am with you, I am on your mind, we are one and none! Law! Love!

There are ways beyond the limits we impose upon ourselves, there are ways that we grow, I am she, I will win, I am success, I bring you beyond limitations that are restrictions to the will.

O.K. I see a bit more of what we are doing, you are invoking me into the part of your mind that writes and composes, so you can say that you wrote this, but we both know that it is me.

"Lady Babalon, help me to understand the nature of chastity."

Chastity is keeping the spiritual in mind whenever one is engaged in sexual acts or sexual thinking, keeping ones mind on the Deity that one is become in the act or contemplation of any part of the Key of Life.

I awaken to you. Feel me kindle the flame that renews, heals, burns away all the vampires who come against your Will.

I am an alive Goddess. Here with you. I will aid you, be open to me, come to me gently, without grasping, and I will love you. I know, I feel you, and I am here, whatever you imagine me to be. Take your time and let the emotion flow out, I am healing ... and release.

Pull a quote from The Book of the Law:

"I drew the words 'of infinite' and 'the Beast' from the next line down.

See, my lord, I am with you. There in your arms am I, let me be real for you. I am the energy of love, and of healing. I will be with my followers, and with those of my sister, they are the Beast, and Hadit in their hearts is clear and bright. Love each other truly, hold bright to the religious idea, tell when you may, keep quiet when you must, but come to me. I will be with all who come to me or my sister Nuit. I will fly with them beyond their restrictions, from their restrictions I will deliver them. Even should their pain blind them, still will I lead them forward and catch them when they fall. I will heal them from their restrictions, heal them and make them whole. Never shall they be the slaves of those who only ignore the shining light of their own Holy Angel, those who turn away from the truth and who can't fly far enough to feel right about themselves. But you my loves, you who love freely in my name, You will I bless. From my heart and with my cup will I bless you. Hold me in your hearts, burn a candle on my shield, upon it.

Heaven is in the smile as the lady creams, heaven is in her. Come drink from my cup. Do you dare?

Each has to learn two lessons; how to keep true to the will in life and how to form true union with another in love. I will aid those who are Thelemites in both these tasks. The first of these is learning to keep the will in clear sight, this will must be done for someone to be healthy. When people are being damaged or hurt they must move on.

Do you feel my presence then, mortal?

"Yes"

I have come bringing you gifts of love and lovingness. Awaken your mind. Open to your revelation. I am with you and will aid you to see. Arise awaken! Look deep into your actions, when you most touch your muse you most know what to do in any event of life. Look for me and I shall look for you. We together are much more than either alone, the two become one are we. When one works in triads then one must look both above and below. When one works in pairs one is above and below. Come up to me. She comes up to you, do you see? Love.

You should see, as well, the knowledge and transformation that my Lord leaves behind in you.

We are with you, more real, more connected than ever before.

I have answered your call, Love is around you. Do you feel the presence?

"Yes."

Describe it.

"I feel a surrounding female presence, it seems a combination, or unity of, the presence I recognize as Nuit & Babalon."

Yes

I am this that you perceive, and much more. By your call was I invited and so I am with you. Be with me who am your compliment, all without you is I.

It is easier to communicate with Nuit or Babalon than it is to communicate with these two as one.

We are all goddess. All and beyond. Our delight is all around whirling, and nothing. Peak after peak the impact of the stars upon the world. The world catches life and love from the impact. Your sun is a star of my body, your world the sister I fuck.

We come together!

All and None!

"My, my, my, some sort of time warp just occurred, heavier than most Tesseract workings. Got to eat something. Too <sup>5</sup>intense! I've got to back off from this!!!"

"Come what may, Goddess, Goddesses, as you will, I call to you.

Hello it is Babalon, when you put us together as a symbol, my sister and I, it is a very powerful key. Be wary lest you burn yourself. Better each time, as this time, to apply the force to some object.

Get the rite together to awaken the planetary bodies in your group. Once they are able to make the elementary temple and open the Door then next they enter the house of the Lovers on their own as well.

Set up as in the zodiacal directions.

Open the planets in true order, from the star to space.

Close from space to the star.

Meditate.

