

One of many dangerous forms of Shiva's wife, this is Durga Pratyangira in a south Indian depiction. She holds her husband's trident, a sword, drum, and a bowl for catching the blood of the demon which she will slay. Her fangs and the tongues of fire leaping from her head disclose her Tantric association also with the god Kali.

Unique Jainism Art This version of the Navkar mantra is an original handmade illuminated manuscript painting (not a print) displaying a seated deity. The Navkar Mantra (spiritual chant) is the most important mantra in Jainism and can be recited at any time. The Navkär Mantra contains the main message of Jainism. The message is very clear. If we want to be liberated from this world then we have to take the first step of renunciation by becoming a monk or a nun. This is the beginning. If we stay on the right path then we will proceed to a higher state, Arihant, and ultimately proceed to Siddha after nirvana (liberation from the cycle of birth and death). The goal of every Jain is, or should be, to become a siddha. The painting is a colorful picture painted with oil on canvas. This art is rare. The painting measures 9 in. wide and 12 in. tall (23 cms X 30.5 cms). NAVKAR MANTRA Namo Arihantanam: I bow down to Arihanta, Namo Siddhanam: I bow down to Siddha, Namo Ayariyanam: I bow down to Acharya, Namo Uvajjhayanam: I bow down to Upadhyaya, Namo Loe Savva-sahunam: I bow down to Sadhu and Sadhvi. Eso Panch Namokaro: These five bowings down, Savva-pavappannasano: Destroy all the sins, Manglananch Savvesim: Amongst all that is auspicious, Padhamam Havei Mangalam: This Navkar Mantra is the foremost. - See more at: <http://www.artnindia.com/shop/jain-painting-navkar-mantra-jainism-indian-religious-handmade-canvas-oil-artwork/#sthash.zTxjLSAg.dpuf>

Samuh Ayambil

NAV PAD
1	Arihant
2	Siddha
3	Acharya
4	Upadhyaya
5	Sadhu
6	Darshan
7	Gyan
8	Charitra
9	Tapa

Shri Navpadji Oli Tap festivals are considered to be Shaswati, meaning permanent. It means Navpadji Oli festivals exist in all time cycles (past, present and future). During these days, everyday worship is offered to the Navpad. Each day of nine days' festival is devoted to nine pads of Siddhachakra.

The Siddhachakra is the Wheel of Perfection

This mandala of the siddhachakra is the purest form of meditation.

There are nine points of energies, which are harmonised in one mandala.

In the centre is the Arihant – the embodied liberated soul

On the top of the Arihant is the Siddha – the perfect supreme soul

On the right side of the Arihant is Acharya – example of teaching and practice

Below Arihant is Upadhyaya – a Jain religious teacher

On the left of the Arihant is the Sadhu – living simplicity

Between the Siddha and Acharya represents faith (Darshan)

Between the Acharya and Upadhyaya represent knowledge (Gyan)

Between the Upadhyaya represents conduct (Charitra)

Between the Sadhu and Siddha represents penance and forbearance (Tapa)

During these nine days, we should do Ayambil, where we eat once in a day in one sitting. The food contains only cereals and pulses not sprouted. It is simple spice free food which is boiled or cooked without milk, curd, ghee, oil, oil seeds, green/raw vegetables, fruits and sugar. Of course, NO ROOTS.
