Yoga>Untranslated Tantras

Kaula and the Other Upanishads, Spanda Karikas, and Tantrasara.

I also added a Yoga>Yoga folder, and moved any text relating to Astrology, Saivism, Shaktism, Untranslated Tantras, and Yoga into their respective new folders. Anything left is of a general nature, academic, or to be taken with a grain of salt. It's worth noting that I've on good authority that the Aghora texts should be taken with a grain of salt; they're not entirely wrong, but there's a lot missing or misunderstood.

This has also given me an opportunity to update the acquisition list with a few rare texts on these subjects that have eluded me:

Kalikapurana, tr B.N. Shastri. Sanskrit and English in two volumes, Nag Publishers 1992. A very important work rendered here into excellent English from the Sanskrit. Apart from containing legends relating to Kamakhya, Kali, Tripura, Shiva, Brahma, Vishnu et al, this very readable translation also contains information about how Shiva and Shakti decided they were so inseparable they should assume the half male-half female form. The latter part of this purana contains pujas of the usual suspects in the Kaula tantrik school. (HIGH FUCKING PRIORITY)

"Karavali Nirnaya", Arthur Avalon

Kaulajnananirnaya of the School of Matsyendranath, text with introduction by Bagchi and English tr by Michael Magee, PP, Varanasi, 1986. One of the most important source texts for the Kaula and Natha traditions

Kali Kaula by Fries

The Kaulajnananirnaya: The Esoteric Teachings of Matsyendrapada Sadguru of the Yogini Kaula School of Tantric Tradition

Sarada Tilaka Tantra (English Translation)

Hindu Predictive Astrology by Gopesh Kumar Ojha

Kularnava Tantra by Ram Kumar Rai (The Complete English Translation).