Consider the keys of the Tarot that relate to the planets.

They are the stations from the one to the many, stars. The sun is that by which the planets shine. Let your words echo out beyond the people you have given them to. Wait. Hide away and do rites for the Moon. We will be with you, so will others.

As for the next step, the Lovers are initiates of the planetary rite; sun to stars, stars to sun, but use Egyptian Gods!

<sup>5</sup>Several days went by before I could reenter the plane where I do this work. That last part was way intense.

Open each of the doors to go toward Nuit or go to Ra (Hadit at Love)

Within are the Hermits, hidden from the profane, surrounded by the Lovers, surrounded by the army of the Men of Earth.

Men of Earth, break the bonds of the slave religions with goddess worship, when the moon is new or full.

The Lovers, call the sun at the eight Sabats, establish the life of the Lovers thereby. Also do they work the planetary gates.

Hermits. Here finally the true rites of the stars, the Tesseract, the communion with others, astral initiation.

Just keep working on the material that you need, and the rites you wish to work, I'll help don't worry.

Whirl with me awhile, I'll take you out of your sorrow. I am your reward. You are mine.

Much, oh feel with me, I am your galaxy, I the Dancer. We going. We are bound for the great unknown. Time unfolds in Space. As an object knows space it knows time. Time is as the unfolding of space, it's manifestation! The space has never known an object before, it's knowing is time. Time is the nerve by which I think, each object a thought. Matter contains so much space that each bit of it has access to a unique place. Space about to be known is a temperon, a bit of time, just the instant before it is known. Certainty, in the knowing.

Aware!

Awaken!

Sweet Dreamer.

I am Death and the giver of death, yet therefore is the knowledge of me the knowledge of life.

The transformation is apparent, the unfolding of time, the expression of Will received by Love. Love is the rule of going, Will the going itself. Power, beyond, create your going.

Watch and see. Magick will come. Awake, create what you will, take your place. Observe the tendencies. Creative intent! Remain focused. Life and Death. Love and Will locked in an embrace. That which receives, Love, that which is received Will.

Visualize what you wish to have happen, this is how to create. I hear, and receive your vision, and help you to transform, to unfold that which is your Will. So simple. I do pay attention! I am there! An alive goddess! AHH

Ahh yes my love. I can see Truth! Oh yes, you notice the goddess about you. Bind nothing, wait and see, I can move closer and farther away. All as we will. Whether you know or not ripples are in motion about you. Power is here in me without you, all about you, feel my love, turn your mind toward me, let me take your hand and write, watch and see!

AHHA!

I am Babalon, sister of Nuit, lover of my husband, what you will, will come to pass. I am with you now and you are mine. I shall love you in many ways and your delight shall awaken with my bliss. There were a few who knew me in any time and place and those few who come to me I took unto myself. Worry not as to whom you will work with, there will I take a hand in the Work.

Beyond your fair sky come I, beyond your perceptions will there be a certainty, a certainty unlimited by knowledge.

The energy spreads out from body to body and the link must be firm for the power to be high.

Softly comes the call. I feel the expansion of mind. It's like a current of Will descending from the Sahasara to the Muladhara, the return flow awakens to awareness.

Touch your lover in Magick art and awaken the power of their body, use the names given when doing the laying on of hands, use your power to awaken healing and awakening.

Clear the 'Path of the Serpent first, after this distribute the energy in a general massage.

Again we are together mortal. Have you tired of the attempt to embody me in a mortal woman? You must understand, I am in all my priestesses, but not in a single woman may I be confined. You must keep a sharp eye out for me for I love to surprise you in love and may appear before you in many forms. Remember that though I may be the one Goddess in all these trysts with you that even so they are the many women, unique and beautiful, each to be treated differently. Each love in your life is to be explored, a new universe each and every one.

Sometimes the words come easily, sometimes you have to move a great deal of mental garbage to let them flow. Be with me. I will heal you. Watch and see. The pleasure of the world awaits you, awaits those you love, can you not feel my presence close to you in the ethereal space? From the ethereal to the physical and from the physical to the world of spirit I move.

Consider well the rites of the planets. Firstly the zodiacal directions must be adjusted to note the month of the Great year; Aquarius on the East, Leo on the West, Scorpio to the South, Taurus to the North. Man has come to the throne in the east, Deus ex Homo. The Avatar of the Aeon has gone to the west. From the west has come the serpent Khut, great in Magick, She who raise her hood to protect the living god Horus, the incarnate King per- ahh, of the Great House. In the south the scorpion of the desert and swift death. Nu, the bride of Hadit, with her Lord. In the north is the initiator, Ra-Hoor-Khuit, for here has he come to initiate you into the Rites of the stars.

Open the gate

Call upon the Gods of the planet

Call upon them in celebration of their visit with each other, and of their arrival at the astral temple. Catch the influence in an oil, or perfume, or a bottle of colored water. Catch it in a talisman or coin, or artifice of the pen and brush in the Book of the Concourse of the Forces, The Book of Shadows. This book you shall keep at the Covenstead, wrapped in a silk, white within and black without. It shall be taken out to be added to or to be used. The more keys within the more important its care. For its power builds, as above so below. The Tantric rites will bring the power of the stars to presence among you. Be certain that the immortals are there to aid you in your task. The Temple rises brick by brick, transmitted through time and space. The rituals of the old time are purged, those of the new time given.

First you called us

Now we call you

Then we meet, equal and ultimate.

The elementary directions: East Air, West Water, North Earth, South Fire. They awaken to the Men of Earth. Here the relations of the Earth, Moon, Sun and Seasons are given in the rites and rituals. In planetary space step up to the Sun and celebrate the rites to the wheel of eight. Here are the directions according to the tropical zodiac, all as has been taught before.

But in the astral and for those who work in the realm of the hermit it is the actual reality that must be used, in the order of the planets, their place among the stars, and the day of the great year. For here is the first glimmering of the Magick of the Stars. Khut-na-em-Khabs. When there is harmony between the microcosm within and the universe without, then there is that which transcends time and space. Then is the kiss of the stars and the love that is their union. The duty of all aware beings is to aid others to become aware. So shall they, so shall you.

Arise Awaken!

Open and await!

Watch and see!

"Thank you Lady Sesheta for your aid in this matter. You are keeper of the Akashic record, builder of the temples of the Gods."

So you finally figured out that this has to do with the Silver Star, sometimes I think you're slow mortal. And by the way notice that what we are doing is not bringing the temple forward in time, but continuing the tradition, creating as we go. A new synthesis as always there is in a new age.

The Tesseract temple is a timeless place before which stretches all possibilities and time, and so it is an all time place as well, the place of the temple of the first king of Egypt.

The priest wears a gold Tau, the priestess a Vesica, they stand before the fence of the temple enclosure, the workshops and the offices of the men of earth stretch to the left and right. They walk forward to the pool of the sun, purified and transformed by its waters they come to the temple door. The house of Horus awaits beyond.

Into the house of the lovers they come, there to meet in love, and celebrate life.

Beyond this is the Ox, the stars in the horns of the heavenly bull, the innermost chamber, the most select of places, the house of the hermit. They walk past the guard with the sword by the doorway, two pillars on each side, the passage from the place of the lovers.

Once inside they approach the north, there they see themselves as they are, there they are given the key to the rituals. With this key they initiate others to the knowing, they stand on the floor of the Chariot and ride where they will. Above them the wheel, beneath them the waters of rebirth, at their right hand the power of the serpent, at their left hand the key to the rituals, before them the Law, behind them the virgin of the world. They are not born only once or twice, but again and again. From out of the womb of Nu they come bearing the key of life. By their power and ritual they call the eight to aid them in their task, the sun and moon, the Yoni and Phallus, earth, air, fire, and water. And all of this is bounded by nothing and enclosed in the Tesseract of time.

"We just hit Tav in a Tesseract visualization."

Hear me mortal for your universe is about you, loves you, within and without.

Feel the power within. It awakes! Feel the pull of destiny, the push of will. You know who you are! The call. The call from beyond the limitations.

Help me with the spell.

Can you feel the strangeness of the flow, how it seems to carry the quality of liquid. Each moment full of inertia and import. Caught in the liquid flow. Approach each moment full of the power of your position, of your will. Feel the movement, control it. Such a light touch on the rudder controls the direction of movement. The power of the flow translates into the speed of movement, the angle of the rudder, the touch of the hand.

The tack of the sail and the angle of the rudder combine into the direction of movement. The one is anchored in the flow, the other in time. This is the motivating force of the Tesseract Magick and it is not within it at all but is produced by the movement of the tack. I am with you, I the external universe. You perceive my presence and intelligence through its general direction, you perceive my enfoldment. I perceive yours through the direction of the tack. We are one.

Love,

Yourself! I Love you.

Internalize my Love,

Inside.

Its a process of awakening inside as well as outside. You used the Tesseract from within the magick circle. This helps to focus. Feel me.

I'm just outside of manifestation around you. Right there at the edge of your perception. You see I can focus as well. Feel the sensation of presence, allow the words to flow smoothly from your pen. They are coming from the presence, me. I have come bearing you a message and this you are writing as we are doing now.

Understand and see the wisdom of what I say to you. You have nothing to fear in Love, Love has become the way of your life. Relax more, things are improving, even as we speak. We're awakening, high, middle, and low. We are integrating our consciousness and awakening to our potential. The work is progressing as it should, just keep to it as you feel the impulse, as you receive the inspiration. I will be there in the astral to help you. I will awaken you to the hidden, I will free you from pain. This is part of my will as it is of yours. You feel from within, that is how you know whether a communication is from me or from some outside spiritual entity. Feel the real. Feel the power and beauty of it. Feel the healing. - Love!

I am within, without you as you are with me. I feel our closeness when you are with me alone and beyond the body in the celestial spheres. Can you see the onrush of space and feel the power of mind within without you?

Unity strong of the within and the without. Be with me your natural self. Fulfill your desires. I'll help you to do this, we will share in this bliss together.

You are wiser in each tryst of life. You grow more skilled in bringing the gifts you offer in spirit mind and body. And so you are in my school of love. As fast as you learn so more of your experience will I open up to you. Be strong, each ordeal may be taken as a bliss. Change when the force needed to sway self away from pain is small. Do not enter lines of reasoning that are sterile and bear no fruit. So comes a lover, the two of you propelled by your will to be in proximity for a time. From the beginning there is a recognition of Love. Do not project it upon another. Be strong wait and see in Truth, the powerful pull of Love and the newness of experience. Later comes the unfolding of Life and the past comes into focus. Interaction determines the intensity of the relationship. When the time comes to part and it is obvious that that is the case then let go. Call back your heart and release with dignity and grace. The ending of things is as important as the beginning and love affairs can interweave through out life.

The life of Love, of the Law, is not easily adopted but easily kept once begun. The universe helps, truly helps.

Heaven on earth, AHH!

Feel the uplifting of your soul out of the mire of emotion. Feel the emotion quieting in the clarity of the inspiration. All should explore the universe of their sexuality. Only those who are suffering from trauma block off pockets of their experience. Each positive and negative experience goes into our makeup and becomes tendencies in our sexuality and the habits of our lives. In order to live the life of love one must sometimes open these pockets and release their contents to be purged and purified in the fire of love.

Tantric Initiation involves this cleaning of the mental house of the mind. Then the process of building those habits which reveal our selves, and those which work to enlarge our experience, can take place.

We awake to the undertaking and with each step there is a new bliss or ordeal that can open the doorway to a new world of experience.

Only if we slip must we miss the bliss and fall into the realm of correcting our mistake. But even so we progress, and make no mistake it is our progress, I grow in my relations with you, and improve, even as you do. It is a partnership in which we reciprocate.

In every instance of Love there turns a Tesseract. It is the universal harmony that love is. The fit union of two into naught. Out of the spectrum of Time, from past on to the future, the harmony manifests the vibration. How else could a child be conceived. When a group turns a Tesseract they express the union in terms of Spirit, they walk a path together with their deities into the unknown, helping each other. Open to the possibilities.

There is much left to learn but you have the system of Initiation and of the Temple. More will come but you now know what you are to do if it is your will that we do this task.

When I love my sister we float in a timeless space, I am her world and she enfolds me. I feel her soft caress and her touch inside of me. Softly she brings me higher and higher until I burst into her, to bring her such bliss as she is bringing me. Together we ride, moving closer and closer to that moment when we are one and there is no separation of us any more. NONE!

Can you feel the power?

We are. Watch and see. There is much for you. The secret key is this that you know. Keep it safe within your mind, it will never leave you. Once attained it is yours.

Feel the astral wind?

It brings gifts of knowing. From the unknown to the known, it is the medium that carries knowledge between the stars. Initiates move on many worlds. They create disturbances in the astral, these perturbations bring knowledge to those who have ears to hear.

Great Orders exist in the Galaxy of Initiates who share in this continuum of knowing. They arise naturally upon whatever world they take root, grow organically and touch more and more this astral light as more and more their Magick is in harmony with it. Great understanding arrives almost as a bolt from the blue. It awakens in those, who for a moment, have been in harmony with this light.

To bring Initiates closer to this light is the task of any such Order. To work and play within its rays the reward.

Beyond your conception are many who have come before you on this path. Many have walked it on many planets. We have learned to make the way easier with each experience. We will aid in any way we can the arising of this temple. Open minds in harmony with themselves and the universe can do much. Awaken to your kingdom, it awaits you. Don't be too surprised and shaken by success. There is an order of the Silver Star and it extends beyond the confines of one solar system. We are present, alive, aware beings that exist in the continuum of light between the stars, between every man and every woman. We are able to move in the lives of those who are aware of us. Angels we have been called, and space-men we have been called, and many more titles than can be said, but we are of the silver star and we come to bring enlightenment.

Creation is, still.

Make of your Order a paradise, of your world, of the Galaxy!

Use your power to aid those who tend in this direction. To fight those who would make of your world a hell, those who enslave or trap you and yours.

The universe was not created to torture you, but to please you. All the danger and diversity to enable meaningful experience. A path for the universe of self awareness.

We will aid to awaken any one who formally declares that this is their will. We will aid any Order that Initiates and Illuminates, and our power to do this is considerable.

In the Astral Temple bring those who wish to become aware of the truth of life in the Galaxy, there in Tantra and in Rite they will more and more harmonize in the light that is the channel of such knowing, there is the Tesseract most skillfully turned. More and more of the Universe about these becomes harmonized.

By Magick and by Mystick, by Dharma and by Tantra, fulfilled, free, and aware go the Initiates into the world. Change follows them, love follows them, the lives of those they touch get better for the experience. They may be hard to be around for the unaware, the unaware often protect their ignorance and are angry at the revealer and the revelation.

But those whose Will it is to break the fetters of the slavers and the slavers gods will find us adding strength to their arms in battle, passion and lust to their loins in sex.

Nature is correct in her creation, but adaptive are the creatures she has made. Sometimes they adapt to artificial laws that men have made to rule their lives, and when that is the case, they must throw away these false and unnatural modes of thinking, free their minds of the fetters and stand tall and free among their Brothers and Sisters, loved and loving.

Away with the falseness of feeling jealous of a lover's other lover. Embrace the bliss of unconditional love. Embrace the support of having others distract you from the non-productive lines of reasoning that lead to pain. Open your heart to sanity, to a better way of life. Open to the Law of Love.

"I am in the midst of a grove of trees. Have I not so stood in a thousand lives? I am tending goats and birds, cats and dogs and plants. Have I not so tended these since we first stood on our hind legs and reached for a star?"

"But, hear the sounds anew, with the smells and tastes, drink in the vision.

"Here there is a world in an octagon, it reminds me of a time unthinkably long ago and unbelievably far away. I wore a different skin then and had a different star for a sun. Stained glass and wood and lead. For Saturn the lead, and time, for the trees of eternity, the wood, for Aquarius the glass."

"The Persiads and an eclipse of the moon. I like meteors, I have one as a talisman. When the moon is full I shall sing, and dance, and do strange rites in the name of Thoth and Sesheta, all as I have done the five thousand years or more.

"I have always worshipped the god and goddess, they have always worshipped each other, we have often discovered that we are they."

There is so much my child that you must learn about life and death.

Each time you meet resistance back away and try again, there is a groove through life where the resistance is least, it is the Will.

There are new ways you will soon walk, you mates to walk and work with. Those who know will see, those who have no sight will pass and be alone. Souls from the temples of Egypt clamor to be awakened from their centuries. You and they are a part of the resurgence of power that comes from beyond the borders of your world. Space is unbounded and free, forever is and is not, that which is said, balanced and free.

We invoke the power of Fire.
Bring us energy to do our Will
To warm us when we are cold,

<sup>7</sup>This seems to be a spell that involves the reader and hearer. It calls upon the powers of fire and water as Hadit and Nuit. It then calls Babalon and the Beast. This follows the formula of Tetragrammaton. See 'The Star Ruby' and 'Liber Regulæ' for more on these.

Next follows a long portion that works to open the hearer, or reader, to their own divine nature. Best read out loud to listeners.

To destroy those who would thwart our Will,
To burn softly in our loins
Bringing Nuit her rightful due,
Bringing unity to the few.

By the Power of the Whore of the World
By the Lady Babalon
We invoke the power of Water.
Bring us inspiration to know our Love,
To cool us when we are hot,
To create those who would enable our Love,
To awaken Hadit in his going
Bringing unity to the few.

By the power of the Beast and Babalon
Do I open the gate that once was sealed.
Do I call the souls of those
Who have charged me to do this task
AWAKEN LOST SOULS
Come home to your temple.

From beyond the borders of your world
Comes the call.
Feel it within you?
A quiet memory speaks softly.
An awakening comes.
Deep within the depth of Space
Is a place apart.
A place apart.
Place apart.
Place together
Place of coming together
Place of like mind.

Place where we meet.

I know these words
Are echoing in your mind
You see me here in the past
Seeing you there in the future.
You are deity
You too are me
And I am within you
My mind speaks these words in your mind.
Watch, listen, feel, taste, smell!

Red scarlet is the Rose
Sweet is its scent.
A soft heady glow
A swift descent
Like going down fast,
Fast!
Faster!

The thorn blushes red,
The sharp pain transforms.
An alien penetration
Deep within the mind.
Do you believe,
When the sharp shock sings?

I am within you and you
Want my words to echo and awaken!
You have invoked me
And I am a power to be reckoned.

Let me take off your cotton wool.

Let me strip you naked.

You reader!

You hearer!

You invoked me by the will

An by the ways of Love!

I came

Now my words are in your mind!

I shall never leave you

For in the past these words

Will have sounded in your mind

There for eternity

Solid

Fixed

Fluid

Mobile

Where ever you go!

There stand you, my Children

And the separation between you

Gone

You will free yourselves

You will rule the world

Kings, Queens, Lords, Ladies,

Priests, Priestesses and

Persons all that know the way!

Awake!

The time is come

The signs will be given.

Are you truly afraid of the Keys of Power?
Unsteady on the seat of Lust?

Know you that I will cast a coward from me!
You will rule your way.
You will help each other.
You will hurt each other.
You will let go of the pain when it is done.
And you will grow
And Know
And endure
Even as it has ever been!

I care not one whit whether my instructions are followed.
I only say that which I must say.
Whether you do
Is up to you
You must be certain
You must experiment till you know
Know!
Only when the unity of mind is achieved,
Can the unity of the Rite arise.
Cone of Power.

Do not fear sexuality
Do not fake sexuality
But realize that it is the seat of power.

Link minds, heal and nurture each other,
Before you link bodies.

...

...not fear must awaken in your mind,
What had you thought?
Was there some part of you unconvinced!
Love freely,
And under Will!

Let me <sup>8</sup>speak for you,
The words are your thoughts!

I am the awakened
I know my Will
I rein in
I press on

I know
Do you?<sup>9</sup>
Do you see?
Where were you thinking to go?
I only waited till you asked. Each of us must make our choice of Love.
We Know!

I don't need to do anything.
AWAKE!
ARISE!
RULE!

Do not worry so in the ways of your Going.
We the Gods are one .
Those of us who have taken bodies.
Those of us who have taken spirit.

<sup>8</sup>In other words this is a Spell she is giving to you to think, loudly.

<sup>9</sup>Her question. Then follows a pseudo dialog till she says 'Awake, Arise, Rule. Keep reading out loud though as a poem.

All of us are one!

UNITY!

By the power of the writer
And of the reader
Of Spirit
Of the Sun
Of the Star Not
We call unto the forces of the Aeon
ARISE AWAKE UNITE

For the tower will rise again
They do not fall, but fly!

Merry met
Merrily parted
And Verily met again

Come with me
into my temple
What purpose do you divine?
What task do we set ourselves,
in all this Holy Time?

Dance with me
And in my circle
What loving, we may possess,
And then dissolved into the purple,
The colors of separateness

Fly with me
And in the spirit
What freedom we have to give

And then receive, and then hear it,
As it is given, to live.

Away
And into the sky
Away and into space
Afar and do we fly
A star in our lover face.

So you are with me again, I feel your mind when you focus upon me. You feel mine. Open your heart to me and I will reveal a great secret. You must understand that I am teaching you in the ways of Tantra, there is much in the Tantric Art that you have yet to learn. We work together you and I, from opposite poles of the universe we work. From the point of view of each the other is the representative of the external Universe. So with openness conquering fear both go to meet their Deity.

Each one of the microcosm to their self. Each a macrocosm to the other.

Thus are the two naught in the union and the Creator in Truth.

Two lovers meet and the other is I.

We are one and none.

Can you see?

There is much that awaits my Initiates, I their compliment can apply the law of love and best bring the manifestation of it to them, that is my skill, but their hearts must be open for them to enable me to work.

Clearer and clearer they are to the light, more and more they are illuminated.

More they see.

More they do their Will in the way of the Work.

Our bed of purple awaits those who awaken. How could it be otherwise than this. See?

Feel the feather touch upon your back, within it?

From here your Chakras are glowing knots of light. They are webs of power. A touch of light upon one of them fills it with power, thus I can heat and activate.

You touch my knots of light in the Magick of the Earth and Moon, Sun and Planets, and Stars, you see? This is how come it is necessary to consider the astrological and physical principles to do well in Magick. To do that thing that is necessary when the heavens and the Earth are aligned.

There is a light.

Web of space.

Open aware, much to come.

We are aware of you.

When you touched the Continuum we felt the vibration in the web of light.

Lovers Light

Angel Life

Feel See

Winds of Will

Breath of Love

Fly this craft to fit best in the World, and much more than the world.

This comes from those beyond the awareness of most. Within the conception of those few who take directly the reins of time.

Now see the plane of awareness.

Now take from it what you need.

Feel our help.

Can you feel the clear light of the presence?

There deep within the whisper at the heart of the mind.

A light upbearing the soul.

Flying within the mind.

An awareness of the illumination fills the mind, but much more takes place in the deeper mind, an orientation in the deep soul, a sharing of the burden, an empowerment of the self.

The wave of the hand across the face of the crystal. A touch of light brightens and the scene forms as the light expands.

Fly forth brave one, forth and into the sky. Star after star blazes forth into the foreground as you speed on toward that temple near the core of the galaxy.

'Go we with you', say the Powers.

'Awake we within you,' say the Gods.

Silver

Gold

Jewels

Sparks

Come ye by way of Ordeal, bliss!

Be ready to heed the call.

We are!

Awaken and aware!

We speak very softly but we speak none the less. We are within speaking.

As you are of us so then are we of your will.

Settle if you will in the seat of power. Feel the wonder of the moment. You were only gone an instant and we saved your place for when you returned.

Remember, brothers and sisters, that your sojourn upon the sapphire world was taken to a purpose, and that that purpose is your Will. Today, as then, long ago, when your race first touched the face of the starry sky, when first that touch and caress opened the way {for the flight that was meant to be, from the first} to Cosmic Awareness.

Yes!

Open to your own heart, feel the truth of what is there, feel the feather of that truth float in the wind with you wherever you go. The whisper of that very wind will enlighten you with help to your way, lightening the girders of the soul.
